WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 1

The morning session was opened at ten o'clock with Mrs. W. N. Jones, President, presiding, by singing our hymn for the year "Jesus Calls Us." The devotional was led by Mrs. J. R. Jester of Winston-Salem, reading a few verses from the 11th chapter of Luke, followed by prayer by Mrs. J. B. Eller, Statesville.

Mrs. Jones presented a bunch of carnations sent to the Convention by Mrs. Livingston Johnson, of Raleigh, with the following message: "There hath not failed one word of all His good promise."—I Kings 8:56. Mrs. J. J. Roddick, Winston-Salem, moved that an expression of thanks be sent to Mrs. Johnson for the flowers and message.

Mrs. Edna R. Harris, of Raleigh, moved that the roll call be omitted, and that those whose registration cards had been turned in to the Secretary up to that time be recognized as constituting the organization, and the Secretary be authorized to add to the list those who registered later. Carried.

Mrs. H. T. Stevens, of Asheboro, moved that the program as arranged be adopted as the order of business. Carried.

The address of welcome was made by Mrs. L. H. White, of Winston-Salem. Mrs. Nettie Hoge, of Greensboro, responded to this address.

Mrs. W. N. Jones introduced Mr. M. A. Huggins, newly elected Secretary of the Baptist State Convention. Mr. Huggins made some general statements about the problems near at hand, and expressed his desire to coöperate with our organization in all its work, and also expressed appreciation for the help the W. M. U. had given.

Report of Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Edna R. Harris, of Raleigh. Adopted by motion.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY'S REPORT

"I've said my seven times over and over, Seven times one are seven."

In 1926 you called one to serve as your Corresponding Secretary, who year by year for these seven, has after each Annual Meeting, begun with a new determination to try to lead out into larger service our women and young people in the definite work of giving Christ to the lost millions of the world, and for the seventh time she comes to look back over the year to recount what has or has not been accomplished. You have been a faithful band of co-workers and have "cheered from the side lines" many times when the days were dark and our plans seemed "all aglee." It was easy to cheer and to be happy when the way was easy, but when affairs of the world are swinging backward to normal times it has not been so easy, but the report of 1932 shows that many have endured more heroically than ever before and we came to the end of the year strengthened in our loyalty, and love and labor. Societies like men are not developed by ease and luxury, but by regular exercise and work, so this year we bring a larger number of organizations by 152 than last year, which means that fewer societies were dropped at the end of the year because of "no report." We had 547 organizations that gave more than in 1931, and Spencer First W. M. S. and Everetts W. M. S. more than doubled their gifts. We had 512 new organizations during the year and deducting the inactive ones we had 2,780 active organizations on January 1, 1933.

If we could only hold the organizations each year and each one in turn help to reach out to that other nearby church, we would long ago have reached every one of the 950 churches in North Carolina that have no missionary organization. We have gained this year because we report 109 more churches having a missionary organization than last year.

If the 45,757 members enrolled in our organizations were all deeply interested in giving missions its first place, the earnestness of such numbers would be felt by the hosts of unenlisted women and young people and it would be easier to win them. Let "Enlist and Extend" be our battle cry for 1933. Would it be asking too much to ask each member to win a new member in a whole year? Would it be a task too difficult for every Woman's Missionary Society to foster a Sunbeam Band and at least one other missionary organization for young people in the church?

We were doubly fortunate in having Miss Leachman give us two month's field work—February and September. Her messages gripped men and women, and we are seeing results of her contacts with churches, Associations, and Divisions, and in the twenty conferences with hundreds of leaders.

Enduring hardship did not hinder seven of the 1931 A-1 churches from being A-1 in 1932—West Asheville; Lenoir First; Siler City; Angier Avenue, Durham; Watts Street, Durham; Blackwell Memorial, Elizabeth City; North Wilkesboro. Brown Memorial, Winston-Salem; First, Winston-Salem; French Broad, Asheville; East Flat Rock and Enfield came up A-1, making twelve churches having full graded A-1 Unions.

Of those making four or more points on the Standard we had 24 less this time, due to the fact that so many organizations did not make any report on the Standard. Each year our mind reading is put to the test by some organizations declaring themselves "terribly disappointed to find their name not on the A-1 list" when the Standard of Excellence report is our only means of knowing and it was not sent back to us. For the "seventy times seven" I beg your help in getting fuller reports.

We did not measure up in number of subscriptions to Royal Service, Home and Foreign Fields, or Biblical Recorder, which accounts in a measure for organizations lagging in interest. Each one can make a test for herself, that the thing that interests her is the thing about which she knows something, and not the thing or place or folk of which she knows nothing. Every member a subscriber to Royal Service is a worthy goal. The Superintendent's report shows only one subscription to every nine members, but Birmingham's list shows one in every seven which is a little better record but poor enough to spur us on for a better record this year. Before the days of Royal Service, in the Union's recommendation adopted in 1909 there was a plea for more members to have the Biblical Recorder in the home, the plea is renewed. Let's stand by such W. M. U. helpers as Royal Service and the Biblical Recorder. Then consider what it may mean to have World Comrades for the boys and girls and The Window of Y. W. A. Then, too, consider what it means not to have the best religious magazines in the home.

Enter into the prayer life of our Union: in the nine o'clock prayer hour, in the family altar in the special season of prayer. "Seven times will I praise thee" said the Psalmist. In the upset of many personal plans, much of praise and thanksgiving for the many blessings that are ours are often forgotten. Many wonderful reports came in from our weeks of prayer. Some of the best help in the Southland and the world are secured to plan and prepare the programs and material for our use. In Japan, China, Africa, South America, and Rumania, these programs are translated for use there, so that round the world we circle at these seasons of prayer. More organizations observed the Season of Prayer for Foreign Missions than either for Home or State Missions, but far too few observed these special prayer seasons. Spread before us in review at these seasons are the needs, and the marvelous results accomplished by the feeble support we give to those on the mission fields who stand in the face of cuts, deprivations and sufferings, and carry on. We feel with Merriman: "There is no finer chemistry than that by which the element of suffering is so completely compounded with spiritual forces that it issues to the world as gentleness and strength." We learn of yet untouched millions and are eager to have a part in winning them. "We learn to climb by keeping our eyes not on the valleys that lie behind, but on the mountains that rise before us," and in 1933 may we fix our eyes more on the mountains than on the valleys, and climb upward.

"Now Concerning the Collection:" For the past three years the backward trend in gifts has been distressing to us all, as we have known what it meant to the State, South-wide and World-wide missions. We are below where we were in 1920 in our year's totals. A falling off in gifts was general throughout Divisions, Associations, and Societies, and proportionate in all parts of the State. When apportionments were sent out a year ago, Liberty Association offered to increase her apportionment when every other one was reduced one-sixth, and some refused to accept even that apportionment, and best of all Liberty went beyond her increased apportionment, and was the only Association making ten points on the Associational Standard. Alleghany, Blue Ridge, Brushy Mountain, Caldwell and Yadkin went beyond their apportionments, too.

REPORT OF YOUNG PEOPLE'S LEADER

Tracing the Rainbow

It is said by men of old that from unresting seas and lowly earth-places, vapors gather in the higher atmosphere to form great clouds across whose expanse the sunshine reflects an arch, the layers of which exhibit all the rich hues of light. Thus heaven and earth combine to produce one of the most beautiful sights that eyes ever beheld. This thing of beauty, the rainbow, is the symbol of "God's everlasting promise" to His people, "I do set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth," Gen. 9:13. Thus the rainbow has come to be a symbol of divine beneficence toward man. This bow of promise has through the ages, upon its appearance in the heavens gladdened and strengthened the heart of man. One is again reminded that although human obstructions have delayed, nothing can ultimately defeat the purposes of God.

His purpose is being worked out by the Woman's Missionary Union in its endeavor to go into all the world with the Gospel and to teach her young people to have a definite part in world evangelization. The rich hues of the W. M. U. "Bow of Promise" are familiar and dear to the mother heart.

The brilliant yellow of the little ones—the Sunbeams—shines brightest in number of societies and members. Mrs. J. J. Riddick of Winston-Salem, First Church, reports one such group in 1892 having 75 members giving $75.00 in one year. Would that our 588 Sunbeam Bands in 1932 whose gifts averaged less than eight dollars each could have measured up to such a high standard. One hundred twelve new Sunbeam Bands were organized or re-organized during the year. How brilliant the yellow had we saved all the old and added the new. Sixty-one of the group go on record as doing A-1 work. Our slogan for the year was a "Sunbeam Band in every church where there is a W. M. S." Let us go on with this in mind training them for Him.

The green of the rainbow represents the Girls' Auxiliary. This next largest link in our young people's chain of promise reports 508 Auxiliaries. Our "girls alert" have made a good record; a net increase of 37 societies, with 76 of the whole being A-1. Many girls have done "extra" work. Besides the regular programs and mission study they have spent time and study on the Forward Steps. This phase of our girls' work informs them of the work and workers of Southern Baptists, and encourages the study of God's Word. A hearty response also came to our call to Meredith House Party. One hundred five girls and counselors attended. Miss Catherine Danforth of Columbia Bible School and Mrs. E. McNeil Poteat, formerly missionary to China, were the principal speakers. The girls were most enthusiastic and made our meeting worth while. For many reasons we deem it wise to change this annual affair from the spring to the fall.

The royal blue of the rainbow hue stands for our boys. From the 1907 minutes of W. M. U. we read, "Though the organization of Boys' Bands has not been urged, deeming it best that the growth be spontaneous, there is a growing tendency in that direction." Three such Boys' Bands—Goldsboro, Cherryville, and Durham, First—reported that year. This spontaneous growth has continued in spite of our neglect of the boys. This organization reports a net increase of 35 chapters for the year and 31 chapters were A-1.

This year 1933 marks the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of boys work and we have set for our State the same high goals of the Southern W. M. U.—one-fourth increase in chapters, members, and gifts. Will every Associational young people's leader set her goals while the local church does its share to promote R. A. work? Associational rallies, camps, and special things for our boys will link them up with our Baptist program.

With the silver of the rainbow we will represent Y. W. A. since they have just celebrated their silver anniversary. Ninety-four new societies were reported for 1932 which well brought us our one-fourth increase but alas, those wrecked Auxiliaries keep us from reaching our goal of 400 societies for the year. Three hundred eighty-one Auxiliaries are on our books at the beginning of this calendar year. Fifty of these did A-1 work. Early in the year we called for an Honor Roll of Y. W. A.'s in the State which would make the three anniversary goals of one-fourth increase in members and gifts and organization of one new Y. W. A. Many made one, others two of the points but only eight reported to us as having met all three—Goodsonville, South Fork Association; Salisbury, Rowan; High Point, First, Piedmont; Blackwell Memorial, Elizabeth City, Chowan; Wake Forest, Central; Brown Memorial, Winston-Salem, Pilot Mountain; Bessemer City, Gaston; Watts Street, Durham, Mt. Zion.

Our colleges, or Ann Hasseltine Y. W. A., reports a good year also. Chowan, Mars Hill, Fruitland and Meredith met all points on the college A-1 requirements for last college year. All of the nine college groups had a part in the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering. Meredith led this year, contributing $102.82 to this foreign mission special. Beginning our second quarter of a century with Y. W. A., may we continue our efforts to consecrate the talent and ability of young womanhood to the Master's use.

We are told that although seven different hues may be detected in the rainbow colors, often these are diminished to three—red, blue and gold.

May the gold of the rainbow not represent the gifts of our young people? A total of $27,110.24 was given during the year. This was not equal to the gifts of 1931; however, to the Christmas Offering they gave more than the preceding year. The Y. W. A. and G. A. increased their offering which made the total to this special foreign mission gift $2,862.33. The encouragement of $1.00 givers among the young people and the publishing of names in the Recorder may have added to this contribution. The Y. W. A.'s reported 53; G. A., 20; R. A., 14 and S. B., 29 dollar givers whose names have appeared on our W. M. U. young people's page in the Biblical Recorder.

This special blue of the diminished rainbow is symbolic of the loyal spirit of our young people. Eager are they to fall in line with the plans and programs of W. M. U. They have entered heartily in the special activities, the camps, house parties, Associational rallies, and the Stewardship Declamation Contest. Echoes of the increased interest in this special effort to teach tithing come to our ears. The interest increases with the Divisional Contest and the approaching State Meeting when the real winners are chosen. This year the winners are: Sunbeam, Grace Phillips, Stantonsburg; Junior R. A.—Minter Payne, Clayton; Junior G. A.—Virginia Council, Raleigh; Intermediate R. A.—Grady Pickard, Pittsboro; Intermediate G. A.—Eva Carter, Warsaw; Y. W. A.—Ila Green, Waynesville.

The red of the rainbow's splendor is truly symbolic of the love and sacrifice of our women—state, Associational, and church leaders each faithfully serving in her respective place. The spirit of devotion to the task of training our young people is marked. May we remind ourselves anew that the appearance of the rainbow is a renewal of God's promise—His promises urge us to go onward. He hath promised to answer prayer—"ask and ye shall receive"—strength, power, ability, endurance whatever the need is ours if we ask.

To the discouraged and weary His promise is "cast thy burden upon the Lord, and He shall sustain thee."

Finally He Promises His presence, "Lo, I am with you."

Shall we not go forward in our study and training that the "rainbow around Calvary's Cross" may be a veritable fulfillment of Rev. 7:9, "A great multitude . . . of all nations . . . before the throne."

Message of President, Mrs. W. N. Jones, "Launch Out Into the Deep and Let Down your Nets."

PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL MESSAGE

"Launch Out Into the Deep and Let Down Your Nets." Luke 5:4.

"And it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret.

"And saw two ships standing by the lake, but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

"And he entered into one of the ships which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the people out of the ship. Now when he had left speaking he said unto Simon, launch out into the deep and let down your nets for a draught.

"And Simon answering said unto him, 'Master, we have toiled all the night and caught nothing; nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.'

“And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.”

The incident just related took place in our Lord's ministry, during what is sometimes called The Year of Popularity, when crowds thronged Him, drawn by the marvelous power of the new Teacher, this man from Galilee who cleansed lepers, gave sight to the blind, and even gave to their loved ones those who had passed from life.

In the far East the fishermen on the sea of Gennesaret went early to their labors, yet the crowds were there before them to hear the word of life, and Jesus, pressed by the multitude, entered one of the little boats, while the fishermen mended their nets on the shore. Here He taught the people as never man taught before, while He looked with compassion on the multitude, sin-sick, overburdened, weary and worn with the cares and burdens of life.

The disciples had toiled all night and had taken nothing, and when the Master gave the command, “Launch out into the deep and let down your nets,” Peter the impulsive disciple, the experienced fisherman, knowing that according to all rules of fishing, it was useless to fish in the morning if you had caught nothing in the night, protested, “Master, we toiled all the night and have taken nothing, nevertheless, at thy word, I will let down the net.”

The extension of the Kingdom of God on earth, and its ultimate triumph, lies in the realization by God's people of the significance of this command, and our obedience to the word of the Master. It is a challenge to a great task. No heroism is required if we keep our boats close to the shore, if we follow in the paths marked out by those who have gone before us; but to launch out into the deep into unknown seas, facing we know not what, is a test of our faith, and courage and our devotion to Him, whom we love and serve.

The expansion of the Kingdom of God has always involved launching out into the deep. The great apostolic mission began with a small body of disciples to whom had been given a message for the world with the Divine assurance of power and the presence of God. It ended with the Christianization of the world as then known.

Into the deeps of the Roman Empire, from the eternal city on its seven hills, out to the Euphrates on the east, to the pillars of Hercules on the west, from the Danube River on the north to Ethiopia in the South, the messengers went.

The great Roman highways made this vast territory accessible, the power of the Roman Empire made it safe. Everywhere the people were pagan, it was a world literally given over to idolatry. It has been said, “That the fullness of time had come was shown in many ways, but in none more emphatically than by the speed with which the message was carried.”

It was not a popular message the early disciples carried, and today the vast catacombs of Rome bear silent witness to the sufferings, sacrificial lives and martyrdom of many of those who believed. They faced the deep of persecution, and many met death in forms too terrible to relate.

In "The Progress of World Wide Missions," Dr. Glover says, "the whole church was imbued with the spirit of witnessing, and in the course of ordinary social intercourse, travel and commerce, rather than by any extensive organized movement, the gospel spread far and wide, and little companies of believers sprang up in many lands." The fervor and enthusiasm of the early disciples was never equalled by those in later years, yet in the early centuries of the Christian Era, we find some notable names, men who gave themselves to a great cause and who were willing to sacrifice even life itself as they entered new and unknown territory, launching out into literal deeps of ignorance and spiritual darkness. There was no church to stand back of their efforts. They went forth alone to carry the message.

Constantine's conversion on the eve of battle—his victory following a vision of the cross—caused him to declare Christianity as the State religion. This was not the glorious triumph it was thought to be, though it brought protection to the messengers of the cross, because it brought into the church a great body of people who had no knowledge of spiritual things. The greatest enemies to the cause of Christ have always been, not the enemies outside the fold, but the enemies within.

In this period we find such men as Ulfilas, whose Christian parents were carried captive by a band of warlike Goths and who became, on reaching maturity, a missionary to these people, winning almost a nation to the Christian faith; Martin Bishop of Tours, the messenger to the Gauls; Patrick, who perhaps achieved more than any other man in the period of medieval missions; Augustine, the great pioneer to England, who became the first Archbishop of Canterbury. These and many others of their day and time launched out into the deeps of unknown seas to carry the banner of the cross.

The rise of Mohammedanism in the East, and the advance of the power and authority of Roman Catholicism in the West marked the period we sometimes call the dark age of missionary activity. Many devout souls at this time enlisted in the Crusades, which had for their objective the rescue of the Holy Land from the hands of infidels. The Crusaders was actuated by many motives as all debts of those who enlisted were cancelled, absolution from sin was promised by the Pope, and in addition there was the thrill of adventure, so we can hardly say they were moved entirely by religious zeal.

In the pages of history, one man stands out pre-eminently as venturing far from the safety and shelter of the shore in his efforts to correct ecclesiastical abuses, moral corruption and heathen practices within the church. The Reformation was not in any sense of the word a missionary movement, nevertheless there was laid at this time the foundation for the beginning of the great missionary period that was to follow. The Reformation separated the Church into two distinct and sometimes antagonistic forces—Roman Catholicism and Protestantism.

We may date the beginning of the great modern missionary movement to three men—William Carey who went to India in 1792, Robert Morrison who began work in China in 1807 and Adoniram Judson, the great apostle of American Foreign Missions, who sailed for India in 1810. To these men it was indeed a venture into the unknown, as they faced the deeps of heathenism. The wisdom of their venture was questioned by some of the wisest and best men of their time, and the far reaching results of their undertaking were far beyond their most sanguine expectations. To them the call of the Master came even as it did to the disciples of old, and having put their hand to the plough there was no thought of turning back. Their heroism and sacrifice, and the heroism and sacrifice of others who followed them, called the Church to a new era in missionary activity, and even in our own day their lives are still an incentive and inspiration to a great host who are endeavoring to make His name known to the uttermost parts.

During the great missionary period of the world's history the seed of the Kingdom of God was planted in every country, and even in the islands of the sea. We face not a Christianized world today, but a world to which the gospel message has been preached. The past century has been the century of privilege to the Church at home. No generation previous ever had, nor any in years to come will have, a greater or even as large an opportunity as in this great missionary period just passed. The apostle John, in his message to the church at Philadelphia, said "Behold, I have set before thee an open door and no man can shut it." The open door to the nations of the world came in the experience of many of our own day and generation. Never again, perhaps, will there be given so great an opportunity to witness for the things of the Kingdom of God.

Today we are confronted not with the deeps of heathenism or the perils of martyrdom, but there are deeps that face us that may prove a greater hindrance and handicap to our work than any the messengers of the cross faced in earlier days. There is the deep of indifference on the part of so many who are nominally Church members, but who seem to have no conception of their high calling in Christ Jesus. In our Woman's Missionary Union program we have a department of work that we call Enlistment. What do we mean by Enlistment? It is not only an effort to reach the unsaved, but an effort to reach these Church members, and to make them realize the obligation and joy of sharing in the Master's work. The question has been asked, "When will the period of Enlistment close?" There is but one answer. Never until we reach these idle indifferent members in our churches. There are whole churches in our territory unenlisted so far as any definite mission work is concerned. A practical program for your society this year is to win one of these churches to an active part in our denominational program. Add to the active members of your society, then add to the number of missionary churches in your Association. The result will astonish you. Five new members in each society will give us more than 10,000 new active members. Forty associations enlisting one church each would mean forty new churches.

The problems confronting our Mission Boards today present an unfathomable deep, but for the consciousness of the presence of Him who is Master of the sea and storm. Mission agencies in all denominations are faced with depleted treasuries and a steady decline in mission receipts. After the unprecedented gifts of the period following the World War, and the consequent enlargement of all phases of our work, this problem has brought untold difficulties and hindrances, and has resulted in the closing of mission fields, recalling of missionaries and a general curtailment of expenses that threatens to prove disastrous. The burden of debt has weighed heavily upon us, and in many places has paralyzed the mission activities of our churches. This burden must be faced. We must remember the enthusiasm with which we undertook the larger program of world evangelization, and bring some of that same enthusiasm to the task of meeting our obligations. It is not a reflection that we undertook such large things in His name, rather should we rejoice that there came to us the opportunity for these large things.

In a current issue of one of our denominational papers the statement is made that "only the women can raise money at this time." The women are not raising money but they are continuing to give systematically and sacrificially, as they have been trained.

At a recent mission conference held at Briarcliff, New York, and attended by representatives of many of the Foreign Mission Boards of the United States and Canada, a joint committee from the Conference and the Federation of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions was appointed to consider, not the co-operation of these organizations but their complete integration, the report to be made at a similar meeting a year hence. If the statement in the paper is correct, the time is ripe for the consideration of this most important matter. No one part of the church should be charged with the advancement of anything so vital to the very life of the church as missions.

The problem of communism faces us not only in Russia, where it has been tried out and proven a failure, and in China where it threatens to undo the work of a century of Christian missions, but in our own land. Under the pretense of working for the good of humanity and for social justice, they are making a plausible plea, if we forget that they ignore God and Jesus Christ as the Way of Life. Because of the activity of the Soviets we must launch out into unknown depths in China these next few years if we would safeguard the results of Christian missions in that country.

No greater menace confronts the church today than the so-called modernistic teaching in some of our churches, schools and seminaries, “which rejects the historical interpretation of the Bible in favor of a rationalistic interpretation based upon modern scientific theories along evolutionary lines.” In some places this false teaching has brought division in the ranks of our missionaries, and has caused many to question the advisability of attempting to maintain our colleges and universities on our foreign fields.

The report of the Laymen's Commission presents no obstacles to the churches in our territory, where liberalism in religious teaching has made so little headway. With us there can be no question as to the permanency of our mission work until Christ rescinds His commission, and the promise of His presence and power.

Every age has felt the weight of its own perplexities and problems. Ours is no exception to this rule. We feel, like those who have preceded us, that ours are more difficult and harder to solve. Peter recounted the difficulties of the situation but he ended by saying “Nevertheless at Thy will I will let down the nets.” We need today Peter's faith. It is at His word that all of our missionary work has been undertaken. We have launched out into the deep and let down the nets and in spite of our weakness and failures the nets have been filled beyond our expectations. Today we need a conquering faith, a faith that is willing to undertake the seemingly impossible, a faith that lays hold on the power of our risen and reigning Lord and conquers all obstacles; that sees no difficulties that we can not overcome because of His presence. In that upper chamber facing the agonies of Gethsemane and the Crucifixion, our Lord said to His disciples, “Be of good cheer, I have overcome the world.” Because He has conquered, by faith in His name, we too shall conquer. Faith means something more than believing in the saving power of our Christ. It means linking our lives with His life, so that His power may enter into us and His will and His work may be done through us.

We need only Peter's faith, but Peter's courage—a courage born of the assurance that comes from the presence of the Master. Are there any faint-hearted among us? Are there any discouraged? Let us draw near to Him, catch from Him the vision of a world lost in sin and shame, a world worn and weary, with a people scattered like sheep without a shepherd and give ourselves to our task with a new courage. The battle is the Lord's. We shall conquer in His name.

And we must not fail to remember Peter's obedience. We see no immediate prospect of overcoming our difficulties, “the sea is deep, our boats are frail,” but here are our nets, we let them down at Thy Word. Ours is not to see the way ahead. We must leave the future with God. In your experience and mine, have not the results always been far beyond our expectations? Haven't the nets been filled to the breaking point time and time again? Shall it not be so again? The launching out into the deep, the letting down of the nets is ours, the filling of them is His.

There is no question of His faithfulness. Shall there be of ours? As we venture beyond the security of the familiar and the tried, and launch out into the unknown at His command, there will come to us a larger experience of our God, a new knowledge of His power, a greater revelation of His love and we will be filled with the fullness of God.

May I close this message this morning with a prayer of Evangeline Booth's, which expresses far better than I can my hearts desire for you and for myself?

"Dear Lord, give to our mortal eyesight immortal vision. Grant that we may hear new sounds, feel new sympathies, thrill with new love. Lead us into a more vivid consciousness that Thou art in Thy world; that Thy presence is round about us, as a healing breath. At this grave moment in the annals of mankind, when the foundations of orderly commonwealths and assured faith are so deeply disturbed, may our anchorage be in Thee! Help us, dear Savior, in the shadow of Thy cross to remember that we appear before Thee as individuals, separate and alone. Be Thou the Captain of our Souls! Then if poverty comes we shall not be poor, if sorrow comes we shall not be sad, and if death comes we shall not be afraid. O, Thou God of all nations, hear us as we pray, for the sake of Jesus Christ the world's Redeemer. Amen.

Report of Trustee of W. M. U. Training School presented by Mrs. R. N. Simms, Raleigh, North Carolina. Adopted.

REPORT OF W. M. U. TRAINING SCHOOL

In this day of stress, when many institutions are having to close their doors, God's care of His own has been especially evident, in that our Training School has had a successful year, everything considered.

Eighty-three students enrolled this past fall, fifty-five boarding students and twenty-eight day students—a goodly number for the year, and an unusually well qualified group. Were foreign missionaries being sent out, or work and scholarships available at home, there would doubtless have been a number of others. These 83 students came from 19 states and two foreign countries, China and Russia. This year has seen the entrance of the first grand-daughter, Helen Harris, of Indiana, whose mother, Florence Powell Harris, and father, Dr. H. M. Harris, were missionaries in China for a number of years.

North Carolina is only one year behind in this respect, as next year we will send a grand-daughter also—Helen Dozier—who graduates at Meredith this spring.

Our State has been third this year in number of students, having five—while South Carolina has nine, and Georgia and Virginia six. We have headed the list a number of years and would have had nine this year but four had to drop out. There are now nine applicants for next year.

Our women have contributed $1,382.36.

May we not remember this when we make our Training School gift this summer and try to make it possible for our girls to have this wonderful opportunity? All who have applied are college girls and would be able to do splendid work. Let me urge you to plan now to go back home and emphasize the School and the need of larger contributions before your Society, in your reports, and with your Training School program.

Tell your women of the splendid things our girls learn to do besides their regular class-work.

Last year their personal service report was most inspiring. Briefly it was: Hours spent on field, 7,592; visits, 2,120; Sunday School classes taught, 885 clubs or classes directed, 846; cottage prayer meetings held, 95; Bibles or literature distributed, 266; religious conversations, 123; conversions, 20; Girls' Auxiliaries led, 53; Sunbeam Bands led, 29; Royal Ambassador Chapters led, 14; Y. W. A.'s led, 11; B. Y. P. U.'s led, 124; missionary talks made, 44; missionary organizations directed, 74; total attendance at Good Will Center, 17,652; students reporting, 100%.

The spring months, after our Convention last year, were very busy ones as, in addition to all the regular work and usual duties, plans for the Silver Anniversary Commencement were being completed. It was a great time in the history of the School, with Mrs. McLure and Mrs. Eager as guests, and many other friends present and remembering the School in various ways. There was a beautiful luncheon and exceptionally fine commencement, with the thirty-eight graduates in their new white caps and gowns. Mrs. McLure was never better in her address, "The Greatness of God." As you remember, the alumnae and the fees from the graduating class paid for the caps and gowns—$383.80, with the exception of $3.80, which was contributed by a member of the local Board of Managers.

How does that compare with our W. M. S. reports—some of us with many more members, too?

Splendid work was done at the Good Will Center, which time does not permit to be told in detail.

Equally good reports will be given at the close of this year's work. The Lottie Moon offering was $345.82.

In accordance with the necessities of the times the School has run on a decreased budget this year, economies being effected wherever possible. The reopening of the Louisville Trust Company made possible the paying back of the $3,000.00 borrowed from the Emergency Fund.

Some repairs have been made but many more are needed.

With the exception of an epidemic of flu in December and a case of appendicitis, there has been little sickness.

The Board of Managers ask that all our women coöperate by finding and encouraging suitable students for the School—girls with at least two years of college training, strong mentally and physically, and of attractive personality.

We are also asked to help find work for the graduates in order that there may continue to be a need of training. We all realize, I am sure, that the young women sent out from this great institution have contributed largely to the growth of our cause during the last twenty years, both at home and abroad. They have carried the light into many dark places, near and far, and God has wonderfully blessed their efforts.

Let us thank Him and praise Him for His goodness, and continue to give and pray that this part of His work may be carried on in a fine and worthy manner.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. N. SIMMS,
North Carolina Trustee.

Mrs. R. N. Simms introduced Miss Carrie U. Littlejohn, Principal W. M. U. Training School, who addressed the meeting.

Mrs. R. N. Simms made a motion that money be sent to the Training School to provide chickens for Easter dinner, as has formerly been done. Carried.

Hymn "Send the Light" sung by the Alumnae of the Training School.

Report of Mission Study Chairman, presented by Mrs. Edna R. Harris. Adopted.

MISSION STUDY REPORT

Will you be content with a smaller life if it is possible for you to have a larger one? Will you be content to have a small part in Kingdom work if it lies within you to have a large part? It is from this standpoint that I appeal for woman's life and the lives of our young people to be equipped for the best service. Christians, above all others, should be developed to fullest capacity.

The study of missions furnishes the way. The study of missions gives knowledge of the topography of the world. Missionaries in many cases have preceded men of science into vast regions, undeveloped and unknown—where the Gospel herald has already preached his way with the message of life. As we get in touch with these we have a whole world lying open at our feet. The study of missions reveals the manners, habits, and customs of the various races; of which, apart from the missionary, we would have known nothing.

However, there is something far deeper than this. The study of missions shows us the terrible onslaughts of Satan, how dense and dark is the condition that prevails among those who know not God. The study of missions reveals the saving grace of God. How one is stirred in the study of missions as she reads of the salvation of savages without any standard of righteousness, yet God touched their hearts, changed their natures, and they came forth to shine forever in the diadem of their God! The study of missions shows the power of the Gospel in the changing of these lives,—and we will remember that it is regeneration, not reformation, which has wrought the wonders on the mission field. With Paul we can say: “I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth.”

We had only one finishing the Advanced Course of mission study, Mrs. Abbie Bonsteel, of Buie's Creek. The changes in the Advanced Course give wider choice in books and we hope a greater appeal for continued study to those completing Courses I and II.

I challenge you who are studying now to find out what your study is really bringing to you. Let me suggest that we get the right attitude towards our mission study. Not just a study to get a seal—yet we are so glad of the 9,028 awards to women and 6,340 to our young people this year. Some one has said, “The real test of a mission study class is what its members think and do after the class is finished.” If the 1,363 classes of 1932 mean anything of permanent value we may expect an expansion in our outlook and interest in Kingdom work this year, and not just DRIFT into some Kingdom work; but by prayer, investigation, meditation, and study find that phase and place of service in which we can become of the largest use to the Kingdom of God.

Mission study demonstration, directed by Miss Inabelle Coleman, Greensboro.

Motion made that the distribution of recommendations during morning session be accepted as presentation, and adoption of these be deferred until Thursday session.

The following recommendation was presented by Mrs. J. L. Carrick, Elizabeth City, and adopted:

The Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, in session at Winston-Salem, March 1, 1933, would express to the Editor of the Biblical Recorder not only their sincere appreciation for the W. M. U. special edition of the paper, February 22, but for the many kindnesses and unfailing courtesy and coöperation of the past years.

Closing prayer, Mrs. J. J. Roddick, Winston-Salem.

Enrollment 4:00 P.M. Wednesday—delegates, 591; visitors, 300; total, 841.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MARCH 1, 7:30

The session was opened with hymn, "Jesus Shall Reign." The devotional was conducted by Miss Kathleen Mallory, Corresponding Secretary of W. M. U., Birmingham, Ala., using the verse, Esther 4:14, followed by prayer by Rev. A. R. Gallimore, Lexington. Anthem by the choir of the First Baptist church, Winston-Salem. Four of our missionaries brought messages from the various fields: Mrs. W. W. Jones, of Charlotte, spoke on Brazil; Miss Neale Young, Africa; Mrs. J. S. Farmer, Japan; Rev. A. R. Gallimore, China.

Solo: Mrs. Paul Brantley, Wendell.

After singing "Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow," Dr. J. R. Jester of Winston-Salem, made the closing prayer.

THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 2

The session was opened at 10:00 o'clock, Mrs. W. N. Jones presiding, with hymn "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name." The devotional was led by Mrs. Ira D. S. Knight, Durham, using Psalm 95:5, Psalm 106:23, Luke 5:4. Minutes of Wednesday afternoon and evening session read and approved.

Mrs. John O. Gough of Wake Forest, Superintendent of Central Association, presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

That looking to the celebration of our fiftieth anniversary, our Jubilate Year, we recommend:

1. That the President of the Union write the story of the fifth decade of the work of our Woman's Missionary Union. That this be added to the four decades previously written, and the whole be printed in the Minutes of the 1936 session of our Union.

2. That this Jubilate session be held in the First Baptist Church in Raleigh.

3. That all Officers, Trustees and Chairman of Departments make their reports that year historical, as far as possible.

4. That a Jubilate Thank Offering be sent to the State Meeting from each Association, and that each Associational Superintendent endeavor to secure a gift from each society in her Association.

5. That this Offering be appropriated as determined by the Annual Meeting in 1935.

Report of Personal Service given by Mrs. Edna R. Harris, in the absence of the Chairman, Mrs. C. L. Greaves of Raleigh. Adopted.

PERSONAL SERVICE REPORT

David Livingston found he could always get an attentive hearing from the African natives when he told them of the love of God in sending His Son to this world and of His death on the cross for the salvation of a lost world. So I feel we would get a sympathetic hearing if we always bring the gospel story to those to whom we minister in our personal service. Bring in the spiritual element and a heart of love and sympathy along with the food, clothing and other cheer. When people are in distress they are more tender and susceptible to the gospel appeal. Remember the aim and purpose of personal service is to win the unconverted to Christ. Go as evangelists of the truth and tell them of God's love and that you are ministering to them in the name of our Saviour. In all our activities we must put the emphasis on spiritual results, and "whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus."

Again I urge that each society have a personal service chairman or committee who will study the needs of your community and decide what you can and ought to undertake collectively. They will make assignments to different groups or circles, receive reports of work done, then report quarterly to the Associational Chairman who in turn reports to Raleigh. The W. M. S. chairman should also assist the Junior organizations in planning and carrying out their personal service work. There is opportunity for genuine personal service wherever there are underprivileged children, aged, sick or needy people. From these we can go to the less obvious needs such as health, temperance, inter-racial or rescue work, work among prisoners, foreigners, at institutions or any other for the uplift of humanity.

Never in all our lives have we found such need for our efforts along the lines of personal service, and our W. M. U. members are responding in a larger way than ever as is shown by the best statistical report ever offered by our organization. From the fact that the last quarter's report was the best of the four I am encouraged to believe we will go to greater heights still in 1933. There are always women in every W. M. S. who by nature are especially adapted to this work. Seek them out and put the charge of the work in their hands and see it grow.

In closing let me add in the words of another one more thought:

“The year is done and o’er its deeds

There comes a creeping mist,

That full glad year of life slips by

And slides into oblivion.

To those who look behind

Its crowded days grow dim,

Save here and there the splendid things

Shine out like points of light.”

Note the fact that this year there are reported a larger number of conversions through personal service than ever before. Let us stress this note more and more.

Report of Stewardship given by Miss Elsie K. Hunter, in the absence of the Chairman, Mrs. J. G. Boomhour, Raleigh. Adopted.

REPORT OF STEWARDSHIP

The late Dr. A. J. Gordon has truly said: "In touching the question of giving and paying, we touch the vital point pertaining to the consecration and spiritual power of the church."

The stewardship of material possessions is vitally related to the stewardship of the Gospel. Is it not true that God has given us a plan and a command, for financing Kingdom work? Prayer, testimony, self-denial have their place as a part of the program of our work. But the blessings of our Heavenly Father are contingent upon our obedience to the command, "bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse."

This year, greater emphasis has been placed on stewardship teaching, both in our regular missionary programs and special seasons of prayer, than ever before. The seed of truth concerning stewardship has been sown in many ways. May it be as "seed sown in good ground."

The total number of 5,131 tithers reported for the year, is a relatively small increase; however, this report represents a small part of the actual accomplishment.

The women of our societies entered heartily into the plans of promoting the Every Member Canvass. The Y. W. A. and Junior organizations through the stewardship contests, have not only had the teachings concerning stewardship impressed on their own hearts, but their messages have greatly impressed others.

The stewardship literature has been more widely distributed in all our organizations. The work requires prayerful, tactful, persevering effort on the part of every stewardship chairman.

Let us continue to enlist our women and young people in the Scriptural stewardship of tithes and offerings.

"Where your treasure is there will your heart be also."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. G. BOOMHOUR,
Stewardship Chairman.

Motion made to adopt without reading reports of Divisional Superintendents now in the hands of the Secretary. Carried.

REPORT OF THE ASHEVILLE DIVISION

"A master motive makes a thing interesting. One can do what he cares to do, what he wishes to do, what he wants to do. All that any man needs is a master motive." Emerson says: "Do the thing which you are afraid to do, do the thing which is hard to do, thus you will rise superior to the dead level of humanity." It was also Emerson who said: "Ho who thinks success, turns his back on failure." And Jesus came saying: "All power is given unto me in Heaven and in earth. . . . Go ye, therefore."

Our motive was great for the year 1932, yet, evidently we did not realize its greatness for we did not rise above the "dead level of humanity," nor did we think success strong enough, neither did we actually take Jesus at His word when He said "all power is given unto me," for in a very human way have we failed to accomplish the "Go" laid out for us in the Associations of the West. Failure confronts us on all sides as we are wont to count things. Our apportionments are not met, our study classes did not bring the results we hoped and—(did we?) prayed for.

However, the hand of our Lord directed as far as we followed and we have some sheaves for Him.

The Divisional Meeting in Asheville First Church was inspiring. Mrs. Carter Wright, Miss Emma Leachman, and Mrs. Shepard from Rio Baptist College, sojourning at B. B. I. in New Orleans, brought us our greatest inspiration. They carried us to spiritual mountain tops. We thank them.

Our new Divisional Young People's Leader, Mrs. Eugene Coker of Fairview, has been untiring in her efforts with the Associational Young Peoples' Leaders. She conducted a splendid Stewardship Contest as a climax to her year's work. Miss Ila Green of the Haywood Association was the Y. W. A. Winner. Miss Hattie Siler Freeman of the Haywood Association, was the Intermediate G. A. winner. Mr. Dan Cook of Webster, Tuckasegee Association, was the R. A. winner. Miss Edna Koontz of the Buncombe Association, was the Junior G. A. winner. Their expenses were paid to the State meeting in Winston-Salem.

Mrs. B. F. Bray, of Marion, has put out splendid effort, reaching most of the Mission Study Leaders of the Associations, and has met with encouragement. Mrs. Bray is willing and glad to add any effort to help the Associational Leaders.

Mrs. J. F. Brooks of Hendersonville, Personal Service Chairman for the Carolina Association, is doing good work as our Divisional Personal Service Leader also.

Helpful service on the part of these Leaders lifts the Superintendent to more optimistic planes. The Associational meetings, attended largely by Mrs. Harris and your Superintendent, were well attended and helpful. Pastors showed more than usual interest.

Our three native workers have been supported in China and Jesus shown in many ways through personal service.

The Haywood, the Buncombe, and some other Associations held Young People's Rallies. Some Associations had Stewardship Rallies with good results, and most of them participated in the Young People's Stewardship Contest, at least a part of the way.

Some Superintendents report interest manifested by young people as their greatest encouragement. The Tuckasegee is outstanding in her work among young people. Several Associations have mentioned revivals and enlistments in their midst as most encouraging.

The Buncombe Superintendent indicates the prolonged life of new societies as encouraging symptoms. This Superintendent has pushed mission study, especially in the new societies, going back again and again to lead these classes herself. Her Mission Study Chairman gives a very outstanding report for the year.

Some stronger societies read their study books and pass them on to the new and weaker societies, thus encouraging their study.

Most all societies, called upon, responded in a very generous way toward mothering Herbert Baker, our Margaret Fund student now at Mars Hill College. Christmas cards, a Christmas box, a few necessary articles of clothing, visits, letters and several donations on his music course, which the Margaret Scholarship does not cover, were cheerfully and lovingly given.

We welcome one new Superintendent—Mrs. M. C. Shipman of Pisgah Forest, Transylvania Association.

We lose one Association by the transfer of the Alleghany under the supervision of Mrs. J. L. Underwood of Sparta, to the Charlotte Division, this because of convenience, geographically.

So facing down the avenues of 1933 we know we have the "Master motive" and—"forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forth unto those things which are before, we press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. R. MORGAN,
Divisional Superintendent.

REPORT OF CHARLOTTE DIVISION

The Annual Meeting of the Charlotte Division was held June 8, 9, 1932, at the First Baptist Church, Charlotte. Every Association was represented except one, with 563 delegates enrolled. Mrs. J. J. Roddick, Assistant Superintendent of the Division, presided over the meeting which was one of unusual interest.

As always, the presence of our State president, Mrs. W. N. Jones, added greatly to the meeting and her earnest words had their usual weight with all who heard her. "Facing the Crisis of a New Day," by Mrs. Roddick; and "Our Daughters as Cornerstones," by Miss Mabel Beeker, were addresses of vital interest.

Memorial services were held for the faithful Superintendent, Mrs. Lila L. Henry, who for twenty years had given herself so unselfishly to the work. It was decided to have a memorial at Wingate Junior College for Mrs. Henry, in the Library. It is a pleasure to be able to state that more than $500.00 has been sent for this purpose by various churches and individuals.

An all-day meeting will be held the second week in June with the Salisbury First Church.

In spite of present conditions, may God help the women of the Charlotte Division to show more courage and determination to do the will of our Lord and Master and be worthy of His "Well done, good and faithful servant."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. H. B. MOORE,
Division Superintendent.

REPORT OF ELIZABETH CITY DIVISION

God in His wise providence has seen fit to use and accept the loving service of the women of the Elizabeth City Division during the days and months of 1932, in giving the Word that was made flesh to the world.

The five Associations that comprise our Division, with their able leaders, have made the following report possible. Mrs. J. L. Hodges, the new Superintendent of the Atlantic, has visited every group meeting during the year, as well as many of the societies in her Association. They have thirty-five organizations, twenty-one of these young people's, with three new ones. Her aim for the year 1933 is a W. M. S. and at least one young people's organization in every church in her Association.

Mrs. J. C. Hough, of the Neuse, reports twenty-seven societies with thirteen young people's organizations, four organized during the year, eighteen mission study classes, and sixty-five tithers, with an offering of $2,000.00.

Mrs. T. E. Beasley, of the West Chowan, reports fifty churches with 156 organizations, 180 tithers, five new organizations. They support a missionary and two Bible women in China, four scholarships to Chowan College, and a circulating library for mission study, also a purse to Charles Leonard at Wake Forest. They made eight points on the Standard.

The Chowan, with Mrs. J. L. Carrick, Superintendent, has seven counties, six organized, with 64 churches, 156 societies, 2,171 members, 110 young people's organizations, 107 mission study classes, 280 tithers, 65 societies observing the Weeks of Prayer, 752 subscriptions to periodicals. The Chowan and West Chowan united and held a summer camp at Chowan College with Rev. J. L. Carrick as General Manager. They had an enrollment of 84 with classes for all organizations. Both Associations held their Stewardship Declamation Contest at this time. Mrs. Carriek traveled 975 miles in her work during the year.

Mrs. E. B. Beasley, of the Roanoke, has 90 societies reporting on the Standard of Excellence, 18 making A-1. The six County Unions are well organized and all held their Stewardship Contests.

Miss Emma Leachman spent two days in conferences in Nash County, and Misses Elsie Denny and Gladys Ellington, of our W. M. U. Training School, conducted Church Schools of Missions for three weeks. Mrs. Beasley traveled over 900 miles in stimulating the work in her Association.

We praise Him for the loving faithfulness and offerings of the women of our Division. Our aim is to go forward, to organize our young people with sacrificial leadership, to enlist the unenlisted, that the world may know Him.

The Stewardship Declamation Contest for the Division was held in Rocky Mount, February 12. The Divisional meeting will be held in Goldsboro, Tuesday, April 4.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. H. M. FINCH,
Division Superintendent.

REPORT OF GREENSBORO DIVISION

Unto "Him who loved us, and gave Himself for us" we give thanks, for all His blessings, in the past years. We ask His guidance now and through all the days.

Our annual meeting was held in the First Baptist Church, Siler City, May 5, 1932. Splendid attendance, interesting reports from the Superintendents of the eight Associations.

We greatly enjoyed having with us Mrs. W. N. Jones, our beloved president; Mrs. Edna R. Harris, Corresponding Secretary and Mission Study Leader, whom we all love and go to in time of trouble, or seeking information about the work; Mrs. Taul B. White, Chapel Hill, South-wide field worker, who has been such an inspiration and help to all since coming into our territory; Mrs. D. W. Herring, returned missionary from China; Mrs. J. G. Boomhour, Meredith College, Raleigh, State Stewardship Chairman; Mrs. C. L. Greaves, Raleigh, State Personal Service Chairman. These splendid Christian women brought us messages of information, inspiration and love. It was good to be there.

Our Young People's Leader, Mrs. H. D. Upchurch, gave us a good report of the young people's work.

Mrs. D. E. Kearns, Mission Study Leader, reported the mission study for the Division and awarded the Minnie Marshall Buck Memorial banner to the Central Association for the greatest improvement in mission study, it was accepted by Mrs. John O. Gough, Superintendent.

It was a great pleasure and privilege to visit all the Associations during the year. To hear their reports, see the interest shown in their faces, also their regrets over not being able to do more for the work.

New societies organized in all grades, 83. The W. M. S. held to the same number as last year—13, but young people's organizations only organized 70, falling off of thirteen from the previous year.

Central and Tar River Associations each organized 19; Piedmont Association came next with 15; Sandy Creek Association with 9; Raleigh and Mount Zion Association with 8; Beulah Association with 4; and Flat River with 1. This shows loyal effort but we must increase our efforts along this line for we still have 117 churches with no societies, they are calling for us to come over and help them. May we heed the call quickly.

All of the Associations are divided into groups or districts, and are doing good work, most of them meeting quarterly.

Mrs. R. L. Wilburn, Superintendent of Beulah Association, reports that all her societies reported on time, and she reported January 4 to the Superintendent a splendid record.

In A-1 Standard Graded Unions we have the following: Siler City, Sandy Creek Association; Angier Avenue, Durham, Mt. Zion Association, and Watts Street, Durham, Mt. Zion Association. We are sorry to report the loss of two in our number of A-1 Standard Graded Unions.

Our faithful and loyal Superintendents have been active as shown by the number of letters and postals written, 2,473, and miles traveled, 3,979. Some have visited their societies two or three times.

Facts and figures cannot represent prayers, activities and other things done by faithful Superintendents, young people's leaders, presidents, and all officers with all the women and young people in our organizations, but our Father knows and it is to Him we offer this service—He will reward and bless.

Chapel Hill W. M. S., Mt. Zion Association, supported two native Bible women and one native evangelist in China.

Mrs. D. E. Kearns, Mission Study Leader for the Division, reports the following for mission study from Piedmont, Central and Mt. Zion Associations, others not reporting. Number of classes held, 393; members in classes, 2,339; members in societies, 2,641; Record Cards No. 1, 150; Record Cards No. 2, 63; certificates, 530; small seals, 2,085; official seals, 21; reading cards, 117; reading stamps, 153; books studied number 45.

Siler City G. A. leader reports that Barbara Ann Thomas and Frances Canipe have won the rank of G. A. Queen.

The Stewardship Declamation Contest for the Greensboro Division was held in Raleigh, Tabernacle Church, February 18, with the following winners: Sunbeams, Katherine Markham, Temple Church, Durham, Mt. Zion Association; Junior R. A., Maurice Capps, Henderson, Tar River Association; Intermediate R. A., Grady Pickard, Pittsboro, Sandy Creek Association; Intermediate G. A., Rowena Porter, Harris Chapel, Central Association; Junior G. A., Virginia Council, Tabernacle, Raleigh Association; Y. W. A., Gertrude Allen, Henderson, Tar River Association.

On January 19 from 10:30 to 4:00 P.M. a mission study conference was held in the First Baptist Church, Durham, Mt. Zion Association, under the direction of the Divisional Mission Study Leader, Mrs. D. A. Kearns, and Mrs. Taul B. White, who arranged the program. All Superintendents, mission study leaders and others whom we thought would be interested to come and bring a box lunch were notified. The attendance was about 150. All Associations in the Division were represented with exception of one. Mrs. Taul B. White, Mrs. Edna R. Harris, Miss Inabelle Coleman, and others, gave us wonderful suggestions and helps in this feature of our work. The morning devotion and welcome was given by Mrs. Ira D. S. Knight, Durham. All present were enthusiastic and felt they had been benefitted by having been present.

There are several regrets, but our loyal, devoted workers are keeping on. As we labor together with God and for Him, may we "launch out into the deep and let down our nets," just as He commanded His disciples to do.

Our Annual Divisional Meeting will be held in Oxford, May 4, 1933.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. M. WHITTED,
Division Superintendent.

REPORT OF WILMINGTON DIVISION

"Who can utter the mighty acts of the Lord? Who can shew forth all His praise? Call upon His name; make known His deeds among the people, talk ye of His wondrous works."

Truly He hath wrought wondrous works through the W. M. U. of the Wilmington Division and His deeds have been made known among the people at home and abroad. We can never estimate the length and breadth of the earth reached through the prayers, the faithful service and love gifts of the loyal consecrated Superintendents and their co-laborers in the ten Associations. Only the Master whom they serve has true record of their work.

The outstanding event of the year was the Divisional meeting in February with the Baptist church of Clayton. Miss Emma Leachman, Mrs. Edna R. Harris, and Rev. L. B. Olive, brought wonderful messages. Miss Helen Dozier, a Margaret Fund student of Meredith College, thrilled us with her message of gratitude for the aid she was receiving. The Stewardship Declamation Contest was conducted by Miss Alva Lawrence and was very inspiring.

The annual meetings in every Association were well attended, and gave many encouraging reports.

We failed to reach our financial goal, but rejoice to see greater interest in observance of seasons of prayer, stewardship, mission study and personal service.

Bladen Association, Mrs. C. R. Jordan, Superintendent, has 26 churches and 26 societies, 204 members, 4 new societies. One church had a school of missions.

Brunswick, Mrs. B. R. Page, Superintendent, has 19 churches, 25 societies, 267 members. The Association is divided into five groups, each group meeting quarterly. The young people had a Stewardship Declamation Contest.

Burnt Swamp, with Mrs. M. C. Lunsford, Superintendent, makes best all-round report. Fifteen of the 25 churches have missionary societies, 9 new, and loss none. Members of societies 567, mission study classes, 33; certificates 101, seals 192. Met apportionment of $140.00 and made 9 points on Standard of Excellence. This is convincing proof of the loyalty of Mrs. Lunsford and our Indian co-workers to the cause of missions.

Cape Fear-Columbus, Mrs. J. T. McKenzie, Superintendent, has 37 churches, 31 societies, membership 350, reports increased interest in mission study, and plan to organize the Association into groups.

Eastern has been led by Miss Macy Cox 25 years, and in the 39 churches are 90 societies, 1,427 members, 7 new societies. They support Miss Katie Murray, and a kindergarten school in China. A towel shower was given at the annual meeting for the Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem. An afternoon was given for the Stewardship Declamation Contest. Rev. and Mrs. M. C. Lunsford and four Indian young ladies were a benediction to the meeting. The Eastern won Divisional banner for having nine churches with 5 grades.

Johnston, Mrs. Geo. Lovell, Superintendent, has 44 churches, 52 societies, 980 members. They sent gifts to Rescue Home in New Orleans; Mrs. J. N. Lee, missionary to Indians; box to Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem and to W. M. U. Training School; had Stewardship Declamation Contest. One hundred seventeen members reported as reading tithing literature. Increased interest in mission study.

Little River, Mrs. Paul Bradley, Superintendent—22 churches, 40 societies, 767 members, gives scholarship to W. M. U. Training School. One church had Stewardship Rally and Contest.

Miss Lucille Martin, of Fayetteville, is new Superintendent of New South River Association, and is deeply interested in the work. In the 49 churches there are 48 societies, 639 members, and a great opportunity for advancement along all lines. They are included in the Stewardship Declamation Contest.

Mrs. A. B. Wood is new Superintendent of Robeson Association, the largest in the Division with 59 churches, 125 societies, 1,965 members, 13 churches with 5 grades of work, has won the Divisional Banner for 1932. They also lead in mission study classes, 54; had Stewardship Declamation Contest; gave a shower to Baptist Hospital at Winston-Salem.

Wilmington, Mrs. J. W. Carroll, Superintendent—37 churches, 54 societies, 996 members, leads in number tithers 268, gives scholarship to

W. M. U. Training School, and a white shower to Baptist Hospital at Winston-Salem. A young people's rally day and Stewardship Declamation Contest was one outstanding feature of the year's work.

Our Margaret Fund students have won the hearts of a host of our women who delight to "mother" our missionaries' children. Gifts were sent to Nancy McDaniel of China, student at Meredith College, by the following Associations: Brunswick, Johnston, Little River, Robeson, and Wilmington.

May we as "workers together with God" give Him the glory of all He has wrought through us, and "launch out into the deep, and let down our nets" expecting His continued blessings on our work.

Respectfully submitted,

MACY COX,
Division Superintendent.

The session was opened at 2:00 o'clock with hymn, "Jesus Thy Boundless Love to Me." The devotional was led by Mrs. A. B. Wood of Maxton, using II Cor. 8:5.

Mrs. Jones read letters from Mrs. Vallie P. Green and Miss Sophia Lanneau, both of whom are missionaries in China.

Report of Baptist Hospital presented by the Trustee, Mrs. J. J. Roddick of Winston-Salem. Adopted.

REPORT OF BAPTIST HOSPITAL

It is with joy and gratitude that we bring the annual report of the Baptist Hospital to you after ten years of service to suffering humanity. Ten years ago, on the 25th of May, our Hospital opened its doors to the sick and needy of our denomination. On that day just one patient was admitted, but if all the 23,000 who have been treated since that time could give you the facts of their restoration, it would indeed be a thrilling story; for we have during this time given treatment to more than 10,000 charity or part-pay patients. Mothers, fathers, and children would have died had it not been for the friendly care of the Hospital.

The average death rate for the ten years (for institutional deaths) has been less than 15 per thousand. The remainder of this large number have returned to their homes fully restored or improved in health. The Hospital truly represents the various stages of life, for if you enter the maternity ward you are forcibly reminded of the dawning of a new day, when life opens in new beauty to the fond mother as she folds her first-born to her breast. We would linger in the sunshine of this bright picture, but alas the scene has changed just as life changes and again we see the same young mother bowed with anxiety and grief as she waits and prays as they bring the little child that is dearer than life from the operating room. So noiseless is the march with that still form that she realizes as never before the need of the touch of the Great Physician in this hour of trial.

Once more the scene has changed as the most sacred tie on earth is about to be severed. The wife and the mother from that home of need is passing through the valley, and as her life hangs in the balance the anxious family awaits her return to life that means the happiness of their home. Time and eternity alone will reveal what our Hospital has done for our needy Baptists. But the large amount of charity work that we have been able to do has been largely due to the liberal gifts of our Baptist women. They have been loyal and come to our rescue when the burdens of our work were so heavy. First, they made possible the furnishing of our Hospital when we dared not borrow money for that purpose. Again, it was the women who saw the need of a nurses' home, and through their sacrificial giving we were able to build and furnish the Blanche Barrus Nurses' Home. It has been their prayers and support in this time of crisis that has enabled us to extend the hand of mercy to the needy ones who have knocked at our door, for in response to the appeal sent out for linen we have received such a large supply of white gifts from every part of the State. So liberal have our Societies been during the past ten years we have not had to buy a bath towel and very few pillow cases for our Hospital.

One of the organizations that has been outstanding in service rendered to the Hospital has been the Hospital Auxiliary composed of the Baptist women of Winston-Salem, under the leadership of Mrs. H. S. Stokes, Mrs. E. L. Davis, and Mrs. J. S. Slate. They have rendered most valuable service to the Hospital since they do all the sewing and mending that is required for our institution. They meet once each month and the work is distributed among the different churches. Added to this, they make four helpful offerings each year. In April sheets and spreads are contributed. In May they unite in giving the nurses a reception for their graduation. In October they again give us a liberal supply of tray covers. While in December they unite to bring Christmas cheer to our charity patients, and make a gift to each of our faithful nurses. And today I would renew the State-wide appeal by asking if some time during the year your society will not remember your Hospital with some white gift. If you send sheets or spreads, which we always need, please send only hospital sizes. But do not let your white gifts take the place of your Mothers' Day offering as that is needed for the actual support of the Hospital.

Last year was one of our hardest years, since many of those who desired to pay us could not even borrow the money to do so. And next year promises to tax us even more since economic conditions are such that private hospitals have closed their doors to all charity work. So we in the name of the Master will be called on to extend a larger service than ever before. With the financial conditions that we face today the patients who would gladly come to our Hospital for treatment find it necessary to be treated in their own homes. So with the pay patients decreasing and the charity work increasing daily, we would plead with you to help us face the crisis in our work. For during the past four years the 4% that was to have been given to the Hospital to retire the bonds has so fallen off that last year we were compelled to take $7,000.00 out of our operating expenses to pay on the bonds. With this amount taken from our treasury each year, it will be impossible to keep our doors open. If we are to continue our work of love and mercy we must have more help from our Sunday Schools on Mothers' Day. Did you know that more than one-half of our Sunday Schools forget their suffering brother and sister and do not take one offering once a year for the Hospital? I bring the challenge to you today: Shall they live or die? The Hospital awaits your answer. Our Lord awaits your answer.

Will you not then each one of you go to your Associations and churches and make an effort in behalf of our Mothers' Day offering for someone who is suffering? I am pleading with you in Christ's name that you do your best, and remember that by your gifts lives will be saved, homes kept intact, and children spared the tragedy of an orphan's life, and best of all you will please Him who said "Inasmuch as you did it unto one of the least of these you did it unto Me."

"Savior Thy dying love Thou gavest me,
Nor should I aught withhold, dear Lord from Thee;
In love my soul would bow, my heart fulfil its vow,
Some offering bring Thee now, something for Thee."

Respectfully submitted,

Report of Margaret Fund Trustee presented by Miss Alva Lawrence, Raleigh. Adopted.

MARGARET FUND REPORT

Realizing that the missionary's children are her charge, the Margaret Fund students have had special attention from the Woman's Missionary Union this year. Those in school in North Carolina were assigned to key women in the State, who in turn shared the responsibility and privilege with others.

Mrs. J. Clyde Turner, Greensboro, has mothered Helen Dozier who is a Senior at Meredith College. Helen reports through Mrs. Turner invitations into homes at Thanksgiving and Christmas, personal gifts and money amounting to $68.00 contributed.

Mrs. B. K. Mason, Winston-Salem, has been especially kind to Moses McCall, of Mars Hill, and has shared this privilege with her Circle at Brown Memorial Church. Moses is a Senior at Mars Hill and is a pre-medical student.

Mrs. H. M. Finch, Rocky Mount, Superintendent of the Elizabeth City Division, has through the women of that Division, mothered Charles Leonard, of Wake Forest College. At special seasons throughout the year he has been remembered and his needs supplied so far as they were known.

Nancy McDaniel, a Senior at Meredith College, has had many kindnesses shown her by Mrs. J. W. Carroll, of Wallace, and other women of the Wilmington Division.

Herbert Baker, of Mars Hill, has been helped in many ways by Mrs. J. R. Morgan and women of the Asheville Division. A raincoat, a suit of clothes, and small personal favors have been contributed and money given to supplement his scholarship, for he is taking pre-medical work and violin which increases his expenses.

Mrs. Shelley Rose, of Wadesboro, has shown special attention to Mary Nicolls who is in school in Canada but who was given to North Carolina women to mother.

A letter sent to these six Margaret Fund mothers said: "Play like this student is your child this year. The scholarship provides $250.00 toward tuition and board. They may need more money, clothes, or remembrances at special seasons. Our purpose is not to lavish things upon them but to cheer and brighten their lives while far from loved ones."

Received for Margaret Memorials	$ 10.00
For Scholarships	861.00
Total	$871.00
North Carolina quota	$1,000.00.

Respectfully submitted,

ALVA LAWRENCE,
Margaret Fund Chairman.

The following ladies made reports on Margaret Fund students, which have been adopted by the various Associations: Mrs. J. Clyde Turner, Greensboro; Mrs. J. W. Carroll, Wallace; Mrs. J. R. Morgan, Waynesville; Mrs. B. K. Mason, Winston-Salem.

Presentation of Recommendations of Executive Committee. Adopted as read.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION FOR THE YEAR 1933

Watchword: Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets. Luke 5:4.

Hymn: Jesus Calls Us.

Believing that the unusual responsibilities and demands of the work at home and the increasing and enlarged opportunities on our foreign fields challenge us to an increased faith and a larger vision, we would recommend:

I. Consecration. That we consecrate ourselves with renewed devotion to the service of the Master, and that as individuals and as societies we will endeavor to increase our power with God through communion and intercession. That we may know the progress of the Kingdom of God on earth, we will give ourselves anew to Bible and Mission study and endeavor to constantly manifest His life to all with whom we come in contact. And each society will make definite and continuous prayer for a spiritual revival in all our churches.

II. Special Offerings. That earnest effort be made to secure more systematic and proportionate giving to our denominational causes.

That we continue to emphasize the Special Offerings of the Woman's Missionary Union with their stated seasons of prayer, urging each society to make its observance a feature of its work and to send in promptly all gifts made at this time: the Week of Prayer for Home Missions, March 6-10; the Day of Prayer for State Missions, October 2; the Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions, December 4-8. The offering for Home Missions is to be used by the Home Board for definite mission work on their fields; the offering for Foreign Missions—the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering—to be used as in the past few years, for the support of the missionaries sent out by this fund. The offering for State Missions is to be used by the Corresponding Secretary of General Board for mission work in the State, and that we strive to make our State Mission Offering at least as large as the amount appropriated by the General Board for the maintenance of W. M. U. work.

Heck Memorial Offering. That the Heck Memorial Offering be appropriated this year as follows: $500.00 to Dr. George Green, Ogbomoso, Africa, for needed surgical instruments; $300.00 to Dr. John Lake, Tai-Kam Leper Colony, Canton, China; $2,000.00 to the maintenance of the Calder Willingham School, Fukuoka, Japan; the remainder to go to the building of a missionaries' home for single women at Wuchow, China.

III. Woman's Missionary Union Training School and Margaret Fund. That in the third quarter, preferably in the month of August, we send a gift from each society for the support of our Woman's Missionary Union Training School, our Scholarship Fund, and for the Margaret Educational Fund for educating the children of our missionaries. Our objective for these funds this year shall be:

For Current Expenses, W. M. U. Training School....	$1,200.00
For Scholarship Fund, W. M. U. Training School....	1,200.00
For Margaret Educational Fund.....	1,000.00

Total.....$3,400.00

That we present this special work of our Union in all of our Associational meetings and each Superintendent endeavor to secure a gift from each society in her Association. In addition to the above scholarships, the Louis Castlebury Scholarship, $200.00, given by Mrs. Joel G. Layton in memory of her father, will be awarded preferably to a student from the Little River Association.

IV. Expense Fund. Because of present financial conditions, the debts of our Board, we ask that more consideration be given to the Annual Expense Fund of the Woman's Missionary Union. Each society is asked to send in during the second quarter, preferably the month of May, a contribution to this fund, the amount to equal at least ten cents for each member enrolled.

V. That the societies co-operate with the Chairman of Mission Study, Personal Service, and Stewardship Committees in all plans for the advancement of these departments of our work.

That we endeavor to follow, as far as possible, the methods suggested by the Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention, in the Plan of Work presented by them. To this end, a copy of the Year Book has been sent to each organization on our list for study and for reference.

Annual Meetings

Recognizing the large place in the development of our work the Annual Meetings have had, we recommend that we continue to hold an Annual Meeting, the time to be Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday after the second Sunday in March.

A Divisional Meeting to be held in each of the five Divisions except the Division in which the Annual Meeting is held,—these meetings preferably to follow the State Meeting. An Associational meeting to be held in each Association at a time and place chosen by the Association.

The State Annual Meeting to begin on Tuesday afternoon with a conference of the Executive Committee and Associational Superintendents, and close with the session on Thursday afternoon; the Division to begin with an afternoon session and to close the following day; the Associational meetings to begin and close the same day.

That the matter of special young people's meetings in the Association be determined by the Association. Where there is no special meeting, we recommend that a part of the program of the Annual Associational Meeting be given to young people's work.

VI. Apportionment. That we take as our financial goal for the year a ten per cent increase in gifts,—ten per cent increase in the State, ten per cent increase in each Association, and ten per cent increase for each society.

Our Aim for 1933.....	$190,000.00
For Current Expenses, W. M. U. Training School...	1,200.00
For Scholarship Fund, W. M. U. Training School...	1,200.00
For Louis Castlebury Scholarship Fund.....	200.00
For Margaret Educational Fund.....	1,000.00
For State Expense Fund.....	2,400.00
Total.....	$196,000.00

VII. Reports. That we cannot stress too much the necessity of sending in not only reports of all gifts made by the societies each quarter, promptly at the close of the quarter, but seeing that all contributions are forwarded at once to the State Treasurer, or to the W. M. U. Treasurer. All societies failing to contribute to missions during one year will be dropped from the roll and will not receive literature.

A society dropped from the roll and reorganized is asked to send in with the report of reorganization a fee of $1.00.

VIII. That as the success and advancement of the Woman's Missionary Union as a whole is dependent on the success and advancement of the societies, and the societies must depend on their constituency, we would urge a greater feeling of responsibility upon each member for the advancement and extension of the Kingdom of God and a renewed consecration to a great task.

Report of Committee on Time and Place. Adopted.

The Time and Place Committee beg to recommend to the Woman's Missionary Union now in Convention at Winston-Salem, the following report:

That the next annual Convention be held with the First Church, Rocky Mount, on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday following the second Sunday in March, 1934.

RESOLUTIONS

Let us pause a moment, women of the North Carolina W. M. U. assembled in our forty-third annual session, to express our sincere appreciation and our deep gratitude to our friends of the First Baptist Church, as hostess, and the associate churches of Winston-Salem, for their matchless hospitality.

Just as truly as "coöperation" on the part of the founders was responsible for the successful planning and building of a great municipality here in the Twin City, coöperation of the Baptist people in this city, at this time, has given us twin blessings, temporal comforts, and spiritual benefits.

Our material needs have been supplied with a gracious courtesy and a bounty and, as we have partaken of these we have had a feeling kin to that we would have experienced had "Jesus, Our Savior" broken bread for us and with us.

From the mountains to the sea, from the north to the south of our great old State, we came to sit down together at the Master's feet. Our spiritual blessings will linger to guide us as we go back to "launch out into the deep and let down our nets" for continuous and more faithful and effective service.

Our vision of the power of our God has been broadened by the presence and testimony of our missionaries. Their soulful appeals have made us forget our fears if distress and defeat and stirred us to reconsecrate ourselves to a more Christlike walk among our fellows and feel anew the surge of Christian bravery that refuses to allow us to cringe in fear, distrust, and disobedience. Dr. Lake, Miss Young, Mrs. Jones, and Mr. Gallimore have won a new place in our Christian affections.

It was a rare privilege to have Dr. S. D. Gordon, in person, to stir our souls with devotion for the Lord.

Our dear Miss Mallory and Miss Littlejohn have brought us new inspiration and new courage; as have, also, our own local, faithful servants in the Kingdom.

With the lifting prayers and songs our hearts have rejoiced to have a continued part in the world program of Missions. In the "Crucible Plan" and by sacrificial giving we look to Jesus Christ, our Captain, to lead us onward and upward in our joyous task of winning the world to Him.

Again, to our friends of the Twin City, may we say, "Thank you," and we pledge ourselves to pass on to others the kindnesses so graciously bestowed upon us during our visit here.

Therefore, be it resolved: That in giving this expression to the press for publication, and to our Secretary for spreading on the minutes, we subscribe our abiding interest in all things worthwhile.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY'S REPORT

Courageous Weavers

"Let us take to our hearts a lesson—

—No lesson can braver be

From the ways of the tapestry weavers

On the other side of the sea."

For many years North Carolina Woman's Missionary Union has been making tapestries of service for the Master's Kingdom, striving each year to make a better and larger piece than the year before. Like the greatest of the early English tapestries ours have been based upon the Bible and its call to service. As Dr. Gordon says: "Throughout the whole story the warp and shuttle threads are ever the same, the warp is God's unfailing faithfulness, and the shuttle threads are shot across the warp by man's choice."

Even as tapestry weavers work from the back, and see not its delicate beauty until the web is turned, so, we anxiously wait each year for the completed report to compare the year's work with former years.

Each organization was given the W. M. U. design of our work in our chief aims: prayer, enlistment, study, personal service, tithes and offerings, and missionary education of our young people; and also the pattern for a perfect design—the Standard of Excellence.

Three hundred forty-four A-1 organizations tell of patient plodding weavers who hung up their patterns, and fastening their eyes thereon, did their best. Pilot Mountain Association had the largest number and highest per cent of A-1 organizations, forty-two. Of 183 churches having full-graded Unions eleven were A-1; North Wilkesboro; West Asheville; French Broad, Asheville; Lenoir First; Blackwell Memorial, Elizabeth City; Elizabeth City, First; Enfield; Shiloh; Corinth; Creekville; Waughtown, Winston-Salem. Six of these were in the same class a year ago, and this is Blackwell Memorial's sixth consecutive year to be A-1.

Some forty-five thousand members reported ready for work on 1933 tapestry, on January 1st, divided into 2,780 societies. Eighty-one Woman's Missionary Societies failed us which is sad, but far sadder, our women allowed 315 young people's organizations to drop out, or played with them on a piece of work for the King, and did not send any report of their work. By dropping their 395 threads we knew they had not caught the vision, and heeded not the call, "The King's work waits for His plans; make room, come out and help us prepare the way," and so did not count them in our active list.

Our 1933 tapestry would have had some bare spaces or been narrowed had not 495 new organizations come in and woven in their dropped threads.

Our aim in 1933 was to replace the dark lines of decreased gifts with a ten per cent increase of light lines of increased gifts. As a State we did not do it, but 821 organizations "weaving always, weaving, kindly, weaving surely" lightened their part by making a ten per cent increase in gifts.

Forty per cent of the organizations in the Indian Association went beyond the ten per cent increase enabling the Burnt Swamp Association to make its ten per cent increase.

Carolina, French Broad, Mitchell, Green River, Stanley, Little River, New South River and King's Mountain made their ten per cent increase in gifts, too, but King's Mountain was the only one making all ten points on the Associational Standard.

May the 2,837 organizations in 997 churches with which we began the work resolve "to keep faith with unnumbered brave who pushed aside horizons that we might reach the better things"; and though discouragements come, some fail them, some grow tired, many be indifferent, may they not lose sight of the fact that:

"The years of man are the looms of God
Let down from the place of the sun
Where we are weaving always," and keep that rare strength and high courage that through storms will last.

Miss Pearle Bourne was in the State for two weeks field work in the spring and two weeks in the fall; Mrs. Carter Wright for five weeks; Mrs. Charles Leonard, of Manchuria, for many Associations and classes. We are grateful for the larger vision given by these workers.

The field work of Mrs. Jones: 16 meetings, 12 talks, 178 letters, 3,063 miles; and of your Secretary: 35 Associations, 3 Divisions, 3 Conventions, 21 other meetings, 119 talks, 14 classes, 9,684 miles, was joyous service. With the culmination of the year's work in a wonderful Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, with the weaving stopped for 1933, the web tossed and turned, the real handiwork of each organization displayed, we can say "it pays for all it cost."

The report of the Young People's Secretary, Miss Alva Lawrence, was not read but adopted as prepared to be printed in the minutes.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S REPORT

Leaders with me, I would be unworthy of the trust did I not acknowledge what your untiring efforts, your splendid co-operation, and your consecrated service have meant to Kingdom work during 1933. It is said that hands are both useful and beautiful, therefore, the labors of your hands will be the presentation of the W. M. U. young people's report. Shall we not call it "fruits of your hands"?

The first or index finger points the way to go, and thus the Standard of Excellence like a road map or compass directs the activities of our W. M. U. The index finger then points out that of the 2,108 young people's societies on record at the close of 1933 a total of 719 did Standard work as follows:

	S.B.	R.A.	G.A.	Y.W.A.	Total
Number Societies.....	662	366	625	455	2,108
A-1	71	42	83	58	254
Class B.....	39	15	40	40	134
Class C.....	27	15	36	53	131
Class D.....	72	33	71	24	200

The infant mortality in China is said to be seven out of ten. The death rate in young people's societies during a year compares all too favorably with this record. At the close of the year those societies that did not report for either of the four quarters of 1933 were dropped from our mailing list—dead societies. Three hundred fifteen W. M. U. young people's societies did not report, signifying that they were not active. Four hundred forty-seven societies were reported a-new during 1933, so we have a net increase of 132.

The number of young people's societies for January 1934 is as follows:

Sunbeam	R.A.	G.A.	Y.W.A.	Total
558	310	537	408	1,813

We trust better medical attention can be given the mother W. M. S. and the young societies this year and that the death rate may be lower.

Since 1933 was the twenty-fifth anniversary of Royal Ambassadors we set as our goal one-fourth increase in number of chapters. This would have made our number 400. We only had 366 reported but feel that much interest in the boys has been manifested. We commend our pastors for their increased interest and congratulate Mr. H. N. Massey, Smithfield, whom the boys selected as State R. A. Counselor at their State Conclave. He has added much to the R. A. work in our State already.

Our nine college Y. W. A.'s have also accepted the slogan—"Better Stick to Standard"—and six of the nine were Standard for the college year—Campbell, Chowan, Fruitland, Mars Hill, Meredith, Wingate reported having done A-1 work.

The middle finger is longest and thus can reach farthest so our mission study reaches around the world. What has been the fruits of your hands in mission study? The following is a comparison of the statistics:

Classes

	S.B.	R.A.	G.A.	Y.W.A.

1933	1,858	876	2,088	2,023

The increase in Y. W. A. and R. A. mission study is probably due to the fact that they have each celebrated their twenty-fifth anniversary years respectively in '32 and '33, and special attention was given the two organizations. Another encouraging fact in the dissemination of missionary information is that more people are subscribing to our missionary periodicals. In 1933 North Carolina reached the quota set by the Birmingham Office in subscriptions to World Comrades and The Window, our two young people's magazines. North Carolina was one of two states in the South that reached its quota. Subscriptions are as follows — World Comrades, 1,533; The Window, 777, showing a five per cent increase over 1932. Ridgecrest added its "lion's portion" to mission interest. The Y. W. A. Camp, June 27-July 7, was unsurpassed. The State Girls' Auxiliary House Party at Meredith and R. A. Conclave, Raleigh, were well attended, and through special missionary speakers and conferences will continue to stimulate missionary enthusiasm. Since the letter "I" appears twice in missions let's "let the eyes have it" and try through more missionary information to have a greater missionary vision in 1934.

The ring finger is symbol of love and joining of two lives. Just so personal service represents Christ's love and ours joined in service for Him to man. "Personal Service is presenting the Savior with our hands, our lips, our lives." Many of our young people's societies are recognizing that they too must "go about doing good" if they would follow in the steps of the Christ. It is the policy of the W. M. U. to promote directed personal service in which a chairman heads the organization in definite personal service. Visits in the interest of Sunday-school and church; also to prisoners, strangers, and sick; distribution of literature, magazines, garments and food; and service conducted for institutions, shut-ins, etc., are forms of Christian service our young people take part in. The small finger reaches the high note on the piano, just so giving reaches the high note in the Christian life. The purpose of the W. M. U. organization is to teach missions and stimulate giving. The Stewardship Declamation Contest is fostered by the Union with the hope of teaching Stewardship of possessions. Hundreds of young people have taken part in the Contest and individuals have been helped by this study. The contest fostered by the local church extends to the Associations, Divisions and finally the State. The State winners for 1933 are: Sunbeam, Mary Helen Moore, Tabernacle, Raleigh; Junior R. A.—Jack Stout, Green Street Church, High Point; Intermediate R. A.—Joe Wilson, Green Street Church, High Point; Junior G. A.—Grace Duval, Salisbury First; Intermediate G. A.—Helen Parker, Potecasi; Y. W. A.—Dorothy Kimball, Townsville. Partially as a result of our study of stewardship the following tithers are reported:

In order to stimulate interest in giving to our special Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for foreign missions an Honor Roll of $1.00 contributors was published in our Baptist State paper. This is the record sent to our office:

The W. M. U. young people of our State contributed to missions during 1933:

Finally the thumb is said to be necessary for every use of the hand, so it represents prayer. Prayer is necessary for every Christian activity. It is given first place in the fundamentals of W. M. U., also in the plan of work for each year. "Work without prayer is presumption," we are told and "prayer without work is hypocrisy" therefore, the two must be linked in every Christian endeavor. "Lord, teach us to pray"—not how or what but teach us to pray. Only in heaven is a record kept of individual prayer and much of the united effort is not reported to this office, yet the following seasons of prayer were observed by our young people:

A "SURE WORD OF PROMISE"

Our watchword for the year, "Be strong and of good courage, for Jehovah thy God is with thee," brings to us an impressive picture. The children of Israel had reached the border of Canaan. The land that had been their objective for forty years lay before them, and after the weary years of wilderness wandering looked exceedingly fair. But in the distance could be seen the walled cities, and right before them, presenting a barrier that seemed unsurmountable, the River Jordan was at its flood. These difficulties were great, but a greater lay in the fact that Moses, their leader, the man who had talked with God, was dead. Yet the word came to "Go Forward" and Joshua was given the command to "Be strong and of good courage, be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest." Joshua obeyed the command of the Lord, the waters were held back, as were the waters of the Red Sea, and Israel passed into Canaan over dry ground. Then there came to him the second revelation of the power and presence of God. As he lifted up his eyes and looked, behold there stood a man over against him with his sword in his hand, and Joshua said, "Art thou for us or for our adversaries?" And the answer came "Nay, but as Captain of the Lord's host am I come. Loose thy shoe from off thy foot for the place where thou standest is holy ground." Here was the assurance of the presence and guidance of the One who was indeed the Captain of the armies of Israel.

In the day in which we are living we have gotten so far away from the realization of the things that are unseen, that we sometimes forget that the Captain of the Host of the Lord is still leading His people, and He it is to whom we must look for strength. First, in all of our undertakings we need to catch a vision of His face, to remember that while we do not hear the angels singing on Bethlehem's hills, as did the shepherds of old, that the angels still sing—that God is with us, and all power comes from Him. Only as we see Him in all of the everyday tasks that come to us in His service, can we hope to be victorious in the things committed to us. May we come into a closer touch with the angelic hosts of God, for “Still through the cloven skies they come

With peaceful wings unfurled;
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world.
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hovering wing
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessed angels sing.”

Strength.

Joshua was commanded to be strong. It is a duty to be strong. It is a direct command from God. Strong because the battle for righteousness cannot be won if we fail or falter. Strength to a certain extent lies within ourselves. We may increase or decrease our physical strength by our manner of living. It is even more true that our spiritual strength depends on our daily lives. We must keep in close touch with the things of God. The things of this life must have a secondary place, and literally we must heed the Master's command and “Seek first the Kingdom of God.” Did you ever see a vigorous Christian life that neglected the Word of God, took no time for prayer and failed to attend the services of the church? These things are essential, because spiritual food is as necessary as food for the body, and spiritual food inevitably brings to us strength. Right living is necessary if we would be strong. In Tennyson's poem “Sir Galahad,” the knight, says,

“My strength is as the strength of ten
Because my heart is pure.”

Jesus said “Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God.” See Him not only in the life to come but with the eye of faith see Him here. “Heaven's richest reward is the capacity to see God wherever He reveals Himself.” A pure heart and a life that is right with God and man will bring to us both physical and spiritual strength. We are not strong to do the Master's will because our lives are not unspotted from the world. Some of you may recall a touching appeal made a few years ago by one of our missionaries who had given a long life of service to China, that when a young Chinese Christian came to this country to study, we would spare her the contact with the indifferent and coldhearted members of our churches whose lives were so filled with the things of this world that there was no difference between their manner of living and those who made no pretention to being followers of the Christ. A flaw on the surface of a beautiful gem, a blight on the bud of a rose will destroy the value of the gem or the beauty of the flower. So the mark that one cherished sin or selfish indulgence will make in our Christian character mars not only the beauty but the strength of our lives. We are living in a time when strength is needed, the tasks are heavy, the burdens are great. Shall we not keep our hearts and lives pure that we may be able to meet the demands of our day and generation. Victory will come only by the power of our God, but He commands us to be strong, and to be strong there must be righteous living. If there were but one message we could bring to the women who constitute our Woman's Missionary Union in this day of changes when so many forces are at work, so many voices calling it would be this—So live that God's will shall be done in you and through you, and that the world may see that the purpose of your lives is to glorify God and witness to the power of His resurrection. We must be strong because there are those who are discouraged who like the Israelites see the rising waters and the walls of the distant cities and let these things obscure the unseen hand of God.

Following a century of great missionary activity, a special period of deepened interest and an enlarged program, we are facing a time when a general consensus of opinion seems to be calling for retrenchment in all of our work. Added to this there has been a growing feeling among the peoples that we are striving to serve, that the influence of the western nations, particularly the missionary influence, must be curtailed. From this has arisen the determination to take charge of mission schools, the desire to be a determinate factor in the policy of our mission boards, a growing belief that the native church with the financial help of Christian people can do better the work of evangelization in their country than the foreign missionary. Much might be said about this matter, but the essential thing is, that we remember that the divine commission which underlies our foreign mission work has not been countermanded by Him who gave it. Dr. Speer, one of the outstanding leaders in the missionary world today, says in a recent number of the Missionary Review of the World, "Foreign Missions will go on. Their form may change and the methods and processes of evangelization may alter, but the basis on which the true missionary enterprise of the church rests is impregnable. More than eighty years ago the immovable grounds of the missionary enterprise were stated as follows:

First—The origin of the missionary cause is the eternal love and purpose of God.

Second—The commandment of our Lord.

Third—The example of the primitive church.

Fourth—The benevolent nature of the Christian religion.

Fifth—The spiritual condition of man without the Gospel.

Sixth—The events of Providence in our day.

Seventh—The seal of the Holy Spirit.

Eighth—The certainty of final success.

Here we stand on the rock of Christ Jesus, the one and only foundation, and here we build, and all that is built here is to be indestructible and universal. We welcome all the signs of the times and the evidence of progress in the church, but our trust in God and His promises and His invincible will that His Son is to be Lord of all, and that every knee in heaven and on earth and under the earth shall bow to Him." The work has not been completed, for instance in China where missionaries have been at work for more than a century, and where a large part of the mission work of our Southern Baptist Convention has been done, there are hardly more than 500,000 Christians in a population of more than 500,000,000. There are today more than 450,000,000 of Chinese who have not been reached by the gospel. Not in our day will the time come when our responsibility will be ended.

Then too the difficulties have increased at home. The great tragedy in Christian work comes from man-made plans and thinking instead of looking to the leadership of God. We can't say we are guiltless of this charge. Faithlessness of individuals, however disastrous and sad, makes no such havoc as substituting our plans for God's plans. Because of needs that faced us we have allowed ourselves to become diverted from our primary purpose of an organization to evangelize, to make the name of our Christ known throughout the length and breadth of the world. The things we have done should have been done, but there is a conviction that they should have been done not through the Woman's Missionary Union. Our constitution written in 1886, in the very beginning of our organization defines our purpose as that of stimulating the missionary spirit and grace of giving among the women and children of our churches, and aiding in the collection of funds for missionary purposes. The women in our churches must share in the burden of the local church, minister to the needs of the community, but these things must not be done at the expense of the missionary cause. The primary purpose of your missionary society is missions. Keep that thought constantly in mind in your planning, and in your giving.

Courage.

A challenge to courage comes to us in the wonderful reports that come from our mission fields. Notwithstanding reduced budgets, recalled missionaries, economy to the point where it is really crippling the work, there was last year reported the largest number of baptisms in any one year in our history. Missionaries have carried on in the midst of overwhelming difficulties, and God has most wonderfully blessed their labors. To those of us at home their courage and faith comes as an inspiration, a veritable light in the darkness. There lingers with us yet the light in the face, and the joy in the heart of Neale Young as she talked to us last year in our annual meeting at Winston-Salem of her work in Africa. There were many contributing causes to the return of the Powells to this country but chief among them was the joy and radiance of this speaker as she told of the need for these North Carolina missionaries on that great continent.

The revival in North China has assumed such proportions, so marvelous is the story of the power of the Spirit among these people that some have even questioned the things that have happened. Our Lord could do no mighty works in Nazareth because of unbelief. We may well consider as to whether our lack of faith is hindering the power of our God not only in our land but in the heathen world. There is much discussion in the religious press as to the outstanding need in our churches today to stem the tide of indifference and worldly-minded Christianity. Some say that prayer must be more vital in the life of the church, others that only a wide-sweeping revival will suffice. Naught will avail us but the coming of the Holy Spirit in the hearts of the people of God. May the words of the old hymn we have sung so often in our churches be a constant prayer in our hearts and on our lips—

“Come Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove
With all thy quickening power
Come shed abroad a Savior's love
And that shall kindle ours.”

Another reason for courage is the equipment we have for our task today. Denominational papers, missionary magazines, even the secular papers and magazines bring to us constant news of missionary advancement and achievement. No woman is so situated that she cannot secure through periodical programs information that will make any missionary meeting not only interesting but thrilling. We plead that you make use of the material that is at hand. A standard that we must attain for each of our organizations is a copy of the Biblical Recorder, our denominational paper; a copy of Home and Foreign Fields, a copy of Royal Service in the hands of the leader of every Woman's Missionary Society; the Window in every Young Woman's organization and World Comrades for the leaders of our young people's societies. In addition we must secure subscriptions from our membership to all of these periodicals. The cause of dull uninteresting missionary meetings is lack of knowledge.

We should take courage because of the hosts of women who make up our organization. Nearly fifty thousand strong, no task would be too great, no goal beyond our reach if all who are enrolled in our membership had the faith and courage of the few who are giving themselves joyously and untiringly to the service of the Master in this great missionary cause. We long for every woman in our churches to share in the blessing of service, but we remember that God works through minorities. Victories are won not by might but by the power of God, and so with grateful heart we thank Him today for the love and faithfulness of those whose labors for Him have brought to our Union such large results through the years. We must be strong and courageous because of our God. First seeing Him who is invincible, we have the consciousness of His Presence amidst the changing and sometimes devastating experiences that come to us. Not only seeing Him but hearing Him say as He said to Joshua "I will be with thee" and with that assurance we may go forward unafraid, strong for any task that He assigns. We rest in the promise of an unchangeable God. Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today and forever. With that light in our hearts may we give ourselves with renewed strength and courage to making Him known to the peoples of the world? Only He is sufficient to meet the world's deep need. Three scenes come to mind as we think of this need. The first scene is of Jesus going about all the cities and villages of Galilee teaching in the synagogues, preaching the gospel of the Kingdom and healing every sickness and every disease among the people. "And when He saw the multitudes He was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted and were scattered abroad as sheep having no shepherd. Then saith He to His disciples, the harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few: Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest that He will send forth laborers into His harvest." Do you not think He is looking with compassion on the world today.

The second scene is from a story told me many years ago of Miss Lottie Moon, by one who had worked with her in North China. It has been told many times, how this missionary after many long years of service had planned to take a much needed furlough and went for a farewell journey to some of the many villages that dot that great country, and an old woman came to her and urged her to go to her village and tell the people there about Jesus so that they too might be saved. Miss Moon, so the story goes, told her that she was leaving for home and there was not time on this journey but she would go on her return. The old woman sadly replied "But so many will not be here when you get back." Miss Moon gave up her furlough and made the appeal for more missionaries that resulted in our Lottie Moon Christmas Offering.

The third picture is from the pen of Dr. Speer. He tells how he climbed one day to the crest of a hill above the city of Hwai Yen in Central China to look out over the great mission field surrounding the city. He said, "I tried to count the villages and towns over those fertile inland Chinese plains and counted up to three or four hundred; then the distant haze hid other towns from view. The great fields were ready for the harvest. He turned from the vision of the fields waiting and reapers so few and sat down inside the little temple. On the wall was an inscription which translated read:

"Where there is earnest beseeching there will be a sure reply."

"Wanted—Bread for a hungry world."

"Wanted—Light for a groping world."

Will there be a sure reply? Will we put what we have of life and life's possessions into assuring that reply?"

Mrs. John Wacaster, Cherryville, Superintendent King's Mountain Association, was recognized and the excellent work of the Association cited, this Association having made the ten points on the Association Standard of Excellence, including meeting her apportionment.

A motion was made by Mrs. J. R. Morgan, Waynesville, that a message of love and sympathy be sent to the Recording Secretary of the Convention, Mrs. W. D. Briggs, Raleigh, because of the recent going of her mother to her heavenly home. Carried.

The Margaret Fund Report was given by the Chairman, Mrs. J. Clyde Turner, Goldsboro.

REPORT OF MARGARET FUND

The work designated as the Margaret Fund, and for which your Chairman is responsible, is twofold: The presentation of the regular Margaret Fund cause to stimulate the annual offering; and also the direction of the mothering of the Margaret Fund students entrusted to our State.

To meet these two requirements the work of your Chairman is varied and I regret to report that for the present year has not been adequate.

In assuming the Chairmanship, I have followed the suggestion of Miss Alva Lawrence, your former Chairman, and requested each Division to elect, at its annual Divisional meeting, a Chairman of the Margaret Fund rather than have her appointed by State Chairman, as was formerly done. This Divisional Chairman becomes responsible for this special work in her own Division, providing for a leader in each Association who in turn shall present the twofold cause at her Associational meeting, and endeavor to have in each society a representative of this work. This plan has been adopted by the Division, but some have worked it out with greater success than others.

The apportionment for Margaret Fund for this year was $1,000.00 which we are glad to report has been more than met, showing a decided increase over last year's financial record. We are gratified also to report $202.00 given in Memorials this year.

Two of our Margaret Fund students were graduated last June from Meredith College: Nancy McDaniel, who at present has a position in Winston-Salem; and Helen Dozier, now studying at our W. M. U. Training School in Louisville, better fitting herself for work in Japan where she hopes to serve when it is possible for her to return. Helen suffered the loss of her father immediately following her graduation at Meredith and our women throughout the State were most thoughtful in their expressions of sympathy.

Six students were assigned to North Carolina for "mothering" during this present school year, and the list was published in the Biblical Recorder in the early fall as follows: Asheville Division, Mrs. E. R. Elmore, Mars Hill, Chairman—Herbert Baker, Wake Forest, student; Charlotte Division—Rachael Leonard, Meredith student; Elizabeth City Division, Mrs. Leslie Newman, Bethel, Chairman—Charles Leonard, Wake Forest, student; Greensboro Division, Mrs. Herman Stevens, Asheboro, Chairman—Moses McCall, Wake Forest, student; Wilmington Division, Mrs. George Lovell, Clayton, Chairman—Mary Faye McMillan, Meredith, student; Helen Dozier, W. M. U. Training School.

Charles Leonard was one of our students at Wake Forest last year; Moses McCall and Herbert Baker were also under our care last year at Mars Hill. Rachael Leonard and Mary Faye McMillan at Meredith are our only new students. Both girls have strong claims on North Carolina and have been assigned to Divisions where the interest in them would naturally be keenest. Rachael Leonard is at present attending Meredith as a day pupil as her mother is making her home in Raleigh while on furlough.

Reports have come of much "mothering" having been done for some of these students, while with others a close contact has failed to be established. Wilmington Division leads in interest and in work reported.

We suggest that the plan herein outlined be continued this year and that greater efforts be made to establish contacts with the students; that more emphasis be placed on the Margaret Fund cause and that societies bring the work before their organizations by special programs or definite place on regular program in accordance with plans mapped out by Executive Committee. We acknowledge with deep appreciation the work done by the Chairmen and others who have aided in the work during this year.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. CLYDE TURNER,

Margaret Fund Chairman.

Report spoken to by Mrs. Turner.

Mary Faye McMillan, Margaret Fund student at Meredith College, and daughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. H. McMillan, China, was introduced and spoke of the appreciation of Margaret Fund students for the love, mothering, and financial help of the Margaret Fund.

Margaret Fund report adopted.

Report of Personal Service Chairman, Mrs. Charles L. Greaves, Raleigh.

PERSONAL SERVICE REPORT

God's Book teaches us that the greatest thing is love. Personal service is based on the love which Christians have in their hearts, for true love always seeks expression. Professed love, if unfruitful is false. True love seeks to make others happy, helps in hard places, binds up wounds, comforts in sorrow, lightens burdens, encourages the fallen, gives and shares its resources. "By their fruits ye shall know them" says the Scripture.

In this day of social and economic revolution Christian principles should be brought to the forefront by their Christian advocates and incorporated in the new order. Our Personal Service workers should seek the cause and cure the ills of society as well as palliate its woes. You and I are a part of the social order and must shoulder our part of its responsibilities.

All societies, but especially our rural ones, have a great opportunity for service just now, for our people face many difficulties. Will you meet the need? In Personal Service there is no set rule to follow. Deep consecration, a love of humanity, an understanding heart, much common sense, and a willingness to see and do for His little ones are needed. Like a golden thread through all our work should be the effort to win to Christ all who do not know Him.

The past year has seen much activity among the members of our W. M. U. which has been twice blessed—blessing those who gave and those who received. Our Personal Service affords a great means of keeping alive within our hearts sympathy, helpfulness, kindness, charity, the spirit of service and love.

Will not the societies of our Convention which do not engage in this work, make plans to do so this year? It will add to your interest and enrich your souls.

I gather from the reports that we are paying more attention to the underprivileged child and this bodes well for the future.

Be encouraged to pursue and undertake any good work that calls for your aid, for by joining hands and with God's help we can do more than we think.

The Ministry of Healing presented in a report on "Our Hospital at Winston-Salem" by Mrs. J. J. Roddick, Trustee of the Hospital.

THE BAPTIST HOSPITAL

Jesus declared war on disease when by His miracles He convinced all mankind it was worth while to touch deadly contagion and apply treatment. Today this holy war in healing is a world war—not waged on flesh and blood, but a war to rescue suffering humanity. It is with gratitude that after another year's service in the ministry of healing that we bring the report of our North Carolina Baptist Hospital.

While unusual conditions of our State have cast added burdens on the Hospital during the year, we have rendered service to 2,550 patients, while there has been given 8,496 days service to charity or part-pay patients. The increased demands to render aid to our needy brothers and sisters has placed a new challenge and added responsibility on the hearts of the Baptists of our State. For, while we have had the added demands for charity work; the decline in the gifts to the Co-operative Program, which should take care of the bonds for the Hospital, has made it necessary to raise $6,000 last year and $7,000 this year to meet this obligation besides doing about $40,000 worth of charity work. We received $11,500 for our Mothers' Day Offering this year and $9,000 from the Duke Foundation Fund, making a total of a little over $20,000 to take care of $40,000 worth of charity work. While the offering on Mothers' Day was not quite so large as in other years, we felt gratified that more Sunday Schools and churches sent in an offering than in any year in the history of the work, which convinces us of the increased interest in the Ministry of Healing. One of the greatest helps during the past year has been, where churches sending free patients have sent an offering to help defray the expenses of Hospital care. This contribution that has been sent in behalf of some needy brother and sister will prove a blessing to the church sending it, and will enable the Hospital to extend service to so many more needing it.

The charity work next year will be regulated by the amount of interest we can arouse on Mothers' Day—and I would plead in the name of the Christ who gave His life for humanity that we do our best on this day so sacred for its hallowed memories to us all.

One of the outstanding helps during the past year has been the Hospital Auxiliary composed of the Winston-Salem churches. (Oh, that we might have them in every city and Association.) The various churches of Winston-Salem, under the capable leadership of Mrs. H. S. Stokes, Mrs. E. L. Davis, and Mrs. J. S. Slate, with a committee representing each church, have done all the sewing for the Hospital besides supplying such a large quantity of linen so much needed. Added to this blessing we have received numerous packages from all parts of our State. Without this aid from our various churches we would not have been able to do the large amount of charity that we have recorded for the past year. For the first time in twelve years we have been compelled to buy towels for our Hospital. Today the supply is so limited that I would plead with you to remember the Hospital in a linen shower in April. If each Circle in the State would send one hospital sheet or spread, how it would relieve our increasing anxiety on the subject of linen, while a small donation of towels, pillow cases, or wash cloths from younger organizations would find their place of usefulness in keeping faces and hands clean. It is impossible to estimate what a small donation in linen from each church means.

But do not let the gift of linen take the place of your offering on Mothers' Day, since the great work is extended or limited by your gifts in money on that day. Will you each one realize that of the large number of needy ones knocking at our doors, you will help to open or keep the door closed, for God has invested His power in our lives—my life and your life.

We have endeavored by every sacrifice possible to keep our institution up to its splendid reputation for efficiency, and provide up-to-date equipment—that we may give the best service possible. Through these trying years we have tried in every way to keep the Hospital equal to the best and meet every demand for charity from our churches. The last great desire of our recently departed Superintendent, G. T. Lumpkin, was realized when, with the co-operation of a number of friends, he was able to install one of the most modern fluoroscopic X-ray tables which will stand as a lasting tribute to his efforts in behalf of suffering humanity. After thirty years of faithful service in preaching the gospel of Christ, his last great hope was realized in his later years in the contribution he made in the great Ministry of Healing.

In the spirit of the Master he met all the suffering and distressed who came to the Hospital for treatment, and after twelve years of faithful service to our Hospital on the evening of January 24, just as the sun was setting, without a day of suffering—perhaps just a little weary with life's burdens—while sitting at the fireside his earthly spirit quietly took its flight. We know of no words that more fittingly expresses his going than Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar."

"Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me;
May there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea.

"Twilight and evening bells,
And after that the dark,
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark.

"For oft from out that bourne of time and place,
The tide has drifted far:
I hope to meet my Saviour face to face
When I have crossed the bar!"

On February 22nd, Mr. Smith Hagaman, of Boone, was elected to take up the work our Superintendent had so suddenly been called on to lay down.

MRS. J. J. RODDICK,

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MARCH 14

With the President, Mrs. W. N. Jones, presiding, the session opened at 7:30 with the singing of the hymn, "How Firm a Foundation."

Because of the numbers who were turned away from the day services at the First Baptist Church for lack of room, the night session was held in the high school auditorium.

The devotional was led by Rev. J. W. Kincheloe, Rocky Mount, pastor First Baptist Church, who read Philippians the fourth chapter.

A male quartet from the First Baptist Church, Rocky Mount, sang "Come, Spirit, Come."

The evening was devoted to Foreign Missions—the general topic, "Within This Present."

A telegram was read from Dr. Charles E. Maddry, Secretary Foreign Mission Board, Richmond, Va.

An address was given—"Our Foreign Mission Board: Its Plans and Expectations"—Miss Inabelle Coleman, Editorial Secretary, Foreign Mission Board, Richmond, Va.

Mrs. C. A. Leonard, Harbin, Manchuria, spoke on "Missions in Manchuria."

Miss Blanche Sydnor White, Corresponding Secretary, W. M. U. of Virginia, Richmond, spoke on "The Woman's Missionary Union and the Message."

Prayer—Rev. J. L. Carrick, Elizabeth City.

Adjournment.

THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 15

The session was opened at ten o'clock with the singing of the hymn, "From Greeland's Icy Mountains."

The devotional was led by Mrs. Fred Harrell, Goldsboro, Superintendent of the Neuse Association, reading the Scripture—Matthew 23:37-39; 5:44; John 14:31, and using the topic, "Love."

Minutes of Wednesday afternoon and evening sessions were read and approved.

Telegrams from the North Carolina girls at the W. M. U. Training School, Louisville, Ky., and from those at the Southwestern Training School, Fort Worth, Texas, were read and the Secretary was authorized to acknowledge these greetings.

Report of the W. M. U. Training School by the Trustee, Mrs. R. N. Simms, Raleigh.

REPORT OF W. M. U. TRAINING SCHOOL

Near the middle of each month there comes to me a long envelope bearing the name of Woman's Mission Union Training School and post-marked Louisville, Ky. It contains the minutes of the monthly Executive Board meeting of the school and the report of the Principal, Miss Littlejohn, to the Board. It is always received and read with great interest and gives me an intimate contact with life as it goes on there as nothing else could.

As I scanned a number of these reports in order to refresh my memory for this report, I was impressed with the fact that while trouble and disaster and debt have seemed to pursue many other institutions, our Heavenly Father does care for His own for our school has been remarkably free of sickness and trouble of any kind this past year. It has been able to run free of debt also, due in a large measure to the love and generosity and many loving gifts from Southern Baptist women. These were received in showers at Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter of last year. North Carolina women had a goodly share in these and we trust will be even more generous this coming year—for without our continued support this great work cannot go on.

Seventy-one students in all have enrolled during this session, fifty-one of whom were boarding students and twenty day students. Of these, seven were North Carolina girls—a strong, talented group. In fact, the personnel of the whole student body is unusually fine. Miss Wu, from China, was there until Christmas, and was the best foreign student ever in the school. A number of missionaries' daughters are studying there this session. Our own Helen Dozier, of Japan, a Margaret Fund student, is one, and another is Gloria Ruiz, daughter of Donata Ruiz, an outstanding missionary of the Home Mission Board. Her mother is the President of the Mexican W. M. U. and Gloria is the first Mexican student ever to enroll in the school.

Mrs. W. E. Broach, of Georgia, came in for a special course just to help her in her church work, as mission study chairman, and writes back that she was greatly benefited.

In spite of necessary retrenchments and a smaller student body, the school has kept its finances in good shape and lived within its means. The sum borrowed from the Emergency Fund was paid back and there is no other debt. $1,500 of the money tied up in the Louisville Trust Company was paid in, and the Board invested it in Government Bonds for safe keeping. As you heard from the Treasurer's report, the total contribution from North Carolina is $1,642.60.

An interesting history of the Training School has been written by Mrs. Mullins and will be published by the Sunday School Board before the Southern Baptist Convention. Paper-bound copies will sell for 35c each and cloth-bound for 50c.

Together with other women and girls of the South, the girls and faculty observed the Foreign Mission Week of Prayer in the first week in December and brought in their offering the last day. This amounted to $320.27 in money and the reconsecration of everyone more sincerely to His service. They wished they might have had more money to give but prayed that in our Father's sight their love and consecrated service would be equally acceptable.

The regular field work was started the first of October and has been splendidly done throughout the session. The girls are assigned to six settlements and community centers including Good Will Center, one institution, two missions, ten churches and a missionary education class in Simmons University (colored).

The service rendered at the Good Will Center has never been better and some much-needed improvements were made there, as were at House Beautiful also. New shades and a mimeograph were made possible by special anniversary gifts.

On recommendation of Miss Littlejohn, a handcraft class has been provided with a splendid teacher. So many students enrolled for piano lessons that an assistant teacher was needed and Mildred Thomas, one of our North Carolina girls, was given the place.

Many delightful social occasions planned by churches of Louisville, the faculty and the girls, have helped to make life more interesting. The Thanksgiving and Christmas plays were of a very high order, and greatly enjoyed.

Altogether it would be hard to find a busier and happier group of girls anywhere.

Let me remind you that nearly 2,000 students have enrolled in our school and 763 have graduated; 169 of these have gone as missionaries into 13 foreign lands. Many others have served as missionaries under the Home and State Boards and in all phases of W. M. U. and church work. It would be impossible to recount the services they have rendered; had we the time to recount them our hearts would be deeply stirred.

Just now most of the students there are preparing for work in the homeland and rightly so. They are needed to help train and develop our people in order that missions may be given a new stimulus. Impoverished spiritual life at home has caused a sag in our foreign mission spirit and not until we strengthen and develop our people can we hope for a stronger impulse towards foreign missions again.

These trained workers are needed too, to help train and safeguard our young people and keep them true to the faith.

We call upon our churches and Boards to use them. We call upon W. M. U. women to use their influence in seeing that this is done.

In a folder sent out from the school the question "Who should attend the Training School" is answered in this way: (1) The young woman who wants to be a better volunteer worker in her church and community; (2) the young woman who desires to enter religious work as a vocation; (3) the young woman who plans to be a missionary in home or foreign fields.

We all know girls of one of these classes, and we should use our influence to have them study for at least a year in this fine school. We hope that each W. M. S. President will do this without fail.

The Trustees and faculty have always relied upon North Carolina women and counted them among their staunchest friends and supporters and they crave your continued interest, your gifts and your prayers during the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. N. SIMMS,
North Carolina Trustee.

Mrs. Simms spoke to this report and introduced Mrs. J. W. Carroll, Wallace, Superintendent of Wilmington Association, who told of some of the benefits which come to her Association from providing a Training School scholarship.

Miss Vera Ruth, Raleigh, told of how her work in the Training School helps her now in her work of Educational Director in the Tabernacle Church, Raleigh.

Mrs. Richard Hinton, Tabor, gave her testimony as to how the training in the Training School helps a pastor's wife.

The power of training in the Training School in the life of a foreign missionary was given by Mrs. C. A. Leonard, missionary to Manchuria.

A season of prayer for the Training School.

Hymn—"Jesus Calls Us."

Report on Stewardship read by Mrs. Edna R. Harris in the absence of Mrs. J. G. Boomhour, Chairman, Raleigh.

REPORT ON STEWARDSHIP

How often, during the past years, when confronted with the urgent needs on our mission fields, have our hearts been burdened by the fact that the calls of our missionaries must go unheeded.

Each year there is a deepening conviction that our failures to respond to their calls for help are due, in a measure, to our failure to obey the law of Jehovah as touching tithes and offerings.

It is true, that there has been much sacrificial giving on the part of our women but there are many in our churches who have never been truly enlisted in proportionate and systematic giving.

Of the fifty-nine Associations comprising our State W. M. U. organization, forty of these have a Stewardship Chairman.

Our aim for this year is a Stewardship Chairman in every Association, who believes in and practices stewardship and who will strive earnestly to promote the vital phase of our work throughout her Association.

There are many sources of information. We earnestly urge you to make use of the good books and interesting tracts which deal with this important subject. We urge, also, the use of the covenant cards, remembering to report the number of tithers.

In order to make the plan of our work more definite we are suggesting the following:

1. Endeavor to get every woman in the church to share in the special offerings and special seasons of prayer.
2. See that more young people participate in the Declamation Contest.
3. Plan to have classes in stewardship during the year.
4. Stress the forming of prayer groups. Never has there been greater need for united fervent prayer.

As we seek to lead the women and the young people into a fuller knowledge of the meaning of stewardship, let us remember the words of Paul—"As we abound in everything, in faith, in utterance and knowledge and in all diligence and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also—"

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. G. BOOMHOUR,

Stewardship Chairman.

Mrs. Carter Wright, Roanoke, Ala., Stewardship Chairman of W. M. U., Auxiliary to Southern Baptist Convention, gave an address, "Back to Bethel."

Song—Mrs. C. A. Griffin, Rocky Mount.

A telegram of greetings from the Recording Secretary, Mrs. W. D. Briggs, Raleigh, was read.

The Report of the Wilmington Division was read by the Superintendent, Miss Macy Cox, Magnolia. Report adopted.

REPORT OF WILMINGTON DIVISION

"For thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands."

"Remember His marvelous works that He hath done; His wonders, and the judgments of His mouth."

The Lord has blest the loving service of the W. M. U. of the Wilmington Division and through them done marvelous works, but with deep regret we bow our heads and confess our failures to reach our goal in many things. Due largely to financial conditions, we failed to reach our aim, but only the books of heaven could reveal what has been accomplished through prayer and personal service. More societies are observing the special seasons of prayer, which is a never failing blessing to the cause.

The Divisional meeting in the First Baptist Church of Fayetteville was one of the best held. Large attendance and filled with deep spirit of enthusiasm and inspiring helps. Outstanding speaker was Rev. A. R. Gallimore, of China. The presence and message of Mrs. Edna R. Harris was as usual a benediction.

It was with deep regret that your Superintendent could not be present on account of a broken wrist, and Mrs. Harris and Mrs. R. L. Pittman presided.

The Stewardship Declamation Contest was a great success and was in charge of Mrs. Abbie Bonsteel and Miss Lillian Odum.

It is with pleasure and deep appreciation that we present the reports showing the work of the faithful Superintendents and co-workers of the Wilmington Division.

Mrs. C. R. Jordan reports 32 societies, and 6 new ones in Bladen Association, and an increased interest among the young people. Their gifts were $541.89.

Mrs. T. H. Biles, whom we welcome as new Superintendent of Brunswick Association, reports 25 societies, $192.35 in gifts. They had Stewardship Declamation Contest.

Mrs. M. C. Lunsford, our devoted missionary to the Indians in Robeson County and Superintendent of Burnt Swamp Association, reports 42 societies with 500 members, 30 mission study classes and the prospects in her Association are brighter than ever before. Their gifts were $169.13 and the only Association reaching apportionment. Made 8 points on Standard of Excellence.

In Cape Fear-Columbus Association, Mrs. J. T. McKenzie reports 30 societies giving $613.65. Her Association is planning to enlarge their work. Are already at work on Stewardship Contest.

The Eastern has 85 societies. Gifts $2,502.53. They are still supporting Miss Katie Murray and a Kindergarten School in China. Miss Macy Cox has had the joy of serving as Superintendent 26 years, the only one in the State serving since 1908.

Mrs. G. E. Lovell is leading forward Johnston Association. Reports 52 societies, gifts $1,949.85. Had R. A. Conclave, Stewardship Contest and greatly encouraged over the number engaged in mission study. To her Association we are grateful for our new State R. A. Counselor, Rev. H. N. Massey, of Smithfield.

In Little River Association, Mrs. Paul Bradly, Superintendent, they have 43 societies, gave $2,178.92, are encouraged over interest in mission study, and general increased enthusiasm. They give Scholarship to W. M. U. Training School.

We welcome Mrs. R. P. Harris, of Dunn, as new Superintendent of New South River Association, and her report shows 50 societies giving $1,231.40. Her Association is divided into 5 groups meeting once each quarter, reaching unorganized churches and creating missionary interest.

Robeson Association, Mrs. A. B. Wood, Superintendent, with 60 churches, the largest number in the Division, has 119 societies, giving $3,700.63. They had Stewardship Declamation Contest. Their Association is divided into 7 groups, 6 meeting quarterly, one meets annually. These groups are teaching missions in all the churches.

Wilmington Association is doing good work under the leadership of Mrs. J. W. Carroll. They have 56 societies, giving $4,146.80. They gave Scholarship to our W. M. U. Training School, used by Miss Mildred Rivenbark, of Wallace, this year.

They had Stewardship Declamation Contest. The outstanding thing in their Association in 1933 was sponsoring the return of Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Powell to Africa. Through the persistent efforts and prayers of faith of Mrs. Carroll and the women of her Association, their liberal gifts and wise plans, they have a large part in their labors in Africa. They also support 2 native workers in China.

In the Wilmington Division we have 354 churches, 539 societies with 7,608 members. One hundred ninety-three W. M. S., 62 Y. W. A., 90 G. A., 59 R. A., and 135 Sunbeam Bands. Total of 346 Young Peoples Societies, lacking only 8 of having as many Young Peoples Societies as churches, yet we have 157 churches with no societies. Robeson leads in number of Young Peoples Societies, 82, and largest number churches with 5 grades, 14, and wins the Divisional Banner. Eastern with her 39 churches have 11 with 5 grades and is the outstanding Association for number of societies for the number of churches, having 85; more than an average of 2 to the church. With the 10 churches having no societies, it lacks only 3 of having an average of 3 to the church.

We lost our consecrated and very efficient Stewardship Chairman, Mrs. Abbie Bonsteel, having left our Division and gone to Mars Hill. We only have 737 tithers reported, Wilmington Association leading with 324.

Mrs. V. L. Andrews gives good report on mission study, but we are not accomplishing what we should through this channel. Two hundred ninety classes were held, with 2,093 awards. Robeson leads in number of classes, 70, but Burnt Swamp leads far ahead in awards, 540. Mrs. J. F. Johnson, our Personal Service Chairman, and Miss Lillian Odum, our Young Peoples Leader, are faithful in their efforts and ever ready to serve.

It is a beautiful spirit of love being manifested by the Associations toward our Margaret Fund Students. Brunswick sent gifts to Nancy McDaniel. Bladen, Burnt Swamp, Cape Fear-Columbus, Eastern, Johnston, Robeson, and Wilmington to Mary Fay MacMillan, of China, at Meredith College.

May we put God first, take Him as our partner, and make our plans larger for Him. Praise Him for blessings in the past and to Him we look, for success in future.

Respectfully submitted,

MACY COX,
Division Superintendent.

In closing, Miss Cora Lee Cannon, Durham, led in prayer for Rev. J. A. Campbell, Buie's Creek, critically ill in a hospital at Fayetteville.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 15

At two o'clock the hymn, "Jesus Shall Reign," was sung.

Mrs. D. B. Bryan, Wake Forest, conducted the devotional, using some verses from Luke 7.

Report of Mission Study Chairman—Mrs. Edna R. Harris, Raleigh. Adopted.

REPORT ON MISSION STUDY

"Lift up your eyes and look on the fields." John 4:5.

The ultimate aim of the mission study class is to hold before ourselves the actual situation that confronts the church at home and abroad. We agree with Sailer that "the missionary enterprise calls for convictions clear enough to make lesser aims seem petty by comparison, and deep enough to command life energy. Convictions like these are not to be secured by occasional missionary sermons and addresses, monthly meetings, Sunday School lessons under teachers little interested or magazines glanced at for a few minutes at a time." We need a systematic campaign of missionary education.

The real mission study class places the emphasis on mission study for its broadening vision of world needs, and conditions without Christ, instead of the class just to make the point on the Standard of Excellence. To promote more real study groups we need leaders who are willing to arrange mission study institutes where mission study leaders may come for real preparation for class leadership and more societies that organize classes to promote study, instead of studying to promote a class.

Any interest that can command the attention of more than eighteen hundred groups of people in our churches is a big interest and 1,882 classes were reported for the year. We do not know how many attended these classes; but we do know that 15,569 awards were made to those who passed the tests. For our busy women the Advanced Course seems to make little appeal—only Miss Hannah Prince, Fruitland Institute, and Mrs. J. W. Wood, Boiling Springs, completed the course.

In accord with the recommendations of our South-wide Chairman of Mission Study we urge that the following conditions for increased efficiency of the popular one-day class be carried out:

1. Distribution of books at least one week in advance.
2. Three full hours of study, broken by sufficient periods of relaxation or other activity to insure efficient work by teacher and pupils.
3. Use of some visual helps for the teaching, such as outlines, or posters, or blackboards, maps or charts enabling the eyes to help the overworked ears.

Messages from Divisional Leaders were given as follows:
Asheville Division—Mrs. J. R. Morgan, Waynesville.

REPORT OF ASHEVILLE DIVISION

Reviewing our 1933 records we find cause for encouragement and optimism. There are decided evidences of spiritual fruitage in some Associations, particularly. The financial reports of the last quarter gave courage to our leadership. Had we put into the other three quarters, prayer, plans, and efforts in proportion, we should have reached our apportionments in commendable style.

God forgive! Had we visioned our other nine points of the Standard early in the year, and proclaimed God's power as a basis for our faith we should have had very numerous A-1 societies and unions which have never even aspired thus, to become efficient servants in the Kingdom. So may we "OBSERVE TO DO" the present year in order that we may have what God calls—"Good success," for 1934. Joshua 1:8.

Four new Superintendents have added to our Cabinet strength of purpose and character as well as spirituality and power through prayer: Mrs. James Haynes, of the Haywood, and Mrs. Sam Gibson, of the Macon, have grasped the needs of their Associations with earnestness and humility. They are doing outstanding work in organizing and strengthening societies. Mrs. Morgan, of the Blue Ridge Association, has not only met her financial aim, but by putting on all-day missionary programs in every church, is creating a missionary interest for the whole church, unprecedented. The French Broad met her apportionment and is taking advantage of fifth Sunday meetings in April to feature W. M. U. work in the different churches. The Carolina Superintendent, Mrs. Staggs, says she is looking forward to a better year. Mrs. Renfro, for the Buncombe, says, "We made nine points on our Standard."

The Superintendent visited most of the Associational meetings. They were well attended and uplifting. The emphasis is being placed more and more on work with the young people.

Our Divisional Annual Meeting was held with Marion First Church. Attendance and program were good. The visiting speakers, Miss Mallory and Mrs. J. H. Rowe, of Seinan Jo Gakuin School in Japan, coming over from Ridgecrest to be with us for the day, laid upon our hearts duties of service, heretofore unrealized. Miss Lawrence, too, added greatly to the day's inspiration.

The greatest thing we can report is the optimism of our Divisional Young Peoples' Leader, Mrs. Eugene Coker, as she reviews the consecrated talents of such Associational young people's leadership as has been shown by Mrs. Nora Wilson, of Three Forks Association, in programs, posters, invitations; Miss Jennie Laughridge, of the Blue Ridge; Mrs. Stafford, of the Tuckasegee; Mrs. Calhoun, of the Tennessee River, and Miss Gladys Pannell, of the Macon.

The Buncombe young people's work, under guidance of Mrs. J. R. Owen, is making records with rallies, programs, use of musical and dramatical talents and quarterly council meetings. These and others of our Associational young people's leaders, showed decided interest in the Stewardship Contest and produced results fit for Kingdom Archives. Surely the W. M. U. must look up when missionary education of our youth receives such attention. Our appreciation and gratitude are unreserved for these leaders and their constituency.

A Bible woman in China supported, a box to New Orleans Mission and several showers to the Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem, we are thankful to report.

Looking forward: First, a great desire of our hearts for the Division is that the prayers and influence of our women in the churches be exerted for the calling, as pastors, men who are missionary, who do not oppose missionary efforts. There are many of this type to be had, those who have through God's power prepared themselves for Kingdom service. Until we see this accomplished we need not enter many more of our churches with W. M. U.

Second, a vision of God's power as revealed in Hebrews 1, for the strengthening of our faith as we look upon His commands and promises. To know that we through Him may accomplish all things whatsoever He has commanded us.

Third, to set before us the picture in our Standards of Excellence and work to that end of A-1 societies and churches, until one by one, many, yea even all of our leading churches (First Churches) have reached and kept these positions.

Fourth, the families of pastors, deacons, W. M. U. workers, and of Baptist people, reading Biblical Recorder and mission magazines; thus and only so producing the abundance of needed leadership for our churches and societies.

Fifth, having long felt the need of a missionary to do W. M. U. work in our Counties of the West, the thought comes to us—choose a girl from the Division and let us have the joy of training her by giving a scholarship in the W. M. U. Training School and after she has graduated there, have her serve among our Associations. May we not aspire to make it permanent?

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. R. MORGAN,
Division Superintendent.

Elizabeth City Division—Mrs. H. M. Finch, Elizabeth City.

REPORT OF ELIZABETH CITY DIVISION

In behalf of the members of the Elizabeth City Division, I submit the following report:

God has been good to our women in permitting us to have a part during the strenuous days of 1933 in the World Program. Mrs. J. C. Hough, of Kinston, has been the consecrated leader of the Neuse for a number of years and is followed this year by Mrs. Fred L. Harrel, of Goldsboro. They have 21 churches with 25 organizations, having membership of 650—51 tithers, 12 mission study classes; special work is being done for the young people and they are encouraging every W. M. U. to adopt a church without organizations to organize and foster them. Group meetings are held quarterly.

Mrs. J. C. Hodges, of the Atlantic, reports a growing and deepening interest in the work throughout the Association and the special blessing, the study of "The Keys of the Kingdom," has been proven. They have 18 W. M. S. and 22 young people's organizations, 121 tithers, 6 new organizations, 3 A-1 societies.

Mrs. T. E. Beasley of West Chowan reports an increase in mission study in societies observing seasons of prayer and special offerings and also in subscriptions to periodicals; 18 new organizations, still supportingt Miss Pearl Johnson, 2 Bible women, and 4 scholarships, 2 worthy girls at Chowan. They had an encampment for the young people and conducted a Stewardship Contest with 4 winners in the Divisional Contest.

Mrs. J. L. Carrick, of Chowan, reports 45 churches with 143 societies, 38 W. M. S., 17 Y. W. A.'s, 32 G. A.'s, 24 R. A.'s, 32 Sunbeams, 11 new organizations. This great Association conducted 116 mission study classes, 298 tithers, two-thirds of the societies observing seasons of prayer and offerings, 646 subscriptions to periodicals and the president traveled 1,598 miles. Home and Foreign Fields, 26; Biblical Recorder, 175; Royal Service, 273; World Comrades, 102; Window, 70.

Roanoke has 69 churches with 140 societies; 98 reporting some form of personal service; 95 mission study classes with 384 tithers, many observing seasons of prayer and special offerings; a great gain in periodicals; 92 societies making as many as 4 points on the Standard. Mrs. R. C. Josey, of Scotland Neck, is following Mrs. E. B. Beasley, who for years has served the Roanoke. The Association is looking forward to a great year's work under the leadership of Mrs. Josey. The Divisional Stewardship Contest was held in Rocky Mount First, March 4, with 5 contesting for the State honors.

Our aim for the year is that each society will not only seek to win every woman and child for missions but have a definite program—the support of a missionary, a teacher, or Bible woman, which gives a personal touch and inspires stewardship. We also urge that every society put on the Stewardship Contest. The Divisional Meeting will be held at Colerain, April 18th.

We award 2 banners, one to the county having the greatest number reaching their financial goal, the other to the county with the greatest number of A-1 societies, the Roanoke carrying off both banners this last year. Total offering $25,819.33.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. H. M. FINCH,
Division Superintendent.

Greensboro Division—Mrs. J. M. Whitted, Durham.

REPORT OF GREENSBORO DIVISION

To our Father we give praise and thanksgiving for all that we have done, and ask forgiveness for those things we failed to do for Him.

The annual meeting of the Greensboro Division was held in Oxford at the First Church, May 4, 1933. Dr. R. R. McCulloch, Oxford, brought us a wonderful message in the devotional. The attendance was good and the reports of the Superintendents were interesting.

We are indebted to Mrs. J. S. Farmer, Mrs. Edna R. Harris, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. H. T. Stevens, Mrs. D. W. Her-ring, and Mrs. Taul B. White, whose messages were full of inspiration and helpfulness.

The Minnie Marshall Buck Memorial Banner was presented to the Central Association and accepted by Mrs. John O. Gough, Superintendent, for the greatest improvement in mission study.

It is with deep regret that we did not reach our financial apportionment. Progress was made along other lines that encourage us to press forward to higher achievements.

Beulah Association, Mrs. R. L. Wilburn, Superintendent, reports 20 churches, with 18 W. M. S. and 35 young people's organizations; total membership, 1,019.

Central Association, Mrs. John O. Gough, Superintendent, has 34 churches, with 19 W. M. S., and 35 young people's organizations; total membership, 599.

Flat River Association, Mrs. Sterling Carrington, new Superintendent, reports 32 churches with 21 W. M. S. and 34 young people's organizations; total membership, 447.

Mt. Zion Association, Mrs. J. P. Jones, new Superintendent, reports 53 churches with 38 W. M. S. and 78 young people's organizations; total membership, 2,221.

Piedmont Association, Mrs. Nettie Hoge, Superintendent, reports 46 churches with 32 W. M. S. and 82 young people's organizations; total membership, 2,035.

Raleigh Association, Mrs. John D. Berry, Superintendent, reports 34 churches with 18 W. M. S. and 53 young people's organizations; total membership, 1,663.

Sandy Creek Association, Mrs. C. L. Brower, Superintendent, reports 60 churches with 26 W. M. S. and 40 young people's organizations; total membership, 1,577.

Tar River Association, Miss Lillie Harper, Superintendent, reports 63 churches with 37 W. M. S. and 42 young people's organizations; total membership, 1,033.

Subscriptions to missionary literature, 2,728; number of societies observing weeks of prayer, 556; tithers, 1,072.

New societies organized, 99; W. M. S., 8; young people, 91—Beulah, 16; Central, 8; Flat River, 5; Mt. Zion, 15; Piedmont, 12; Raleigh, 15; Sandy Creek, 14; Tar River, 12. This is the largest number of new organizations that I have a record of in our Division. We hope the W. M. S. will feel the responsibility of training and fostering these new organizations.

The number of churches with no societies is gradually decreasing; there are 115 yet to enlist.

Mrs. D. E. Kearns, Mission Study Leader, reports the number of classes held, 279; members in classes, 2,314; members in societies, 2,159; Record Cards No. 1, 119; Record Cards, No. 2, 30; seals, 1,705; certificates, 392; reading stamps, 676; reading cards, 488.

The Young People's Stewardship Declamation Contest was held in Edgemont Church, Durham, February 24, Mrs. H. D. Upchurch, Young People's Leader, presiding. Winners were the following: Sunbeams, Mary Helen Moore, Tabernacle Church, Raleigh Association; Junior G. A., Dorothy Smith Ferrell, Pittsboro, Sandy Creek Association; Intermediate G. A., Mabel Koontz, Green Street Church, High Point, Piedmont Association; Junior R. A., Jack Stout, Green Street Church, High Point, Piedmont Association; Intermediate R. A., Joe Wilson, Green Street, High Point, Piedmont Association; Y. W. A., Miss Dorothy Kimball, Rock Springs Church, Townsville, Flat River Association.

The next Divisional Stewardship Contest will be held in Watts Street Church, Durham, August 22, 1934.

It was my privilege to attend the eight Associations and hear their reports. Good attendance and interest manifested in our W. M. U. work.

This report was made by the faithful, loyal efforts of our Superintendents who traveled 1,991 miles, wrote 2,510 letters and postals during the year's work. The number of fervent prayers in this labor of love for Christ's Kingdom cannot be numbered. May I say to them: "Be strong and of good courage, for Jehovah thy God is with thee." Go forward!

The Greensboro Division will hold its annual meeting with Temple Baptist Church, Durham, Wednesday, May 2, 1934.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. M. WHITTED,

Division Superintendent.

Charlotte Division—Mrs. Beeler Moore, Gastonia, Superintendent, read by Mrs. Edna R. Harris.

REPORT OF CHARLOTTE DIVISION

It is with sincere regret that I cannot stand before the women of our W. M. U. and gain the inspiration that comes to me as I look into the faces of those who love the Lord and are interested in the work of the Kingdom. It would be a joy for me to tell you a little of the work that the women of the Charlotte Division are doing.

The Divisional meeting was held with the First Church of Salisbury, June 14, 1933, with sixteen Associations represented. The church was full all day and the meeting was one of the most helpful and inspiring it has ever been my privilege to attend. Speakers and hearers alike seemed deeply interested and more concerned about the lost world.

The plan of work for the coming year included the support of Miss Earl Hester, of Rumania, as a Hurley Memorial, this to be done in addition to our regular plan of work. We hope this is just the beginning. We trust and believe we will be able to support Miss Hester and some day have others to help her whom we can consider our very own missionaries.

As a memorial to Mrs. Lila L. Henry, our former Division Superintendent, we are paying special attention to Wingate Junior College which was so near and dear to her heart.

The next annual meeting of the Charlotte Division will be in June at Wingate College, and we are expecting one hundred per cent attendance.

It is impossible to tell of the outstanding work of each of the twenty-one Associations of this Division. Several have had Mrs. Carter Wright in addition to our own State workers, and have reported most excellent meetings.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. H. B. MOORE,
Division Superintendent.

Reports adopted.

A memorial period for our departed members was observed, the names of those who were taken from us in 1933 being read by Mrs. Edna R. Harris. The hymn, "In the Sweet Bye and Bye," was sung, Mrs. T. R. Walters, Rocky Mount, singing the verse, the audience joining in the chorus.

The Recommendations of the Executive Committee were read by Mrs. Edna R. Harris, and after some consideration were adopted.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION FOR THE

Watchword: Be strong and of good courage . . . for Jehovah thy God is with thee. Joshua 1:9.

Hymn: All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name.

1. Moral Standards.

We declare ourselves on the side of all the forces of righteousness, international and inter-racial justice; world peace; patriotism; temperance; Christian Americanization; Sabbath observance; sacredness of the home; the family altar; child welfare; and improved industrial conditions.

2. Aims.

- (1) Prayer—individual and united
- (2) Enlistment—membership and activity
- (3) Study—missionary message of the Bible, world missions
- (4) Personal Service—directed and individual
- (5) Stewardship—time, life
- (6) Missionary Education of young people.

3. Seasons of Prayer and Offerings.

That we encourage special offerings as a means of spiritual growth. To this end we faithfully continue the custom of Woman's Missionary Union through the years of its history encouraging gifts in connection with our three seasons of prayer—the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for Foreign Missions; the Home Mission Thank Offering and the Special State Mission Offering. These seasons of prayer with their offering to be observed in 1934 on these dates—Home Mission Week of Prayer and Offering, March 5-9; State Mission Day of Prayer and Offering, September 10; Lottie Moon Week of Prayer and Christmas Offering, December 3-7.

That we co-operate heartily in the Every-Member Canvass of the church and endeavor to secure gifts for both local expenses and missions and benevolences from every member of our societies, every precaution being taken against any budget system which would preclude or discourage the special offerings of the Woman's Missionary Union Weeks of Prayer which offerings have been officially approved by the Southern Baptist Convention, or offerings for any other definite object fostered by Woman's Missionary Union.

4. Woman's Missionary Union Training School and Margaret Fund. W. M. U. Training School.

Since the W. M. Union is entirely responsible for the founding and maintenance of this school, we ask our societies to encourage our young women, especially college graduates to take the courses provided in this school.

In addition to the scholarship given by Mrs. Joel Layton, in memory of her father, Mr. Louis Castlebury, we will maintain five scholarships. If an Association or an individual wishes to provide one of these scholarships, they may do so; otherwise, all gifts to the Training School will be used as follows:

	$1,000.00 for five scholarships
	1,200.00 for current expenses
Louis Castlebury Scholarship..	200.00
	$2,400.00

This offering to be taken by each society during the summer months.

Margaret Fund.

The Margaret Fund gifts from the State raised through W. M. U. channels are used for scholarships of the sons and daughters of our missionaries. We ask each missionary society to make a gift to this fund, preferably during the quarter, July, August, September; the objective to be $1,200.00.

5. Literature.

Because of the necessity of informing our constituency as to the progress of Kingdom work, we urge that the members of our societies subscribe to the following periodicals: Our State paper—The Biblical Recorder; Our Mission Magazine, Royal Service, containing our monthly programs; Home and Foreign Fields, giving information from all of our mission fields; The Window for all Y. W. Auxiliaries; World Comrades for our young people. We recommend that a canvass of the societies be made each year in January to secure subscriptions to all of these periodicals.

6. That we co-operate in the observance of Mother's Day in May for our Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem, and in the Thanksgiving Offering for our Orphanages in November.

7. That the Heck Memorial Offering on June 16th be given this year to the following objects:

To the Home for single women missionaries in
Wuchow, China	$ 500.00
To repairs and equipment for the Hospital at
Yang Chow, China	1,000.00
To traveling expenses and salary for Helen
Dozier to Japan	1,500.00
	$3,000.00

Any additional amount to be appropriated by the Executive Committee.

8. That each society send in the first five months of the year a contribution for the State Expense Fund of the Executive Committee, the total amount to be not less than $2,000.00.

That we take as our financial aim for the year a ten per cent increase over our gifts to missions and all W. M. U. objects the past year; the total gift for the State to be $180,000.00; all societies that reached their apportionment in 1933, to take a 5 % increase in gifts.

The Report of the Resolutions Committee was read by Mrs. John R. Crawford, Goldsboro. Adopted.

RESOLUTIONS

It is altogether fitting at this time for the North Carolina Woman's Missionary Union, assembled in its forty-fourth Convention, to express our sincere gratitude for the gracious hospitality shown us during our stay in Rocky Mount.

In every phase of our work, our records bear testimony that we have surely raised our eyes to the horizon, and that we are now determined to throw our strength against the forces of evil. Never have we seen a more beautiful spirit of co-operation than has existed between our hostess churches. They have exemplified such a sacrificial spirit in entertaining this great body of North Carolina womanhood, even to rising and leaving the auditorium that their guests might have their seats.

To Miss Alva Lawrence and the young people who have added so much to our program, we desire to express our thanks, and pledge to them the support of the W. M. S.

Our hearts were stirred by the messages brought to us by our consecrated visitors, Mrs. Carter Wright, Miss Inabelle Coleman, Mrs. C. A. Leonard and Miss Blanche White; also the Scotland Neck Choir. To these we would say, May God continue to use and reward you.

Inspired and directed by Mr. M. A. Huggins, how can we fail to put our best efforts into our work.

From the depths of our hearts, we would express our prayerful thanks to the First Church, to Calvary, Arlington Street, North Rocky Mount, and to all other denominations; and to Dr. J. W. Kincheloe, Mrs. W. D. Joyner, Mrs. J. R. Chambliss, Mrs. J. P. Warren, Mrs. C. A. G. Thomas, Mrs. Roscoe Griffin, and their faithful committees; to the Belk-Tyler Co., and Baptist Book Shop for note books, and to all those who sent the lovely memorial flowers.

To the various other committees and to each one of the ladies who have labored so tirelessly during these days, to the ushers, we say—Thank you. No one could have been more thoughtful in planning for our comfort and entertainment. The spirit of co-operation even extended to the Mayor and Superintendent of City Schools, who graciously gave us the use of the High School Auditorium; to these we would say that we are grateful indeed. From the first hymn to the last prayer there existed a beautiful spirit. Each one who has attended has been drawn nearer to her heart's desire, and strengthened for the days which are ahead.

Therefore, be it resolved:

That we, your Committee, publish these our expressions of love and gratitude for the blessings which have been ours, and pledge our interest and continued efforts to help bring His Kingdom in.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

"Be of Good Cheer!"

How many times this was repeated in the life and sayings of Jesus! Even when His heart was rent with anguish He urged His disciples to "be of good cheer"; and further He said "and your heart shall rejoice" and "your joy no man shall take from you."

Not in anguish do I come to say "be of good cheer," for joy is in my heart as I bring this report.

If we could have kept the 2,780 societies on our roll a year ago, and added the 457 new organizations, we would have cause for greater joy, but three hundred ninety-three received all the literature and letters sent out and failed to send back even one report, and as we carry only active organizations on our list, we began 1935 with 2,869 organizations. The largest number, one hundred twelve, of new organizations was in W. M. S.; the smallest, eighty-one, in Sunbeam Bands. We failed to follow the slogan, "Foster more in '34," and allowed many organizations for young people to die. Let us be glad, though, that we have a chance "To keep alive in '35" all of the eighteen hundred nineteen young people's organizations.

Of all the joys we can bring into our own lives, there is none so joyous as that which comes to us as the result of caring for others. Five hundred sixteen Woman's Missionary Societies that do not foster a Sunbeam Band have a chance to bring new joy, new enthusiasm, a real awakening, by having a care for the children in their midst. "The world is waiting for you" was the sentence upon which Catherine Booth brought up her children as she urged them day by day to become fit for the tasks awaiting them out yonder in the great world. Surely mothers who are members of the missionary society, getting a vision of a world without Christ waiting for their children, cannot be satisfied unless they are lending every help and encouragement to have for their boys and girls those organizations that give definite missionary education.

No man can take the joy from 1,072 organizations that observed the season of prayer with an offering for State Missions, thus helping to lift higher the banner of the Cross in North Carolina.

The 1,052 that observed the season of prayer for Home Missions have had their joy every day of the year, that, by their part in the "Annie W. Armstrong special offering to Home Missions" at that season, they share in the joys and achievements of all our home missionaries, because by that offering all current work of the Home Mission Board is kept going.

"Be of good cheer for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem so thou must bear witness also at Rome," was the assurance given to Paul, and the 1,176 organizations that felt the call to witness in the homeland by special seasons of prayer and offering, also desired to witness afar and, in the observance of the week of prayer for foreign missions with a great Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, share with thousands of other organizations in the South in the joy of providing salaries, equipment of schools and hospitals on every foreign field where Southern Baptists have work.

"Joy is not gained by asking for it, but only by acting for it," and we long for the time when every organization may share in the joy of Kingdom building at home and the world around by its gifts. For ten years we have had an offering as a memorial to Miss Heck each June, and the sum of $3,831.57 in 1934 bears silent but constant witness to the abiding love of North Carolina women and young people for Miss Heck, and the joy they get in honoring her Saviour "no man can take away."

"Be of good cheer," 386 organizations reached grade A-1; 291, B; 281, C; 233, D. Our Standard of Excellence report is never complete because we cannot get the Standard blanks returned to us, and that is our only chance to know. Chowan Association returned 67 per cent of Standard of Excellence reports, which was the highest per cent. Pilot Mountain and West Chowan sent back 57 per cent, the second highest.

A great joy it is to have fifteen full graded A-1 Unions: Enfield, Watts Street, Durham; Creekville; Edenton; Clayton; Lincolnton, First; Morehead City; New Friendship, Liberty Association; Madison; Waughtown, Winston-Salem; Burlington, First; Harris Chapel, Tar River Association; French Broad, Asheville; Elizabeth City, First; Shiloh, Chowan Association.

Charlotte Division, with its twenty-one associations, has the perennial joy of leading the Divisions in its gifts; Greensboro, with its eight associations, second. Likewise, the joy of leading the associations continues to be Piedmont; Pilot Mountain, second; Mount Zion, third. Churches having full graded Unions which led in gifts were First Church, Greensboro; Raleigh, First, second; Winston-Salem, First, third.

Reports of Superintendents show King's Mountain, West Chowan, Beulah, and Tar River made all ten points on the Association Standard. This is cause for gladness as we advanced from one in 1933 to four in '34. One new association, the Randolph, was organized, and we welcome Mrs. H. T. Stevens as Superintendent of Randolph W. M. U.

The cheering report comes from Birmingham that North Carolina reached its quota for Royal Service. That 7,965 of our women subscribe for Royal Service is cause for joy, but we hope that at least a thousand new subscriptions may be gotten in 1935. That 875 subscribe to The Window of Y. W. A., and 1,549 to World Comrades is good cheer; yet if we would be a well-informed people more of our women must read our own Baptist paper—The Biblical Recorder. Five thousand subscribers in our 52,000 membership would be a worthy goal to attain this year, and to keep apace with Baptist news and undertakings gives a joy, a satisfaction, and a vision that far outweighs the cost.

The year's report would be incomplete without mention of the splendid service Mrs. Chas. A. Leonard, of Manchuria, has rendered to North Carolina while on her furlough. Going often beyond her strength, and taking time from much-needed rest, she has led many study classes, gone to individual societies, associations, and divisions, and we pray for her, "'Be of good cheer,' as you have borne witness in North Carolina, so many you be kept for witness in far-away Manchuria." We were fortunate to have in the State during the year Miss Pearle Bourne, Mr. Jacob Gartenhaus, Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Leonard, and Miss Lila Watson. Miss Minnie Haire, Mrs. Eugene Coker, Mrs. J. R. Morgan, Mrs. Fred Harrell, and Mrs. R. K. Redwine graciously helped us by attending associational W. M. U. meetings when it was not possible for one from W. M. U. Headquarters to go, as we had no Young People's Secretary after April 1, when Miss Lawrence gave up her work.

Miss Willie Kelley, in her report of the activities of Old North Gate Church, Shanghai, expressed my feelings about our work: "Now we come to the close of the year 1934. If there has been progress, and we feel there has been, we can only say, 'This is the Lord's doing and it is marvelous in our eyes.' 'The old year is like a book, tear-stained pages, sunshine and shade all 'twixt the covers gently laid. No uncut leaves, no pages unstained. We close it and lay it in God's hand.'"

Field Work

Reports of Divisional Superintendents—Asheville Division, Mrs. J. R. Morgan, Waynesville.

REPORT OF ASHEVILLE DIVISION

A few more meetings held, a few more members added, a few more apportionments met, a few more reports made, a few more subscriptions sent, a few more seasons of prayer observed, a few more mission study classes held, a few more kind deeds done, a few more enlisted into active membership, a few more auxiliaries and societies organized and fostered, and we come to look upon 1934 W. M. U. work as history. We are not tired of the routine. No, it grows more interesting with repetition.

Not having undertaken "great things for God, we did not expect great enough things from Him"; but having found us "faithful over a few things," He hath rewarded us openly. The knowledge that God is what He is, makes it possible for us to reach forth our hands and claim greater things for this year. We cannot pray for others to attain a spiritual ideal to which we, ourselves, are not striving, nor for others to be deep Bible students, nor shining lights for the enlightening of their lands, unless we, ourselves, are striving earnestly for these higher attainments. So we confess our need for a deeper standard of Christian living among our own selves that we may hold farther aloft our lamps of missionary endeavor.

"Behold ye, how these crystal streams do glide,
To comfort pilgrims by the highway side;
The meadows green, beside them fragrant smell,
Yield dainties for them; and he that can tell
What pleasant fruit, yea, leaves these trees do yield."

God, through nature, has done everything for us here in the glorious mountains—"The Land of the Sky." Man is coming to see these gifts. C. C. Camps, prison camps, summer schools, encampments for young people, and various developments bring more people to our doors of opportunity and responsibility.

Our obstacles were much the same, our problems certainly no greater, and some of our superintendents have said some of the problems of the past seem vanishing as they, like Emerson, "turned their backs on failure by thinking success." More of us are keeping our fountains of youth bubbling with optimism as we pray for pastors to attain world vision through study of world conditions, and for Christian women to take time to learn of women more subservient and poorer than they themselves; and that to serve is a privilege, to deny oneself is to grow in heart and soul quality and the power of character. Our obstacles have, in a measure, developed the elements of success, calling into action the courage that moved us on to the goal of worthy ends. Each victory gave added strength. Our responsibilities brought greater opportunities for service to us.

Success produces confidence. So, as from year to year we have attained our points of standard, we have grown in confidence in God's ability linked with our faithfulness to reach higher aims. True to history, we had to labor to reach the ends we reached. They did not come to us. We who forgot ourselves in favor of our work, got there without knowing it. May it become our habit. We have such a splendid plan, that when it becomes wrapped up in a splendid woman who is willing to let God guide, it succeeds.

"What can man do more than make the most of himself and his circumstances?" God knows both. This is success according to Scripture. If we leaders can look within and bring forth all that God hath implanted of mind, will, purpose and genius; if I can gather up all that belongs to my condition, environment and surroundings, and use them, an angel could do no more. "She hath done what she could"—the highest compliment ever conferred upon an individual.

Perseverance being the only cornerstone on which great achievements rest, and since the great highway of perseverance leads only to success, we know our women persevered. It helped us surmount our obstacles, even those which once seemed insurmountable. We learned that the world's work requires men of action. In work is life, in rest is death. They who procrastinate are lost. "A falling drop at last will cleave a stone."

Exemplifying these virtues, Mrs. Coker, the Divisional Y. P. L.; Mrs. Bray, Mission Study chairman; and Mrs. Brooks, Personal Service chairman, gave themselves to their tasks unreservedly. The Young People's Leader, through the associational young peoples' leaders, and stewardship chairmen, assumed full responsibility for the Stewardship Contest. This was a success and is a great loss to those associations whose leaders did not coöperate. The cause loses heavily, the young people lose more. The renewed interest this year to date is gratifying to Mrs. Coker.

Figures disclose that those churches which sponsor W. M. U. give a very large per cent of what is given to missions in our associations. In one association having thirty churches only four of which had any form of W. M. U. work, figures show 92 per cent of the gifts to benevolent causes came from the four churches having W. M. U. organizations.

Quarterly meetings and association-wide Mission Study classes have been helpful. We commend those superintendents who have had a vision of developing workers by making each group leader and chairman responsible for her field of service. She will be needed for higher places of responsibility.

Some of us, even yet, have not a vision of information gained and imparted—such information as the Year Book, State Minutes, and Biblical Recorder contain in great fountains. Some have not had the great pleasure, derived by most societies, from sending linen to our Baptist Hospital at Winston-Salem, supplies to our Louisville Training School, "home boxes" to our Margaret Fund pupil at Mars Hill College, and showers to Baptist orphanages. One circle supports a Bible woman in China and helps the church support a missionary, besides regular and special offerings. One association has taken on the support of a native preacher in Manchuria. Some associations made all points on the standard, others perhaps half or even less. Only a few of us still see a part of these as insurmountable.

Not all of us yet get the full benefit of the great feast offered at Ridgecrest—so near us—yet so far from us for reasons and at times. We commend it to every Baptist.

Our Annual Meeting, held with the Mars Hill Church, was one of our best. Mrs. Lockett brought to the meeting a message of great merit from Africa.

The associational meetings were above the average. The superintendents for the most part have been prompt and faithful in reports and letters—any and everything they thought would help.

The Divisional Superintendent is guilty of many failures, but trusts to be blessed with ability and spirituality for more inspiration and help to the cause this year. May we have the prayers of all the workers.

"Nothing is ever done beautifully that is done in rivalry; or nobly that is done in pride."

"Give us, O, give us, the man who sings at his work. He will do more in the same time, he will persevere longer."

One man's desire may kindle another man's ambition. Simon Peter was not a conservative. He was always striving, always achieving. One man lays the cornerstone, another finishes the building. David hewed the stone for the corner, but it was left to Solomon to build the Temple.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE CHARLOTTE DIVISION

Another year has passed into history, and we come with glad hearts to render our report of the work done in the Charlotte Division.

Our annual meeting last year was held in the new auditorium of Wingate College in June. An interesting program had been prepared by the Superintendent, Mrs. H. B. Moore, of Gastonia. It was a joyous occasion to be in the atmosphere of that great Christian college for the day's sessions, and at night for the special program given to us by the college young people.

Mrs. Charles Leonard was our visiting missionary speaker; she brought an inspiring message, telling of the needs and conditions in Manchuria, where she and her husband are laboring alone, holding up the Banner of the Cross. We were delighted to have with us, also, Mrs. Edna R. Harris, Miss Pearle Bourne, and Mrs. W. C. Barrett.

Miss Rachel Leonard, our Margaret Fund student at Meredith College, was present, and spoke briefly, winning the hearts of our women who have shown their love for her in so many ways during the year. She says, "You have showered me with gifts, it is truly wonderful to be the adopted daughter of the Charlotte Division."

The "Book Shower" given to Wingate was a great success, a large number of good books were donated, helping to replace those destroyed when the Library was burned.

It was decided at the meeting in Salisbury to establish a memorial at Wingate College to Mrs. Lila L. Henry, who served so faithfully for a number of years as the beloved Superintendent of Charlotte Division. We hope this memorial will be completed at an early date.

Two years ago our women voted to undertake to pay the salary of Miss Earl Hester, of Roumania, and while we have not been able to pay her salary in full, we rejoice to help make it possible for her to remain on that important mission field in Europe.

In reporting the special work being done by the Associations, we find the King's Mountain has won first place, having reached the goal for which all are striving, the full Standard of Excellence, with contributions running over $1,200 more than their apportionment. They have made it possible for a missionary to return to the field and they give a scholarship to the school at Boiling Springs.

The Union Association almost doubled its contributions, and at their associational meeting they gave time for a Mission Study Institute. Dr. Wayland, the pastor of the church at Monroe, taught the new Mission Study book, "At the Gate of Asia," to the delight of all present. It was decided to pass the books and helps on to other churches in the association.

The Stanly Association is being divided into districts for Enlistment and more efficient work, meetings to be held quarterly.

The Surry, Yadkin, Gaston, and South Fork Associations are going forward in enlistment of their young people, in Mission Study, and gifts. Rowan Association is a close second to the King's Mountain, making 9 points on the Standard of Excellence.

The Liberty is rejoicing over the increase in the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, New Friendship having reached the full Standard of Excellence for the Graded Union and one School of Missions. Pee Dee is happy to report that one of the R. A. boys won out with special honor in the State Stewardship Declamation Contest.

We congratulate the Brushy Mountain Association upon having a church with the full graded W. M. U. May many more find it is possible in the mountains and in the country to have these organizations.

The Y. W. A.'s at Lincolnton and Charlotte First Church enjoyed 10 days at the Y. W. A. Conference at Ridgecrest, and the G. A.'s and Y. W. A.'s in nearby associations attended the camp at Wingate College. The W. M. S. of Charlotte First Church deserves special mention for well-organized Personal Service, and fostering a weak society in another church.

The Pilot Mountain reports 6 schools of missions. One of the most promising features for the future is the Field Work being done under the direction of the Superintendents. The plan inaugurates a movement, not only to furnish books, maps and posters, but secure teachers where needed, and specialize in going to churches where they have had no Mission Study. It has been an Open Door for Enlistment, also a key to indifferent hearts that now burn with new zeal and enthusiasm for the things of the Kingdom. The Y. W. A.'s have helped with the salary of Miss Susan Anderson, missionary to Africa.

Miss Lazenby and the churches of the South Yadkin have contributed $515.16 to the traveling expenses of a missionary family returning to their work in China.

The women of Brown Memorial Church are happy, having reached, with the help of the brotherhood, their goal of $800 for the Lottie Moon Offering, the salary of their missionary evangelist, Rex Ray, of China.

We wish to express our gratitude and appreciation to the superintendents and women who have reported their work, making possible this report today. We could not carry on or go forward without their faithful work, their loyalty and coöperation. We are truly "Laborers together with God."

As I have been thinking of our work and trying to take up new duties as Superintendent of our Division, the Master's Missionary Program comes to me with a new meaning, "Ye shall be my witnesses." Witnessing for Christ in our own State (beginning at home and going to the ends of the earth carrying this out), and in my vision there are some things that challenge us in this new day of opportunity. First: The Challenge of the Past. What has been accomplished in laying the foundation of our work cannot be estimated. How untiringly Mrs. Henry and the women have wrought through the years! Will we who take up the work today "catch their torch" and hold it high, as we try to "carry on" what they have so well begun?

Then, second, the Challenge of a great task. Twenty-one associations, largely in the Piedmont section of our State, a great territory with cities, towns, villages, and rural communities, where hundreds have not been won to Jesus Christ, or enlisted in our missionary work. "Shall we go up and possess the land?"

And, third, the Challenge of the future. Of the number of Associations that have reported their work, not one has sounded a note of discouragement. Each has shown courage, faith, and optimism for their work, and is hoping for larger things in the new year. The future is as bright as the promises of God. "In His name we will set up our Banners." "Lengthen thy cords and strengthen thy stakes."

Our watchword shall be: "Go forward in His name," claiming the promise, "Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. B. K. MASON,
Division Superintendent.

Elizabeth City Division, Mrs. E. B. Beasley, Fountain.

REPORT OF ELIZABETH CITY DIVISION

It has been a pleasure, a privilege and a wonderful experience to work with so fine a body of women as those that comprise the Elizabeth City Division. I attribute entirely to the loyal support of these women, who are upstanding with a clearly defined purpose courageously upheld and followed, the fruits of their endeavor during my ten months in office.

We have six Associations in this Division, each directed by a woman full of vision and courage and faith in themselves that they would succeed. It is due to the noble achievements of these, and to the loyalty, sympathetic, understanding prayers and encouragement of their followers, who selflessly wrought, that we have written an inerasable record, a record that shows progress along all lines.

The work of the Atlantic Association has gone steadily forward under the direction of its capable leader, Mrs. J. F. Hodges, of New Bern. Fifteen new societies were organized during the year and their aim for 1935 is to have a W. M. S. and at least one Auxiliary in every one of their 32 churches.

Mrs. L. W. Meachum, of Shiloh, Superintendent, of the Chowan, reports a splendid year. This Association, under Mrs. Meachum's enthusiastic leadership, leads the State in number of Standard societies having 67 per cent of all her organizations send in a Standard report, or a total of 97. Forty-one of these, very nearly one-half, were A-1. Great interest was shown in the tithing contest, having four out of the six county units entering contestants. The annual camp was held with 75 enrolled in the W. M. U. classes and the young people enthusiastic about the work.

The Neuse Association, with Mrs. Fred Harrell of Goldsboro at its helm, has been growing along all lines. Much interest was shown in personal service, as each of their 24 organizations reported as doing some form of organized work. This Association supports a Bible woman in China in addition to the usual amount of work.

Our youngest Association, the Pamlico, Mrs. W. F. Woodall, of Belhaven, Superintendent, has been accomplishing a great deal despite its youth. Many difficulties have been confronted, but in spite of these the Association has made progress and is succeeding in laying a foundation for the work on which a splendid future can be built.

Mrs. R. C. Josey, Jr., of Scotland Neck, the faithful leader of the Roanoke, reports a good year. One of her aims for the year is to interest the women and young people in the 100,000 Club. Nine Woman's Missionary Societies are members of this club and 29 individuals report as members. She hopes to further the interest of the women along this line in 1935. An electric waffle iron was presented by the Association to Mrs. Chas. A. Leonard.

The good work in the West Chowan still continues, with Mrs. R. M. Maddrey, of Seaboard, as leader. They have no trouble in the support of their very own missionary, Miss Pearle Johnson. Also, they provide a scholarship to one of the Chowan College girls. These are aside from their usual activities.

All Associations note especial interest in mission study, personal service, and the training of young people. Mission study, which gives a broader vision of the needs of His Kingdom. Personal service—each kind act done, each thought given for good, every bit of help given another, no matter how small it may seem, every unselfish notice—all these put us in better condition and make us more receptive to the very best, to appreciate that best, and to keep it. All of us have been uplifted in the splendid promise which lies in our young people. They are our Christian citizens of tomorrow and as we deal with them so do we deal with the future of God's kingdom. Our Division recognizes the well-defined mission of counsellors and guides to our youth. The eternal bridge between the older and younger generations must be spanned by patience, tolerance, and understanding on both sides. Youth looks to us for guidance. May they never find us failing.

Four Associations, the Chowan, Atlantic, Roanoke, and West Chowan, took part in the Stewardship Declamation Contest. In the divisional elimination the winners were: Y. W. A., Miss Beatrice Martin, West Chowan; Intermediate R. A., J. Clyde Stephenson, Jr., West Chowan; Intermediate G. A., Elma Cartwright, of the Chowan; Junior R. A., Wilson Holloman, of the Chowan; and Junior G. A., Eudora Helms, of the Roanoke. We hope we shall have all six Associations entering the contest this year.

The Division, under the guidance of Mrs. Leslie Newman, Margaret Fund student chairman, provided useful gifts and cheer for its student, Miss Elsie Baker, of Mars Hill College, at Christmas time.

Our gifts totaled $27,926.99. We want to add that the Atlantic, West Chowan, and Roanoke gave the 10 per cent increase over the previous year's gifts, thus meeting their financial aims and apportionments.

Our Divisional meeting was held in Colerain on April 18, 1934. We had a splendid meeting with inspirational reports from all the Associational Superintendents. Mr. M. A. Huggins and our beloved Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Edna R. Harris, addressed us. It was at this meeting that the Division accepted the resignation of Mrs. H. M. Finch as Superintendent; because of her health she felt it necessary. Mrs. Finch had led the Division for six years, greatly endearing herself to our women. While she felt that she could no longer assume this responsibility, her ideals, vision, and consecrated inspiration infused in us during her period of leadership will live on in the years.

We go forward in faith in our God—faith that can perform miracles even as it can move mountains. To God we owe everything. Without Him we are nothing. May each individual in our great Division realize that she is of great importance in her community. Not all can be leaders, not all designated for distinction, but each by being faithful to the responsibilities and duties of each day can take just pride in work well done, and this work, no matter how insignificant it may seem, when done in His name, is of priceless value to the on-going of His Kingdom.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. E. B. BEASLEY,
Division Superintendent.

Greensboro Division, Mrs. J. M. Whitted, Durham.

REPORT OF GREENSBORO DIVISION

The annual meeting of Greensboro Division was held in Temple Baptist Church, Durham, May 2, 1934.

Dr. Trela D. Collins, pastor of Temple Church, led our devotional. The attendance was excellent and reports of the Superintendents interesting.

The Minnie Marshall Buck Memorial Banner was won by the Piedmont Association, for having the largest number of seals. It was accepted by Mrs. Nettie Hoge, Superintendent of the Association.

We are indebted to Mrs. C. A. Leonard, missionary from Manchuria, who made a most inspiring missionary address on "Exalting Christ Among the Nations"; also to our dearly beloved president, Mrs. W. N. Jones, who spoke on "A World Vision." It was a soul-stirring message. Mrs. Edna R. Harris, our faithful Corresponding Secretary; Dr. and Mrs. H. T. Stevens, each contributed to the success of the meeting. The ladies of the church entertained us royally.

The outstanding feature of our work was that each Association, Beulah, Mrs. R. L. Wilburn, Superintendent; Central, Mrs. John O. Gough, Superintendent; Flat River, Mrs. Sterling Carrington, Superintendent; Mount Zion, Mrs. Ira D. S. Knight, Superintendent; Piedmont, Mrs. Nettie Hoge, Superintendent; Raleigh, Mrs. G. N. Cowan, Superintendent; Sandy Creek, Mrs. T. H. Grimes, Superintendent; and Tar River, Miss Lillie Harper, Superintendent, had met their apportionment, a 10 per cent increase over what they gave last year. Some Associations went beyond the 10 per cent increase. It gives me great pleasure to report this effort of our faithful and loyal Superintendents and their coworkers. A splendid record.

Beulah and Tar River Associations made ten points each on the Standard of Excellence. Tar River Association reported one A-1

W. M. U., Harris Chapel; and Mount Zion one A-1 W. M. U., Watts Street Church, Durham. I am glad to report these, but we should have many more.

The number of Bible women supported on foreign fields reported by Superintendents, nine; Tar River Association, Warrenton W. M. S., one; First Church, Henderson, two; Mount Zion Association: Ephesus, Chapel Hill, Grace, Yates, First Church, Burlington, and Watts Street, Durham.

Mrs. Sterling Carrington, Flat River Association Superintendent, reports a gift of a new typewriter to Dr. C. A. Leonard, missionary, for his assistance in their group meetings.

The group leaders are rendering valuable service in their territory and a great help to the Superintendents. New societies organized, W. M. S., 17; young people, 65; total, 82. It is encouraging to know that our young people are being enlisted. There is yet much to be done. "The world moves forward on the feet of little children."

The Divisional Stewardship Contest was held in Watts Street Church, Durham, August 22, 1934, from 10:30 to 3:00 p.m. It was the best we have had, both in attendance and interest. Mrs. H. D. Upchurch, young people's leader, presided, and had a good program. The W. M. S. of Watts Street Church furnished lunch.

The winners in the contest are as follows: Junior G. A.—Alma Ruth Dixon, Siler City; Junior R. A.—James Mattox, Wendell; Y. W. A.—Margaret Barnes, Asheboro Street Church, Greensboro; Intermediate G. A.—Mary Elizabeth Taylor, Oxford; Intermediate R. A.—Jack Stout, High Point. Those who won the rank of Queen and Ambassador are Elizabeth Kelly, Tabernacle Church, Raleigh, and Sydney Ray Williams, Tar River Association.

The number of mission study classes in the Division: Women and young people, 480; members observing weeks of prayer for Home, State, and Foreign Missions, 471; tithers, 460. Subscriptions to literature: Home and Foreign Fields, 171; The Window of Y. W. A., 80; Royal Service, 1,959; World Comrades, 216; Biblical Recorder, 1,253.

Our Superintendents wrote 1,699 letters and postals, traveled 3,792 miles, but records of fervent, earnest prayers or sacrifices made have not been reported. To them and their loyal coworkers are due the credit for this report. To our Father be all the glory and honor.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. M. WHITTED,
Division Superintendent.

Wilmington Division, Miss Macy Cox, Magnolia.

REPORT OF WILMINGTON DIVISION

God be praised for His blessings on our Wilmington Division, and for permitting us to have a part in the world program of evangelization. We have a host of consecrated women "workers together with God." Our Associational Superintendents and Young People's Leaders are striving to give of their best to the Master and are untiring in their efforts.

Through prayer and mission study we have caught a vision which has led to renewed interest in the work at home and fields afar. Larger activities in personal service are another note of encouragement. Our Divisional meeting was held April 12 in the Baptist church in Elizabethtown with large attendance, greatest interest, and spiritual uplift of any previous meeting. Every Association was represented and the reports of every Superintendent sounded a note of joyful optimism which has been an inspiration through the entire year.

Robeson Association again won the banner for having largest number of churches with five grades. Fourteen churches in that Association had five grades and Eastern had eleven. This year there is a decrease, and Robeson and Eastern each have ten. We have organized fifty-one new societies in 1934, but have a net loss of 11, two of which are young people's. In our 348 churches we have 184 W. M. S., 63 Y. W. A.'s, 98 G. A.'s, 64 R. A.'s, and 119 Sunbeam Bands; total, 528. Total young people's societies, 344. Thirty-six churches have five grades.

We appeal to the mother societies to organize and foster our Y. W. A., which is our weakest link in the W. M. U. chain in our Division, the R. A. having one more organization, and that, too, needs a great place in our interest in the boys, and a large increase in number of G. A.'s and Sunbeams is a certain possibility if we can find consecrated leaders with the missionary spirit.

Burnt Swamp, Eastern, Johnston, Little River, New South River, Robeson, and Wilmington Associations had stewardship declamation contests for young people. The Divisional contest was held in the Baptist church in Clinton on the fourth Sunday in August. The winners were: Y. W. A., Miss Sadie Hamby; Intermediate R. A., David Harris, both of Spring Branch Church in New South River Association. Intermediate G. A., Mildred Howard, of Buie's Creek; Junior G. A., Zua Bright Hockaday, of Coats, both of Little River Association; Junior R. A., Carlton Munden, of Pisgah Church, Johnston Association. Mrs. J. E. Lanier, our Divisional Stewardship chairman, had charge of the contest. Miss Lillian Odum, young people's leader, left our Division August 1, and her place has not been filled.

As we mention briefly each Association in the Wilmington Division, we will liken them to "Golden Links" in a chain. The first link is Bladen Association, with Mrs. R. J. Hall the new Superintendent, who is grasping every opportunity to go forward and make the first link strong and beautiful.

Brunswick is second link, with Miss Ruth Ludlum, also new Superintendent, with a vision of larger service, and has entered her work with joy and zeal, to keep her link shining brightly.

Burnt Swamp is third link, with faithful Mrs. M. C. Lunsford binding her colaborers together with ties of love for the Master, and is greatly encouraged. She reports the largest percentage of mission study classes, 32; and enrollment, 297.

Cape Fear-Columbus is fourth link, with the cheerful, tireless Mrs. J. T. McKenzie, Superintendent, with a burning desire to make her Association one of the strongest links in the chain.

Eastern is fifth link, with Miss Macy Cox, Superintendent, rejoices to continue support of Miss Katie Murray in China, and gave on her salary this year $774.08 for Christmas offering. A kindergarten school in China is still supported. This link is clasped with love to every link in the chain, and the Superintendent rejoices that God has permitted her to serve 27 years.

Johnston Association is link number six, under the leadership of Mrs. George Lovell; they are making marked progress. They lead in number enrolled in mission study classes, 565. Selma W. M. S. supports native missionary in Manchuria through Dr. C. A. Leonard.

Seventh link is Little River Association, with Mrs. Paul Bradley, Superintendent. She reports progress and growing interest in missions. The W. M. U. Training School Scholarship is a great strength and adds lustre to her link.

Link number eight is New South River, and Mrs. R. P. Harris, Superintendent, is rejoicing over general growing interest in the work. In the 48 churches lie great possibilities to increase the strength of the link through the women and young people.

Number nine is the big Robeson Association, with 62 churches, and a strong link it is, with Mrs. A. B. Wood at the helm. They lead in number of societies and members and in mission study classes, 51; and personal service work; and number young people's societies, 68. Mrs. I. P. Hedgepeth is a great young people's leader and has served longer than any other in the Division.

The last link, number ten, is the Wilmington Association, from which our Division is named, and with Mrs. J. W. Carroll, Superintendent, there is growing interest in missions at home and abroad. They clothe three orphan children. Miss Ruth Snipes is in our Training School on their scholarship. The young people adopted Mary Hester Powell, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Powell, of Africa, as their "little sister."

Eight Associations sent gifts to our Margaret Fund daughter, Miss Mary Faye McMillan, of Meredith College. All ten sent gifts to our Baptist Hospital at Winston-Salem. Brunswick, Burnt Swamp, Cape Fear-Columbus, Johnston, and New South River met apportionments. We are indebted to Mrs. C. A. Leonard for her presence and inspiration in several of our Associations.

And now our chain is linked together. Only ten links, but through our prayers, our love, and our gifts we reach around the world, and may each link grow stronger each succeeding year, and in the name of our God may we lift high our banner.

Respectfully submitted,

MACY COX,

Division Superintendent.

Reports adopted on motion of Mrs. J. J. Roddick of Winston-Salem.

President's message—"The Christian Conquest," Mrs. Wesley N. Jones, Raleigh.

"THE CHRISTIAN CONQUEST"

"In the name of our God we will set up our banners." Psalm 20:5.

The Christian Life is a life of warfare. The conquest of the world for the Kingdom of God involves a conflict that shall last until Christ comes again in power, and brings in the kingdom age of peace. When Jesus instructed His disciples to go and preach the good news of the Kingdom of God, He warned them not to think that He had come to send peace on earth. "I came not to send peace but a sword." He did bring peace to the hearts of those that believed on Him, a peace that passeth all understanding, and abideth, but it is an inward peace—a peace of the spirit in the midst of the storm and tempests of life, not an external peace that is world-wide in its extent.

David, the great general, whose hands were bloody from many wars, wrote the words of our watchword. Fighting for the God of Israel, waging almost a constant warfare against the enemies of his people, he knew for whom he was fighting and to whom he must look for confidence, for strength, and for victory. Familiar from his childhood with the story of Amalek opposing the invasion of Canaan by the Israelites, he learned the lesson that when Moses' hands were lifted up the enemies were discomfited and when they were wearied and fell to his side the enemies triumphed. So, in his own day, victory was to come from reliance on God and obedience to His commands. The stone that Moses placed to commemorate that remarkable incident, carrying the inscription Jehovah Nissi—The Lord our Banner, was a watchword for the ages to the people of God.

Isaiah, near the close of his marvelous prophecy, sees the leader of the victorious armies of Christendom, the Redeemer, who shall come to Zion and with His coming bring to an end the age-long conflict with evil, and gives us a wonderful picture of the joy and blessing of the kingdom age. The people to whom David and Isaiah wrote understood only too well by experience that God alone was their defense, their help in time of need, and when they went out to battle if they went relying on His power, and with an eye single to His glory, all would be well. Literally, God had fought their battles for them, when they trusted in their own strength there was failure, when they trusted in Him there was victory. In our day we have gotten too far away from the realization of our dependence as a people, and as individuals, on our God.

A banner signifies to us a great cause, a high ideal. Only a bit of bunting in itself, but because of what it stands for, men are ready to live or die for it. Solomon writes "terrible as an army with banners," and an army who carries before it the standard of its hopes and ideals carries before it the incentive of victory and triumph.

In the September number of the National Geographic Magazine, in an article on the "Flags of the World," we read, "It has been said that flags are divinely ordained; that when Jehovah made His covenant with mankind that all flesh should never again be destroyed by a flood, He sealed the pledge by unfurling across the heavens the great banner of the ages, the rainbow itself. From that time forward, men in turn have lifted up standards, emblems and colors around which they have kindled their fires of patriotism, developed their sense of loyalty to one another, and bound themselves together with ties of nationality. The people of Israel had their standards—we read in Numbers, "And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron saying, Every man of the children of Israel shall pitch (his tent) by his own standard with the ensign of his father's house."

These standards fell and were forgotten, but all sacred history pointed to the day when the banner of the Cross should be lifted on Calvary's hill, and because of Him who said, "And I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto me," men have lived and died for their faith in the Crucified One, and have gone to the uttermost parts of the world that the salvation He wrought should be made known to men everywhere.

In the third century, when Constantine the Great, in his campaign to conquer Italy, saw the symbol of the cross flaming in the skies, with these words, "In this sign conquer," he conceived the idea, so remote from the teachings of Jesus, of forcing the world to become Christian. He rallied his armies to victory, but it was only temporary. The banner of the Cross must be uplifted deep in human hearts, so deep that it transforms the hearts and lives of those who enlist in His cause.

After two thousand years only "Jesus Christ can meet the world's deep need," and that need today, after these centuries, is so great as to bring despair and to paralyze our efforts were it not for our faith in the ruling, reigning Christ, and the conquering power that lies in His Cross.

The gospel has been planted throughout the length and breadth of the world. Like the woman who hid the leaven in the three measures of meal, we must wait until the whole is leavened. The triumphs of Christianity thrill our hearts in this, perhaps the most materialistic age the world has known. The Gospel is still the power of God unto salvation; Christ and Him crucified is the only hope of the world. We have been passing through a transition period. There have been changes everywhere, and the end is not yet. From the enthusiasm of a decade ago we have faced the discouragements brought about by these changed conditions. Our mission work presents problems today that demand our best thought and effort. Many pages have been written and many theories advanced to solve these problems. Christ made no program for the evangelization of the world. He left it to His disciples with the command to Go, Teach, Preach, Baptize, and promised His Presence to go with them. Disciples were to be won as individuals. The programs that have failed have been man-made programs, the Divine program can never fail.

We must get away from the idea, so prevalent a few years ago, that foreign mission work was completed, that henceforth we could reap the results of the labor of the past, that the native church in our foreign mission field could take care of the nations without Christ, alone. A decline of fifty per cent in gifts to missions from 1926 to 1933 shows this attitude. There is no need to discuss this question, our work to evangelize the world will not be completed until Christ comes again. He gave the commission, only He can recall it. Dr. Stephen J. Corey, in the January number of the Missionary Review of the World, says: "The great issues that face us abroad bring a stirring challenge. The tides of secularism, nationalism, and communism call Christian people as never before to take the message and life of Christ to the whole world. The distress and disquietude of mankind summon us." Communism not only is a serious menace in China and Japan, but in an insidious way is making itself felt in our own land. No one who is informed as to the situation in Russia today can fail to recognize the seriousness of this menace.

The problems and discouragements are but one side of the picture. Let me quote from Dr. Fulton in the same issue of the Review, who says: "Over against the problems and difficulties that face us today we could set a long list of encouragements that far outweigh the difficulties. I mention three that stand out strikingly in the missionary picture. The increasing open-heartedness of the peoples of the world to the Gospel of Jesus Christ. This is not inconsistent with the fact that many governments seem to be slowly closing to religion. In the time of Christ just when the chief priests and rulers of the Jews were seeking to destroy him, the common people heard him gladly. A missionary writes, 'The doors for gospel advance are flung wide as never before.' The Church in Brazil faces an unprecedented opportunity. Crowds everywhere are willing to hear with attention and sympathy the call of God to repentance and faith in Christ. The day of march has come."

Another writes: "God wants Africa, for never was the Holy Spirit more manifestly present; there at Luebo station alone we baptized 2,548 adults and the church is aflame with zeal for Him."

From yet another missionary comes this message, "There is a mighty tide sweeping through China. It is the tide of God's spirit moving upon the hearts of men."

"Then, the new fervor for evangelism is one of the most encouraging factors in the present missionary outlook. Despite the limitations that falling income have placed upon the work, our missionaries are manifesting an eager desire to extend their work into unreached territories. Where two such movements as the foregoing, the eagerness to hear on the one hand, and the eagerness to tell on the other, are found parallel, things are bound to happen. And things have happened. The past year has been the most fruitful in results in all our foreign missionary history."

"The world is waiting for the sunrise," for the rising of the Sun of Righteousness, with healing in His wings. Our Woman's Missionary Union has had but a brief history, a bare fifty years, yet the things we have wrought through His grace and power inspire us to a greater service, a larger effort in the coming years, in His name. May we not say, like the Hebrews of David's day and generation, "In His name we will set up our banners."

The banner of the Cross must be uplifted through prayer, genuine heartfelt prayer, that will bring us into communion with our Lord and Master. At the beginning of the past year with our mission treasures showing constantly declining receipts, the Woman's Missionary Union changed its emphasis from gifts to prayer. What was the result? Not only wonderful results from our missionaries' labors to save souls on their fields, but the tide turned and the gifts began to increase. It is again an illustration that when we trust in God, victory comes. We need more prayer for ourselves, for our churches, our missionaries, a more complete harmony in our lives with the will and purposes of God. More of His guidance and leading, less of our own plans and thinking. This we can have through prayer, and prayer alone. If you in your own life would lift high the banner of the Cross the coming year you must lift it on your knees.

Then we must have faith. "And this is the victory, even your faith," wrote the beloved apostle so many years ago. All through the ages as recorded in that marvelous chapter in Hebrews, all triumph for Christ and His cause has come through faith. There is too great an element of uncertainty as to our religious beliefs. We need to say, "I know," as to the faith that is within us if that faith is to have conquering power.

If we go forth against the powers of sin into the darkness of heathenism there must be no question in our own minds as to the fact that it is the purpose of our Christ that men should be saved from their sins, and that the Cross is the only way by which they may be saved.

With this deep conviction and the power of the Holy Spirit no task can be too great, no failure is possible in our efforts to lift high His banner. Recently, in one of our papers, the writer stated that to his mind the word suffering was the saddest word in human language. Whether that is true or not, ours is a religion of sacrifice and suffering. The crimson thread of sacrifice runs all through the Biblical narrative from the day Abel took the firstling of his flock and made an offering to God, to that day to which all sacrifices had pointed when the Lamb of God was offered as a propitiation for the sins of the world. If we would know what it is to have the power of His resurrection in our lives we must know first the fellowship of His sufferings. Jesus said to His disciples, "If any man would come after me let him take up his cross and follow me." We talk much about programs in our Christian activities but that is the program of the Master—bearing His cross and following in His footsteps.

As we endeavor to lift high the banner of the Cross we must reach out our arms to those who have fallen on life's highway. We are doing that most effectively in our missionary organizations, not always, perhaps, with the thought of winning them to a knowledge of our Christ, but that should be the objective of all our personal service or social service work. Our hospitals, our orphanages, our plans for material aid, all have their incentive in the teaching of Him who said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

All effort, all prayer for the conquest of the Cross will fail of its best unless we recognize that we must pass on to the succeeding generation some of our love and devotion to our Christ. The youth of our land are enlisted under the banner today to a marked degree. Our Woman's Missionary Union has been mindful of its young people. The part they are having in the missionary enterprise today is a source of joy and inspiration to us all. To them we look for the success of the coming years. They are our hope and pride. Give of your best in the work of your young people, they deserve it and are worthy of it.

The banner is to be lifted in His name, there is no other name. "To Him shall be the power and the glory and the kingdom forever and ever." Because it is in His name that we have enlisted under the banner of the Cross, may we not reconsecrate ourselves to His service. At the recent Sunday School Convention held in Raleigh, Dr. Marshall Craig closed one of the conferences with a most impressive message, using this text, "Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with the Lord my God." Hezekiah had come to the throne to succeed the wicked King Ahaz, his father, who had led Israel deeper and deeper into sin. He begins his reign by making a covenant to do that which was right in the sight of God, not what was right in the minds of the people, or what was right according to his own thinking, but that which was right in God's sight. Then he covenants to give God his best, his best in love and service. In this new year of opportunity that awaits us, may we not covenant together with our God like the good king Hezekiah, that we will do that which is right in the sight of God, that we will give Him our best and that we will help to lift the banner of the Cross until the whole wide world is enlisted.

Night after night we hear the air mail passing in the darkness, sometimes in storm and tempest, carrying the mail, that people who rest in the quietness and shelter of their homes may keep in touch with the news of the day, the things that are going on in the world. With a high courage the pilot is faithful to his task. You and I have a higher commission than his. In a time of sorrow, of doubt and confusion, it is our task to give to the world a message—a message first of all of salvation, of peace, of joy, of assurance of God's leadership and guidance. Shall we be less brave, less true to our calling than the pilot who dares the darkness and the danger of the night. The world is waiting for the message, you and I have it, it is a sacred trust. Let us lift high the banner of the cross until all shall sing,

"Lead on, O King Eternal,
We follow not with fears,
For gladness breaks like morning
Whene'er Thy face appears:
Thy cross is lifted o'er us,
We journey in its light,
The crown awaits the conquest;
Lead on, O God of might."

MAKERS OF A NEW WORLD

"We know that only Jesus Christ can change tomorrow's world, but we know also that even He cannot do it without today's youth." This arresting and significant statement from the pen of Stanley High might well be considered by every lover of children, by every leader of youth. Especially should these words challenge the most untiring efforts and call forth the deepest devotion of Woman's Missionary Union in behalf of missionary education of youth. In this task of primal importance equipping today's youth to change tomorrow's world through the channel of missionary education, what did W. M. U. of North Carolina accomplish in 1934? Did we foster more in '34? If through today's youth Jesus Christ will change tomorrow's world, Woman's Missionary Union realizes that it must begin missionary education early in life. "As the twig is bent so the tree is inclined."

We began in 1934 with 558 Sunbeam Bands. Of this number, 182 did Standard work. Only 67 were A-1. Let us have more truly "Shining Sunbeams." The records show only 101 mission study classes for Sunbeams. Through many small gifts, Sunbeams contributed to missions in 1934, $4,425.58. How our Sunbeams love to give to His cause! "More and better Sunbeam Bands"—let us take for our motto. The year began with 1,050 Woman's Missionary Societies. Should it not have begun with 1,050 Sunbeam Bands? We cannot greatly help today's youth unless we begin in the early morning of life. Let us have more Sunbeam Bands!

"Our girlhood for Christ!" What record did our "Girls Alert" write in 1934? Girls' Auxiliary began the year 537 strong. At the end, Girls' Auxiliary was numerically stronger by seven Auxiliaries, beginning 1935 with 544 organizations. During the past year G. A.'s led all the rest in number of Standard societies—224. "Be A-1" was the slogan of 94 of these Girls' Auxiliaries. One hundred sixty-one G. A. mission study classes were held. The total gifts of G. A.'s during 1934 amounted to $6,322.70. A glorious achievement indeed! The outstanding event of the year was the annual G. A. House Party at Meredith College in November, with 150 girls in attendance. Miss Lila Watson and Mrs. Chas. Leonard, missionaries on furlough, and four daughters of missionaries truly made North Carolina G. A.'s desire "the girlhood of every nation for the girlhood of the world." The State Intermediate G. A. Contest was also a high point of interest. Let us "put the miss in missions" by giving our best to our "Girls Alert."

Miss Mary Christian, Young People's Secretary of Georgia, has said, "We must change the old saying, 'Boys will be boys,' to the newer and far more significant one: 'Boys will be Royal Ambassadors.'" Through Royal Ambassador Chapters, Woman's Missionary Union has the great opportunity of putting our boys in vital connection with Christ's great missionary program. The records show that North Carolina had 310 R. A. Chapters with the beginning of 1934, 105 of these did Standard work, 43 being A-1. Truly "boys will be Royal Ambassadors." Royal Ambassador Chapters increased by 23 during 1934. The number of R. A. mission study classes were entirely too few, only 77 being reported. At least one mission study class in every R. A. Chapter should be our goal. Royal Ambassadors gave to missions during 1934, $4,495.94. Of this amount, $838.10 was given to pay the salary of Dr. S. W. Vance, medical missionary to Yang Chow, China. Royal Ambassador Counselors, pastors, and Royal Ambassadors are to be congratulated and commended for the glorious completion of a glorious task. The State R. A. Conclave met at First Baptist Church in Raleigh, November 2-4; 75 R. A.'s registered for the meeting. Dr. Chas. A. Leonard, of Harbin, Manchuria, was the chief speaker. The next R. A. Conclave will meet with the First Baptist Church, Gastonia, the date to be announced later. The Gastonia R. A. Chapter excelled in amount of work done on the Ranking System. We shall be happy to be the guests of these enthusiastic Gastonia Royal Ambassadors.

What record did Young Woman's Auxiliary write on the pages of 1934? On the books at the beginning of the year there were 408 Y. W. A.'s. The end of December reveals the same figures.

"There is no standing still. Even as I pause,
The steep path shifts, and I slip back apace,
No idling on the pathway hard and slow;
I must go forward or backward go.
And few would struggle on with bleeding feet,
And few would even gain the higher heights,
Except for the stern law which bids us know
We must go forward, or must backward go."

Let us go forward in number of organizations! One hundred sixty-seven of the 408 Auxiliaries did Standard work. Young Woman's Auxiliaries had 139 study classes and gave to missions during 1934, $14,825.69, an increase of $1,539.49 over 1933's record. Ridgecrest Y. W. A. Camp in June contributed immeasurably to missionary interest among North Carolina young women. At least 180 girls were hostesses to young women of the South. "Friendship, fellowship, frolic, and His spirit over all," the high ideal of the camp, was lived up to in every possible way. Excellent conferences, delightfully inspiring hours of mission study, soul-stirring missionary messages made the Camp a vital experience to every Y. W. A.

Much to our keen sorrow, the records show that we had only seven College Y. W. A.'s at the beginning of the college year 1934-35. Only three of the seven—Fruitland, Campbell, and Chowan—go on record as doing A-1 work. Mars Hill led in gifts to the Coöperative Program, with Meredith giving most liberally to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering. "An A-1 Y. W. A. on every college campus where there are Baptist girls." Can we not make it so in 1935?

Thus, the history of young people's work in 1934 has been written. Total gifts were $30,069.91. As 1935 begins we have a total of 1,819 young people's organizations.

The above figures and statements have merely been compiled by me. It is not at all difficult to see readily that our W. M. U. young people wrought nobly in 1934 despite the handicap of having no Young People's Secretary. The statistics speak several things. They speak of one who gave herself unstintedly to missionary education of North Carolina young people, Mrs. Earl C. James, formerly Miss Alva Lawrence; it reveals the love of our young people for the cause of Christ, their loyalty to every activity and suggestion of their leaders; it discloses the faithfulness of Woman's Missionary Union to their ideal—"missionary education of young people"; it shows the vast amount of work done by Associational young people's leaders, counselors, and leaders of our young people.

These words of a prayer flash through my memory as I come now, your new leader—"God forbid that as youth we should live small lives in a great day, with great issues at stake, and with a great God on our side." Let us be glad that we live! Let us as we work wholeheartedly together hasten the coming of the dawn for our Southern Baptist mission work, thereby more swiftly ushering in the noonday when we shall be able to unfurl the royal banner of our King over a world. What brief word shall I bring to you that will convey in some measure my aspirations for the work mutually important to each of us? I would say this first word most earnestly.

1. Let us keep uppermost in each of our hearts and in all of our plans the great purpose for which we stand, the missionary education of youth.

2. Let us speedily make it possible for every Baptist youth in North Carolina to have the privilege of belonging to a missionary organization. Without further delay, let us set ourselves deliberately to that joyous task.

3. "Knowledge is power" in spreading the Gospel. More mission study in 1935 is a primary need, if we are to enlist the deepest interest of youth, if we are to break down unchristian racial barriers, if we are to enlarge youth's horizon and instill in heart and mind an ever-increasing understanding of God's great love for the world. Expectant youth looks to Woman's Missionary Union for help in lifting Christ's banner. What shall be the answer?

"Pass on the torch, pass the flame,
Remember whence the glory came,
For eyes are on you as you run
Beyond the shining of the sun."

Verily, I believe, will youth make this ready and buoyant answer:

"Lord, Christ, we take the torch from Thee;
We must be true, we would be free
And clean of heart and strong of soul
To bear the glory to the goal.

"Lord of our lives, to Thee we kneel,
Maker of men, our purpose seal;
Singing glory, glory to Thy name,
We pass the torch, we lift the flame!"

Respectfully submitted,

MARY CURRIN.

Report of Stewardship Chairman, Mrs. J. G. Boomhour, of Raleigh. Adopted.

REPORT ON STEWARDSHIP

Year by year our plan of work recommends certain stewardship activities with prime emphasis upon some phases of it. If it were possible to tabulate all that has been done in recent years in our W. M. U. and our young people's organizations relative to stewardship teaching and practice, I am confident that the results would encourage our hearts.

When the final report of the year showed that the gifts of our women and young people had so far exceeded the aim for the year, our hearts were filled with gratitude. Many of these gifts expressed a deepened conviction as touching tithes and offerings. We realize that the number who have become doers of the truth and not hearers only has increased.

The many requests which have come from the stewardship chairmen for literature indicate that they are earnestly endeavoring to promote this phase of the work.

The Stewardship Declamation Contest has been one of the most effectual methods of giving stewardship instruction. As our young people take part in the contest they are continually putting the tithing teaching into their own hearts and minds and into the hearts and minds of those who hear their messages. We suggest that the stewardship chairmen and young people's leaders give as much publicity as possible to the contests. With literature and prayerful planning there is an opportunity to develop the contest in such a way that it will indeed fulfill its purpose.

Let us remember to report the number taking part in the contest from each organization. Our Young People's Secretary will be happy to render any help possible. We suggest that you continue to emphasize the following:

1. Endeavor to get every woman in the church to share in the special offering and in special season of prayer.

2. Plan for classes in study of stewardship.

3. Stress the forming of prayer groups.

May we be persistent and unceasing in our efforts to lead our women and young people into a fuller knowledge of the meaning of stewardship.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. G. BOOMHOUR,

Stewardship Chairman.

Report of Mission Study Chairman, Mrs. Edna R. Harris, of Raleigh. Adopted.

1934 MISSION STUDY

Winifred Kirkland said, "Wherever our religion ceases to have the exhilaration of a solitary traveler climbing a splendid hill for the first time, then it has lost its vitality and our first duty is to examine our daily life and find out what we have done to our souls that they should be missing the wonder and the glory stored in every little earthly minute." There is no surer way to keep the vitality of our religion than to be constantly learning the conditions in heathen countries, and of the triumphant success of the uplifted Christ. To know the need and the joy of that need met, in which we may and do share, stimulates us to renewed efforts, and makes no study dry or dull as the hill of information is climbed. Two classes a year which meet the Standard requirement should be but the beginning of a year's study. Many join the book-a-month club for pleasure and belong to a book club to keep apace with secular reading and discussion, and then plan and devise many ways to have a mission study class with no study and count it a great hardship to put more than the minimum time limit into the class twice a year. The increasing number of one-day classes is to be deplored, and the increasing desire to get recognition for the least work that can be done is deplorable and not calculated to give much exhilaration. The class that studies because of desire to know regardless of "credit" is the one that climbs the highest hills and gets the broadest vision.

Our women had 871 classes, with more than eight thousand awards of various kinds, which represents only a part of the mission study done, because classes are rarely reported where awards are not desired.

In fostering the young people's organizations, in no way could more constructive work be done than in their mission study; and every organization should do continued study, and would if our women were interested in giving them missionary education. No adventure is so thrilling as that of our missionaries; no experiences so marvelous, none endure such trials. Why withhold such knowledge from our youth? Less than half of our young people's organizations had a study class, for some had several, and only nine hundred fourteen classes were reported for our young people.

Mount Zion led in the number of awards to all organizations, except that Chowan led in awards to Royal Ambassadors.

Mrs. Frank L. Stokes of Hamilton completed the Advanced Course. Fifteen are now enrolled for the course; some started a long time ago, and have lagged along the way; others plod regularly along.

That an effort may be made to enlist more women in mission study, a change on that point in Standard of Excellence was made. Now, in addition to required number of classes, half of the active members must be enrolled in each class held, but no member shall be counted but once in your check-up on this point.

If in each Association a mission study institute could be arranged, where those who will lead classes might come together for a day and get plans and suggestions, we might revitalize our mission study. Try it.

Report of W. M. U. Training School given by Mrs. Forrest C. Feezor, of Raleigh, in the absence of the Chairman, Mrs. R. N. Simms, of Raleigh. Adopted.

REPORT OF W. M. U. TRAINING SCHOOL

Were you to visit your Training School in Louisville and look upon the corner-stone of that beautiful building you would see these striking words graven in the stone, "Our daughters as cornerstones, polished after the similitude of a palace." Throughout the twenty-eight years of her history it has been the aim of principal, faculty, and managers to so conduct every phase of life within these walls that each young woman who enters for preparation may be sent out so shaped and polished as to fit into the building of the Master's Kingdom in a humble yet stable way.

This session of 1934-35 finds this same high aim being graven into the hearts of fifty-four boarding students and thirty-eight day students. This shows a slight increase over the enrollment of last year. For every increase, however small, we give to God our grateful thanks.

Among the boarding students Missouri leads this year with eight; Alabama and our own State of North Carolina come next with seven each. The names of our girls follows: Miss Ruby Daniel, Castalia; Miss Ruth Snipes, Burgaw; Miss Mildred Brooks, Hamlet; Miss Mildred Thomas, Jacksonville; Miss Helen Dozier, Japan; Mrs. Bess Stone, Greensboro; Miss Blanche Banks, Varina. Four of these young women are on State W. M. U. scholarships; one, namely, Helen Dozier, is on a Margaret Fund scholarship; and the other two are paying their own expenses.

The school is supported, as you know, by Woman's Missionary Union through designated gifts from societies and young people's organizations. This year the total cash gift from North Carolina is $1,704.57, including gifts from societies, loan funds returned, allotment from coöperative program and scholarship funds.

This is splendid and yet your school cannot exist upon this alone. It must depend also upon the special love gifts that come from time to time from the women in various societies throughout our Southern States. This love for the school is manifested in gifts of fruit, cakes, vegetables, nuts, preserves, jelly, and numerous other items of food which add so much to the nourishing and palatable meals planned by the efficient housekeeper, Miss Mary Louise Warren. In looking over a list of these love gifts from the various states, I notice there went from North Carolina this year eighty (80) jars of canned fruit with $1.00 for express charges. Let me suggest that we increase that gift many times during this coming year. During the summer canning and preserving season let us remember to fill and set aside an extra jar for our Training School. Each society gathering, packing, and mailing these will greatly help with the support of the school and, in addition, will bring a thrill of joy to the hearts of North Carolina daughters in attendance there when they realize that their own State has not forgotten.

The hearts of managers and principal have been greatly cheered because of some recent bequests to the school. One for $3,000.00 comes from the estate of the late Mrs. Mary D. Simpson of Decatur, Alabama; the other for $1,000.00 from the estate of the late Mrs. B. E. Garvey, of Nashville, Tenn. To God, who placed in the hearts of these good women the loving desire to so undergird our dear school, we bow in deep gratitude. May the memory of their deed linger long to bless and inspire others to so love and care for the well-being of this place of preparation.

The Training School page in the April issue of Royal Service carries an article explaining what is trying to be done this year toward enlarging the Mrs. George B. Eager Fellowship Fund. It is suggested that all societies read carefully this page, and those desiring to do some special service for the school send a contribution, however small, for this fund. Concentration on this project for a year or two should provide a modest endowment that would be adequate.

"Prayer gives power." The girls of House Beautiful believe this, and so they set about making plans for the December Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions by praying—praying before setting the goal for their offering, praying before making plans. You are not surprised, then, that for those within the walls of this "Power House of Prayer" that was a glorious week: Glorious because new visions were gained, lives rededicated and, most of all, because their goal of $350.00 for the Lottie Moon Offering was reached and passed by $118.00, making a total of $468.00. How many of us, in view of the fact that the student body then numbered the same as the previous year, would have dared to raise our quota by ten per cent? This did your daughters of House Beautiful, by faith, thus pointing the way to those of us who fear to so step out on faith. We look into the future with greater hope as we see young women of this character launch out into the active work of Woman's Missionary Union.

At its annual meeting in Fort Worth last May, the General Board voted to start the observance of Founders' Day. Details were left to the local Board of Managers to work out in conference with W. M. U. officers who are on the Board of Trustees. October 2, the date of the beginning of the school officially under Woman's Missionary Union auspices, has been selected tentatively as the most suitable date. A committee, with Mrs. T. H. Wayne as chairman, has been appointed to work out details for the first observance next October.

It would be hard to find a more talented group of young women anywhere than are those at the Training School. Their talents run along many lines, but especially are many of them talented musically. From time to time during the past year there have been broadcast from one of the Louisville stations musical concerts. These concerts are given by the Glee Club of the school, under the direction of their efficient leader, Miss Edwards. In the most recent of these broadcasts two of our North Carolina girls were heard as they rendered special selections. The programs render a splendid service to the school, the girls participating, and to the public.

Attention is called to the Training School page in January Royal Service, in which an account is given of how several Training School girls were given practical experience in Kentucky last summer. This plan is commended to other states also. Briefly the plan is as follows: At every district meeting it was announced that any church or association that would promise to pay transportation, furnish necessary living expenses, and donate a free-will offering could have the services of one of these girls for two months. As a result, Kentucky had five girls working in various parts of the State.

The value of such a plan can easily be seen.

1. Students are given an opportunity to get valuable experience under direction and supervision. By studying their work first-hand and through their directors and associates, the school can advise with them more intelligently about their life work.

2. Much excellent missionary and church work is done. One girl worked in an undeveloped Association, putting new life into the existing societies, organizing new ones, and training leaders. She, too, assisted in revival meetings, and not only won many to Christ, but also organized the young people into personal workers' bands and trained them.

3. It serves as a practical way to advertise the school. Scattered throughout our State and others are scores of Christian young women, idle because of economic conditions. These young women should be spending idle months in training to become better local church members and full-time workers. Coming into contact with young women from the Training School as they labor during the summer months may inspire them and give them a vision of what a year of study in House Beautiful can do for a life.

Let us be grateful for all the splendid work of the school, for the special manifestation of God's hand upon her, and let us "pray without ceasing" for her throughout the days and months ahead.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. F. C. FEEZOR for

MRS. R. N. SIMMS,

Report of Margaret Education Fund Chairman, Mrs. J. Clyde Turner, Greensboro.

MARGARET FUND REPORT

As we review the work of the Margaret Fund for the past year we find that, while we have reached our apportionment, and indeed gone a little over it, we have fallen below last year's record, both in general offering, from societies, and in Margaret Memorials. We urge that special emphasis be placed upon these two phases of our work.

This being the twentieth anniversary of the Margaret Fund, each State was asked to secure twenty new Margaret Memorials, the State securing the largest number to receive special recognition at the meeting of the Southern W. M. U. Thus far North Carolina has to her credit only four Memorials: Mrs. Margaret Hodgkin Duff, Margaret Frances Marley, Margaret Jessie Webb, and Margaret Aman, all of Greensboro. These amount to $9.00, while last year we gave $212.00 and led all the states in amount given. Some of the Divisions are planning to stress this in their Associational and Divisional meetings, and we hope to have additional names to add to our record.

The many inquiries that have come, both from Associational and local chairmen, indicate increased interest and activity on the part of our women in the "mothering" of our Margaret Fund students. Six students have been our special charges during this year and were entrusted to the Divisions as follows: Asheville Division, Evelyn Shepard, Mars Hill; Charlotte Division, Rachel Leonard, Meredith; Greensboro Division, Moses McCall, Wake Forest; Wilmington Division, Mary Fay McMillan, Meredith; Elizabeth City Division, Elsie Baker, Mars Hill; Helen Dozier, W. M. U. Training School, Louisville, Ky.

The Divisional Chairmen have been earnest and interested, and report much work done: Gifts in cash, $165.00; boxes of clothing valued at $22.00, and many other gifts of clothing, toilet articles, candies, etc., upon which no value is given, are also recorded. Where the chairmen have been unable to know their students personally they have been able, in several instances, to establish contacts and discover special needs through workers associated with the schools.

Last year at the Annual Meeting in Fort Worth there was launched The Margaret Fund Alumni Association. In addition to the Margaret Fund students, all Divisional and Associational Margaret Fund chairmen are eligible for membership by paying the membership fee of fifty cents to Miss Mary Lawton, 130 Hampton St., Columbia, S. C.

There was also created last year the Elizabeth Lowndes Scholarship, in honor of Mrs. Lowndes, the beloved treasurer of the W. M. U. for forty years. This scholarship is to be awarded for the senior year to a Margaret Fund student distinguished during three preceding college years for high scholastic standing, leadership, personality, and character; and will be given in addition to the regular Margaret Fund scholarship. It is the aim to secure a fund of $7,000.00 for this purpose. Six hundred and fifty dollars have already been contributed and it is earnestly hoped that North Carolina will have a share in this scholarship fund during the present year.

Of special interest to North Carolina women is the graduation of Helen Dozier from our W. M. U. Training School in Louisville. For five years now Helen has been in our care and her return to Japan was made possible by the generous Fannie Heck offering of last year.

We crave for each of our students your loving interest and your prayers, and for this work your continued hearty support.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. CLYDE TURNER,
Chairman.

Mrs. Turner asked the Margaret Fund Chairman in each Division to come to the platform. Each told of the Margaret Fund student adopted by her Division. Two Margaret Fund students were presented by Mrs. Turner—Misses Rachel Leonard and Mary Faye McMillan, both of Meredith College, who spoke briefly in appreciation of the Margaret Fund.

Mrs. Jones recognized Mrs. E. T. Crittenden, of Wake Forest, who asked that the ladies find out if the minutes of their various churches were in the library at Wake Forest for safe keeping, and made a request for complete minutes of the various Associations in order to complete the files.

Report of Personal Service Chairman, Mrs. C. L. Greaves, Raleigh. Adopted.

REPORT OF PERSONAL SERVICE

We recall Gibbons' statement that one of the causes of the rapid spread of Christianity in the early centuries was the beauty and bravery of the lives of Christians. The same challenge comes to us today to live such lives of consecration and loveliness that we will make a pleasure-seeking and materialistic age realize that life can be happy, rich, and satisfying if we devote them to the service of the Saviour.

It is very heartening to read the reports of the Personal Service done by our good women all over our State. Many of you have been busy in ministering in a substantial way to the needy in your midst. Your own hearts testify to the joy it has brought to you and the ones aided. So many of our societies do not engage in organized Personal Service. I beg that many more will do so this year. Surely there is abundant need around you, and you will find the work will stimulate your hearts to every other good work, and will create added interest to your membership. Then be sure to report regularly, even if your report is similar to the one sent the previous quarter. The young people will enjoy doing Personal Service, also. In fact, the Y. W. A. and G. A. organizations show marked growth in Personal Service this past year. Mothers and leaders should find a joy in leading them into this blessed field of service.

Our Year Book and other prepared literature will guide you in your Personal Service work, but the obvious needs are all about us and it is ours to meet them in the Christian spirit, doing with our might what our hands find to do. "Do noble deeds, not dream them all day long, and so make life, death and that vast forever one grand sweet song."

To the older societies who have engaged in Personal Service for many years I would suggest that you might branch out and do something new or more difficult that will test your powers. We gain strength by exercise.

I'm afraid that many times we are in such a hurry to relieve the material needs that we forget the spiritual, and often these two needs go hand in hand. Let us not neglect to speak a word for Christ as we go about this work. Take your Bibles and give them the Bread of Life, also. Think what a revival would come if all these needy ones were won to Christ, and think what it would mean to them. Recently a group of women went to assist a needy family and took along a Bible, on seeing which the assisted lady remarked that they were the first ones to bring their Bible, too.

Report of Southwestern Training School, given by Mrs. W. P. Crouch, of Morganton, in the absence of the North Carolina Chairman, Miss Mabel Starnes.

GREETINGS FROM SOUTHWESTERN BAPTIST SEMINARY

It is my happy privilege to bring you greetings this afternoon from one of the greatest Christian institutions in all of our great Southland. I speak of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, located at Seminary Hill, Texas, just at the southern edge of the city of Fort Worth. Seminary Hill is one of the highest points of elevation of the city of Fort Worth, and is a beautiful spot for the location of our great Seminary. Three large buildings: the Administration Building, the Cowden Music Hall, and the Girls' Training School take care of the hundreds of students that are enrolled in the four schools.

The Southwestern is the only school we have that offers four different schools of training: the School of Theology, the School of Religious Education, the School of Missionary Training. All of these schools are adequately prepared to give you the best of training in their respective fields, and yet they are welded together in one great missionary and soul-winning spirit.

One could not be on the campus long without realizing that he was in a deeply religious atmosphere. The noonday prayer meeting, alive with the zeal for lost souls; the missionary conferences, with returned missionaries from almost every field, mingling with the dozens of missionary volunteers, who are eagerly looking forward to the time when they will receive an appointment to go proclaim the message of Christ; busses filled with happy young people from all schools, preparing to go to the downtown missions, to the jails, the foreign settlements, and to the street corners to hold services in the name of Christ; classes of evangelism, taught by Dr. Scarborough, in which the longing for lost souls is so implanted within you that you leave the room praying that the Lord will make you a soul-winner for Him; all of these things, coupled with the great teaching of such men as Dr. H. E. Dana, Dr. W. T. Connor, and others, makes the Southwestern such a wonderful place for the one that is really eager to prepare herself for the best service in the Lord's vineyard.

MRS. W. P. CROUCH.

Report of Baptist Hospital—Mrs. J. J. Roddick, Winston-Salem, Trustee. Adopted.

REPORT ON BAPTIST HOSPITAL

After twelve years of active service to suffering humanity, it is with gratitude for the past blessings and a vision for that high and holy task that is ours that we bring you the report of the North Carolina Baptist Hospital. During the twelve years of service, 27,615 have been received for treatment, and were it possible to report all the records of healing, the lives touched, and bring the words of love and gratitude that have come to us from fathers, mothers, and children brought back from illness and the shadows of death, it would indeed present to every Baptist a new challenge in behalf of suffering humanity. For we can say that through medical treatment and aid of the Heavenly Father the lame have been made to walk, the blind to see, and the deaf to hear.

A brief review of the past year's service reveals that this has been the largest and best in the history of our work. Three thousand two hundred and eleven patients have been admitted this year, a gain of nearly 1,000 over last, and many of this number have been sent home rejoicing in renewed strength and a stronger faith in their Great Physician. Our records show that the number of patient days for this past year was 25,096. Of this number 14,796 were part pay or free service days, a gain of 6,306 part pay and free service days over last year.

The amount we will receive from the Duke Foundation this year is $9,275.00, while our Mother's Day offerings were $13,199.87, and while this was not quite what we had hoped for and needed with the large number coming to us daily for treatment, yet we were gratified that there was a decided interest manifested in 255 churches contributing this year that had made no offering heretofore. And we feel encouraged to plead for and expect even a larger number who will, in response to the Master's command to His followers, enlist others in the task of ministering to suffering humanity in His name.

The amount received from the Coöperative Program this year amounted to $7,415.00, which is used annually to retire the bonds on our building. This amount lacked more than $5,000.00 of what we needed to apply on the bonds, and was necessarily supplied from the operating expenses of the Hospital. While the amount given this year to free service or charity amounted to $36,996.00, our demands for free service were nearly double that of last year. And with the increasing calls that come to us, there comes again the challenge to meet the unusual condition we face today. And if we would hear the voice of One who said, "Inasmuch as you did it unto the least of these, ye did it unto me," we would endeavor to render a larger service in His name. One of the great helps during the past year has been the contributions by the churches that sent patients for free service in the Hospital. These contributions have not only proved a blessing to the churches sending them, but have enabled us to extend service to a larger number applying to us for help.

Again we would remind you that the extent of the usefulness of the Hospital must necessarily be regulated by your gifts on Mother's Day, since on this one day of the year we depend for the contributions for the service we extend to our needy brothers and sisters. And we would plead for a worthy offering on this day to the One who gave His life for humanity, and again for the mother whose memory is so hallowed on this sacred day. Shall we not then unite to make this next Mother's Day the greatest in the history of our work. It is always gratifying to note the large service the Woman's Missionary Union has rendered to our Hospital. Before the foundation of the building was laid, plans were formulated in this body for the extension of the ministry of the Master in caring for our needy sick. And today we feel we hear the voice of the Master, who first commissioned woman to bear His message of love to the world, as He says to our great leader of woman's work and her coworkers in this State, "Well done, thou good and faithful servants." For this year has eclipsed any in the history of our Institution in white gifts to the Hospital. In response to our great needs there have come gifts of linen, a veritable flood from all parts of our State—6,284 pieces have been received, valued at $1,397.00. We feel like saying with the Psalmist, "How can we render thanks for the blessings bestowed upon us." "And surely goodness and mercy" will follow each one who has had a share in this blessing that has made it possible for us to extend a larger service to those calling on us in a day of need.

And thus shall your work abide and be abundantly blessed of God to your own joy and to the joy of the world,
For blessed are ye that sow beside all waters.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. J. RODDICK,
Trustee of Baptist Hospital.

Mr. Smith Hagaman, Superintendent of the Hospital, spoke to this report.

Memorial service for those who passed away during 1934 was held. Miss Elsie K. Hunter read the names, after which the audience arose and sang, "There's a Land That is Fairer Than Day."

Mrs. Edna R. Harris read the Recommendations of the Executive Committee, and moved that they be adopted. After a second to this motion by Mrs. John O. Gough, of Wake Forest, they were adopted as read.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION FOR THE YEAR 1935

Watchword: In the name of our God we will set up our banners.

Hymn: Fling Out the Banner.

Deeply grateful for the success of the past year, your Executive Committee would recommend:

First, That we enter another year of service with a renewed faith, a deeper conviction as to God's leading in all of our plans for the enlargement and advancement of His work, and that we covenant together to maintain a more vital prayer life. That we place a renewed emphasis on our prayer calendar, believing that persistent and united prayer on the part of our Woman's Missionary Union constituency for our missionaries and our leaders will bring blessing to them and to the lands in which they labor. That we remember each day the nine o'clock prayer hour and that we try to enlist all of our members in observing this season of prayer for our Woman's Missionary Union.

Second, That we urge our constituency to follow the plans and methods set forth in the Year Book prepared and distributed to each society by the Woman's missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention. That all officers of societies carefully study this Year Book and formulate their plans for the year's work under its direction. Extra copies can be secured from the Mission Rooms for ten cents each.

That the Plan of Work as set forth in the Year Book be our Plan of Work for the present year, the moral standards be our standards, and the chief aims be our aims—Prayer, Enlistment, Study, Personal Service, Stewardship, and the Missionary Education of Young People.

Third, Woman's Missionary Union Training School at Louisville and Margaret Educational Fund.

That we take as our objective for our two W. M. U. Specials this year $2,400.00—$1,200.00 each. In addition, we recommend that six scholarships be given to our Training School, including the Louis Castlebury Scholarship provided by a gift from Mrs. J. G. Layton in memory of her father, Mr. Louis Castlebury.

Fourth, Mission Study.

We recommend that wherever practicable two mission study classes be held in each adult society each year; the combined enrollment in these classes is to include one-half of the active membership of the society. A foreign mission study book to be used in the fall and a home mission book in the spring. Special attention is called to this because our records show a falling off in the number of classes the past year.

Fifth, Special Offerings and Seasons of Prayer.

That in view of the large number of missionaries who are supported through these special offerings and the number of special needs that are being met by them we urge that every society observe these seasons of prayer with their offerings:

Week of Prayer and Annie W. Armstrong Offering for Home Missions, March 4-8.

Day of Prayer and Offering for State Missions, September 9.

Week of Prayer and Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for Foreign Missions, December 2-6. That an effort be made to enlist every member of the society in the observance of these special seasons of prayer and offerings. That the literature and envelopes be carefully distributed and that during the week's study an effort be made to inform the society and the church as to what is being accomplished by our Foreign and Home Mission Boards through these special gifts.

Sixth, Literature.

We would continue to urge a wider circulation among our members of the Biblical Recorder, our State denominational paper, and that we make a larger use of the page that the paper has contributed to the Woman's Missionary Union for so many years. Societies are asked to subscribe and to secure subscriptions among their members to Home and Foreign Fields, and to our own W. M. U. magazines—Royal Service; The Window of Y. W. A.; and World Comrades.

Seventh, Heck Memorial Offering.

That the objective of the Heck Memorial Offering be $3,000.00:

$1,000.00 to be given to the Chinese church at Harbin, Manchuria.

$1,000.00 to be given as a part of the Henrietta Hall Shuck Memorial Fund for schools in China—($500.00 to the Eliza Yates School, and $500.00 to the North Gate School in Shanghai, China).

$1,000.00 to the building of a church on the campus of Shanghai University, this gift in memory of Dr. and Mrs. Matthew T. Yates.

Any sum above the aim to be appropriated by the Executive Committee of the Woman's Missionary Union.

Eighth, That we take as our financial aim in this the fiftieth year of our organized work, the sum of $190,000.00. This amount to include all gifts to missions, the Coöperative Program, and all special offerings of the Woman's Missionary Union. That each society make not less than five per cent increase over the gifts of the past year.

Mrs. Harris read the resolution in regard to change of time and place of meeting of the Southern W. M. U.

Resolution in Regard to Change of Time and Place of the Annual Meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention

The Executive Committee of the Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention, is convinced that the time has come when the future growth and development of the Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention, make it necessary to hold its Annual Meetings at a separate time and place from the sessions of the Southern Baptist Convention. Experience has shown us that it is practically impossible to hold two meetings, with such large representation, in one week, at one place. We believe that just as the Sunday school organization, Baptist Student Union, and Training Union have found it necessary to hold their annual meetings at a different time and place, so the best interests of the Woman's Missionary Union will be promoted by our following their example and meeting at a separate time and place.

While the delegation from North Carolina is not instructed as to their vote, the W. M. U. in its Annual Session in Durham, March 12-14, go on record as approving this change in the time and place of meeting.

Adopted on motion of Mrs. John O. Gough, of Wake Forest, seconded by Mrs. J. Clyde Turner, Greensboro.

Report of Committee on Time and Place given by Mrs. Gordon Maddrey, of Woodland, in the absence of the chairman, Mrs. D. H. Boney, of Teachey.

The Time and Place Committee beg to recommend to the W. M. U. now in session in Durham the following report:

That we accept the invitation of the Baptist churches of Raleigh and hold the next annual Convention in the First Baptist Church in Raleigh, on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday after the second Sunday in March, 1936. This being the 50th anniversary of W. M. U., it is fitting that we should meet in the home city of our beloved President.

RESOLUTIONS

We, this great host of Baptist women of North Carolina who have been sent to represent our various churches at the forty-fifth annual session of Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, know that ours has been a special privilege in coming to Durham as guests of the Baptist churches of this city, and those of other denominations who have received us so graciously, assembling ourselves together in this beautiful historic First Baptist Church.

From registration we have ever been conscious of your unsurpassed gracious and friendly hospitality—yea, we felt it as we entered your city—even before leaving our homes, you have said, Welcome—with your countenances, your handclasps, your greetings; you have said it with flowers, the fragrance from that first individual rose for every delegate will follow us home, as will the artistic arrangement of flowers and ferns throughout the church. Such a sweet, though silent, message has come through the memorial flowers—reminding us of those whose memory we will ever love and cherish.

You have said it with music—through chorus, violin and organ, directing—beautiful it has been, stirring the best within us.

We marvel that our every need and comfort has been met,—and the beauty of decorations enhanced our joy. The generosity of so many firms,—the Chamber of Commerce and individuals of Durham—to these, one and all, our grateful appreciation would be all-embracing with that of the Baptist churches of Durham—and to the Durham Herald for courteous publicity and splendid reports, forgetting not the Baptist Book Store of Raleigh for notebooks. And through the all-embracing and efficient committees headed by Mrs. L. D. Hamlin, our innumerable wants and requests have been met in an unbelievable way. Though names are unwritten here, faces and kind acts are written in our hearts and on our lives.

In unity of purpose lies success and surely the nine hostess churches and people of Durham purposed together to make this a gloriously successful meeting—for it has been. Though Knights in name, the pastor and his wife, Dr. and Ira D. S. Knight, have shed joy and light throughout these days.

In such an atmosphere, it isn't surprising that our watchword for the year—"In the name of our God, we will set up our banners," has permeated every session and impressed our thinking as never before.

We would express our deepest gratitude for the inspiring messages brought by each individual on programs; through lovely pageant and demonstration given by young people. We lovingly greet and welcome Miss Mary Currin, our new Young People's Leader.

We would especially mention our missionaries and their living messages—Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Leonard, of Harbin, Manchuria; Miss Lulia Mosgovoy, Harbin, Manchuria; Miss Ida Patterson, Shanghai, China. The presence and messages of our Southern W. M. U. President, Mrs. Frank W. Armstrong, of Plattsburg, Missouri, has brought a benediction. We have rejoiced in having messages from our own Dr. J. Clyde Turner, Greensboro; Rev. J. S. Farmer, Raleigh; Mr. M. A. Huggins, Raleigh; Mr. I. G. Greer, Thomasville; Mr. Smith Hagaman, Winston-Salem; Mrs. Taul White, Chapel Hill; Mrs. R. K. Redwine, Hickory; Miss Lois Sawyer, Shiloh—our hearts have been stirred by such inspiring messages; and by the forward-looking reports of our splendid W. M. U. officers and chairmen, which so bespeak the great work they have done and their hearts' hopes for the future. With the banner of our Lord lifted on high in the hands of these leaders, we, the Baptist women of North Carolina, can press on toward the goal of high calling set before us.

We would do honor to our beloved President, Mrs. W. N. Jones, by carrying with us throughout the year her soul-stirring message, joining with her more earnestly than ever before in "The Christian Conquest," remembering each day her admonishing thought left with us that to lift the banner highest, we must do it on our knees.

Constitution

PREAMBLE

We, the women of the Baptist churches of North Carolina, desirous of stimulating the missionary spirit and the grace of giving among the women and children of the churches, and of aiding in the collection of funds for missionary purposes to be disbursed by the State Mission Board and the Boards of the Southern Baptist Convention, adopt the following Constitution:

ARTICLE I

Name

This organization shall be known as the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention.

Object

The object shall be threefold: (1) To stimulate a broader religious development on the part of the Baptist women and girls of the State, to train the children in Christian work, and enlist all in active personal endeavor for the salvation of those in their own communities. REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY—1936

"Time was is past, thou canst not it recall;
Time is thou hast, employ thy portion small;
Time future is not, and may never be;
Time present is the only time for thee."

"Time was is past"—Ten years have passed since from this platform I entered your service as Corresponding Secretary. These years have held such rare delights, have been so crowded full that it does seem as yesterday. We cannot recall time, but the recollections of ten years achievements are happy, and those who have worked together through strenuous days, and kept courage high, can rejoice in the decided upward trend this year. We experienced the usual mushroom growth of those organizations that yearly do no more than organize and receive literature, but we had a net gain of 134 organizations, and closed the year with 2,971 active organizations. Fewer organizations observed the Season of Prayer for State Missions, because of epidemic of infantile paralysis at that time, which affected the special State Mission Offering, but more observed the Season of Prayer for Foreign Missions, and the Lottie Moon Offering in 1935 amounted to $28,452.33.

"Time is thou hast"—Four hundred twenty leaders realized that "time is" and employed month by month the "portion small," and brought 420 organizations up to well rounded work and were A-1.

Bacon said: "A man that is young may be old in hours if he has lost no time." By following the path of ease and least resistance we are losing time in not holding and giving to our young people, looking eagerly towards the new day, a missionary vision. "Time is the warp of life, oh tell the young, the fair, the gay to weave it well" (Tatler).

One hundred eighty-nine churches have full graded Unions. "Time is too slow for those who wait, too swift for those who fear." For most leaders twelve months seemed too long to work and wait for a record; while others pondered and feared to attempt time slipped by and they could not make up; but twenty-one churches neither waited nor feared, but worked, lost no time, and came to the end of the year with A-1 full graded Unions: Enfield, Roanoke; Mill Creek, Beulah; Clayton, Johnston; Watts Street, Durham; Grace, Durham; Temple, Durham; Creekville, West Chowan; Shiloh, Chowan; Edenton, Chowan; Jacksonville, Wilmington; Albemarle First, Stanly; New Friendship, Liberty; North Wilkesboro, Brushy Mountain; Hobbsville, Chowan; Harris Chapel, Tar River; Roanoke Rapids, Roanoke;

Henderson First, Tar River; Burlington First, Mt. Zion; Waughtown, Winston-Salem, Pilot Mountain; Ahoskie, West Chowan; Mocksville, South Yadkin.

The three Associations and the three churches that led in gifts in 1934, all increased their gifts and kept their same ranks—Piedmont, Pilot Mountain, Mt. Zion Associations; Greensboro First, Raleigh First, and Winston-Salem First. It is gratifying to note that of the 86 churches reporting in December, 1886, for the first year's work, 61 reported in 1935.

"Time future is not, may never be," but we are encouraged to hope that our leader will pay more attention to quarterly letters and report blanks, and that, in addition to an increase in gifts, we may have a 50 per cent increase in the number of reports sent in quarterly and yearly.

We met our quota for Royal Service subscriptions, World Comrades, and The Window of Y. W. A. May the same be true for 1936. We did not reach our goal for the Biblical Recorder. For more than a hundred years the Biblical Recorder has been a lighthouse of Baptist information, now in our fifty-first year let's increase our subscriptions fifty-one per cent.

Cabarrus Association now is separate from Mecklenburg, and we welcome the Superintendent of this new Association, Mrs. L. L. Crooks.

The plan of Division meetings following one after the other in October was tried out, and four very successful meetings were held. We were able to have Mrs. Una Roberts Lawrence for all of them and Mrs. Jones at three.

The Home Mission Board sent us Miss Emma Leachman for eight Association meetings. Miss Pearle Bourne spent a month in the State. Others who helped to widen the vision of service were Mrs. W. H. Tipton, Misses Alda Grayson, and Naomi Schell, Rev. H. H. McMillan. Mrs. Jones has waited, feared, grieved, and rejoiced through the 50 years of Woman's Work in North Carolina, but time has never been too slow, too swift, too long, or too short to give of her best in thought and advice to Woman's Missionary Union because "for those who love time is not."

YOUNG PEOPLE'S REPORT—1935

Even as John, the Apostle, so beautifully spoke of John the Baptist, so could we, in this fiftieth year of North Carolina Woman's Missionary Union say of Miss Fannie E. S. Heck—"She was a burning and shining light." While browsing among the early records of our woman's work, it is interesting to note the ever insistent pleas of Miss Heck in behalf of the training of our young people. Her life was a beacon light pointing always toward the missionary education of youth in all our churches. Perhaps it would be the part of wisdom to contemplate the words of so wise a leader as we give a retrospective glance over the record of 1935. Have we carried out faithfully her admonitions?

The Focus Weeks in 1935, by which interest and attention was focused upon each of the organizations, Sunbeam Band, Girls' Auxiliary, Royal Ambassadors, and Young Woman's Auxiliary, at a definite time, brought splendid results. This special emphasis brought troops of young people into our missionary organizations. If the number added in 1935 could have "lived"—that is, if they had reported during the year, our gain would be significant indeed. Societies numbering 2,192 might have been our pride, but at the end of each year we are forced to say with Tennyson:

"Of all the words of tongue or pen,
The saddest are these, it might have been."

With heaviness of heart, we struck from our lists 331 young people's organizations. The number of young people's societies for January, 1936, stands as follows: Sunbeam, 551; R. A., 330; G. A., 583; Y. W. A., 424. Total, 1,888. A comparison of figures reveals that we had a net increase of 72 young people's organizations during the past year. It is gratifying to note that 302 young people's societies can claim that coveted goal "A-1." This honor is distributed as follows: Sunbeams, 77; R. A.'s, 52; G. A.'s, 109; Y. W. A.'s, 68. Our young people gave to all objects the sum of $30,461.87.

"It is trite, very trite, to say the children of today are the church of tomorrow. Once it seemed that the world stood on the verge of universal knowledge of Christ. The church proved untrue, and blackness settled down for centuries. History will repeat itself—let me say it solemnly and slowly, unless we, the women of the church, train the children for their high privileges and world responsibilities." The record of Sunbeams does not measure up as well as we would like, but this decline is due to a great extent to the epidemic of infantile paralysis which was prevalent in our State last summer. Sunbeams, Junior G. A., and Junior R. A. suffered alike at the hands of disease. The effect of this handicap is apparent in every phase of work among our young people. However, the blighting influence was more manifest in our Sunbeam work. In spite of difficulty, our Sunbeams gave to all objects $4,208.64. Since 1936 marks the fiftieth year of Sunbeam work, we are confidently expecting a large increase in number of organizations and amount of gifts. Let us set our faces toward the future and determine that in every church there shall be a group of shining Sunbeams during this golden year.

As we look at the achievements of Girls' Auxiliary, shall we not call to remembrance Miss Heck's yearning words to our girlhood? "How I reach out my hands to you, craving your brightness, your enthusiasm, your zeal, your wit, your laughter, your tears, for the best and biggest work in the world." In an increasingly large measure, leaders are helping girlhood to answer this call in that G. A.'s show a net increase of 39 organizations. In gifts, they exceeded 1934's record, the total for 1935 being $6,421.51. A splendid record indeed! November 8-10 were days long to be remembered by North Carolina G. A.'s, for North Carolina girlhood, in all its gaiety, loveliness, and eagerness, heard again the call of Woman's Missionary Union to a girl's heart: "Awake to conditions about you, even unto the ends of the earth." A host of girls, 180, and a goodly number of counselors gathered for our annual G. A. House Party at Meredith College. Miss Alda Grayson and Rev. H. H. McMillan, both missionaries to China, deeply impressed G. A.'s with their attractive and powerful presentation of China's need for Christ and how our girlhood can help meet this need. The coronation service so beautifully done by the Girls' Auxiliary of Allen Street Baptist Church in Charlotte deepened our convictions concerning the Forward Steps of G. A. Counselors of Girls' Auxiliaries, let us have more Queens in 1936! Because of the increased enrollment at Meredith College, it seems wise to change the annual G. A. House Party from the fall to the early summer. The 1936 G. A. House Party will be held at Meredith College, June 15-18.

"Ah! who can measure the promise of truth when planted in the fertile soil of a childish heart! Plant the truth, that Christ came to save the world through the faithfulness of His followers, in the hearts of the boys and girls alike, alike, I say, and I would emphasize the word, for far too often we forget the boys, content if we can interest and train the girls—and then if summoned to lay down your life, go content to know your good work will live and multiply, spread, deepen, and widen to the outer verge of time." How needful are these words as we consider Royal Ambassador work in our State! Our "Ambassadors for Christ" did not make any gains in 1935, but they held their own in a splendid manner. They gave to all objects $4,150.08. Their annual Conclave, which met with the First Baptist Church of Gastonia, November 1-3, was characterized by earnestness, reverence, and missionary enthusiasm. The First Baptist Church royally entertained 155 Royal Ambassadors and a goodly number of counselors. Prominent pastors and two great missionaries, Dr. W. C. Taylor, of Brazil, and Rev. H. H. McMillan, of China, impressed upon our boyhood the privileges and responsibilities of being a true ambassador of Christ. At this Conclave, Dr. O. G. Tillman, then pastor of the Cary Baptist Church, was reelected State R. A. Counselor. He has recently accepted a pastorate in Florida, and thus we are without a State Counselor at present. We wish here to express our grateful appreciation to Dr. Tillman for his deep interest and excellent advice in R. A. work. The Dunn Baptist Church extends a gracious invitation to North Carolina Royal Ambassadors to meet with them for their 1936 Conclave. We gladly accept this invitation, and R. A.'s and counselors everywhere will anticipate eagerly the joy of being the guests of Rev. E. Norfleet Gardner, his enthusiastic Intermediate R. A.'s, and the hospitable people of Dunn. Royal Ambassadors, let us rally to the leadership of our great Captain and write a worthy record in 1936!

As Miss Heck thought of young womanhood, she spoke in this manner: "And last of the heavenly visions which I shall name, gleams the vision of our young women rising, strong panoplied, eager, and as one coming to our aid." Young Woman's Auxiliary made an enviable record in 1935, increasing in number from 408 Auxiliaries to 424, and contributing $15,681.64 to all causes, a gain over 1934's record. Again, at least 200 Y. W. A.'s lifted their eyes toward the "eternal hills" for our annual Southwide Y. W. A. Camp at Ridgecrest. And who can measure the results in deepened consecration, widened horizons, enlarged missionary vision, as girls imbibe the spirit of outstanding denominational leaders and missionaries from near and far? Could we not have every Association represented in our 1936 Camp? Let us work toward that goal.

In spite of severe handicaps, approximately 635 young people entered our 1935 Stewardship Declamation Contest. In view of conditions, this was a splendid accomplishment, but we earnestly desire that every Association will have its Contest, the Associational young people's leader and stewardship chairman encouraging every church to enter as many contestants as possible. The winners in the State were as follows: Intermediate G. A., Bess Orrell, of Winter Park Church, Wilmington; Intermediate R. A., William Dillard, Sylva; and Y. W. A., Elizabeth Campbell, Hickory.

Who will represent North Carolina at the Southwide Contest at Ridgecrest? To these young people and their counselors, we extend congratulations.

Our Anne Hasseltine Y. W. A.'s brought joy to our heart because of splendid work during the past college year. Four of them—Mars Hill, Meredith, Chowan, and Fruitland—did A-1 work. Woman's College is to be commended for the excellent Y. W. A. work done on the campus, although it seemed impossible to reach 50 per cent of Baptist students. It was a joy indeed to have Miss Pearle Bourne, Associate Southwide Young People's Secretary, travel with me for two weeks, touching seven colleges and several Associations. In her quiet, lovely manner, she greatly impressed our college Y. W. A.'s with her beautiful presentation of the missionary enterprise.

Our Grace McBride Y. W. A. at our Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem took on "new life" during 1935, and we feel sure that the good women of Winston-Salem will take special care of our one Grace McBride Y. W. A.

In last year's report a special plea was made for more mission study among our young people and the following is the record of classes: Y. W. A., 245; G. A., 179; R. A., 95; S. B., 124. Total, 643. Can we not improve this greatly during 1936?

Thus ends my first eleven months as your young people's secretary. Unspeakable joy fills my heart as I contemplate the blessings of the past year. You have graciously received me in your homes, in your churches and Associations.

Divisional young people's leaders and Associational young people's leaders have been helpful and coöperative. Indeed, this report is the work of your hands and I am grateful for each of you.

"If you cannot leave your footprints on the sands of time, write your Master's name on the granite of eternity. If you rear no palace for Him here, build in these young souls His temple, which will outlast time and be coeval with eternity." So said Miss Fannie E. S. Heck. Looking unto Him who covets our youth for Himself, let us gird ourselves for the days ahead, and so lead youth in the pathway of love and service that it may be said of each of us, "She was a burning and shining light."

Hymn for the year—"Lead On, O King Eternal."

Address—"The Fifth Decade of Organized Work," Mrs. Wesley N. Jones.

FIFTH DECADE—1926-1936

When history narrows down to a period of ten years it is difficult to estimate the relative value and influence of events.

Mrs. Edna R. Harris was elected Corresponding Secretary at the meeting in Raleigh in 1926, Miss Mary Warren (Mrs. H. T. Stevens) sending in her resignation. Mrs. Harris has served through this period and has brought to the work unusual qualifications and ability. Her love of people and untiring energy as she has traveled from one section of the State to another have brought large returns in awakened interest and enthusiasm. The field work of the Union has greatly developed through her service, as many as forty-five or fifty Associational meetings have been attended by her each year.

Our organization is most complete, with an Executive Committee composed of the officers of the Union and sixteen members from the several churches in Raleigh. Five Divisions each with a leader, holding an annual meeting with organizations similar to the State W. M. Union, and sixty Associational organizations, some having separate young people's organizations and holding annual meetings. We have enrolled 2,913 societies and 52,185 members.

The Seventy-Five Million Campaign was followed by a period of debt and depression. The North Carolina Woman's Missionary Union paid more than the quota assigned to it, but that was not true of our Southern Baptist Convention as a whole. With the campaign for increased gifts for mission work there was a movement for enlargement along all lines. New buildings were erected, hardly a church in our State but made improvements on their building and equipment. Many had undertaken more than they were able to finish without incurring large debts. Meredith College had been moved to a new site and new buildings erected and the Baptist State Convention issued bonds for this purpose. At the W. M. U. annual meeting in 1926, a resolution was offered in which the W. M. U. pledged themselves to endeavor to raise the one million dollar indebtedness on this institution through W. M. U. organizations appealing directly to the churches. This was done because of the conviction that until this debt on our Convention was paid the mission work of the Convention would be seriously handicapped.

This offer was rejected by the Convention, fortunately for the Woman's Missionary Union it seems today, and other plans were devised for meeting this bond issue. Through the Coöperative Program in our State the W. M. U. is giving annually an amount for debt service, and one year the Heck Memorial Offering, $12,307.55, was given to the Convention Debt.

The meeting at Wilmington in 1927 is memorable for the unusual snowstorm, perhaps the deepest ever in that section of the State. With deepest gratitude we record that notwithstanding our meetings have been held in March each year the weather, with few exceptions, has been good.

Mrs. W. M. Gilmore was elected Recording Secretary of the Union in 1926 and served most faithfully and efficiently until her removal to Nashville, Tenn. Mrs. W. D. Briggs, our present Recording Secretary, was elected to succeed her.

The year 1928 marked the fortieth anniversary of the organization of the W. M. Union, Auxiliary to Southern Baptist Convention and in keeping with their plans made for this our Ruby Anniversary Year, we took the following objectives—a ten per cent increase in the membership of existing societies, a forty per cent increase in organizations, and a gift of $401,600.00. We did not reach these aims, our gifts for the Ruby Anniversary Year reached $345,199.99, the largest amount we have ever given in any one year.

The program at our Annual Meeting in Asheville was memorable. Mrs. Carter Wright, of Roanoke, Ala., field worker of the Southern W. M. Union, made an address, using the theme—"If I Had Only Known," which had much to do with the increased offering of the year. Dr. J. Clyde Turner, of Greensboro, who has so loyally supported the W. M. Union, preached the annual sermon. His theme was "The Expectant Christ," with Heb. 10:11-14 as the text.

Dr. Charles E. Maddry, Miss Juliet Mather, Mrs. Taul White, Miss Emma Leachman, and Miss Martha Sullivan brought most helpful and interesting messages. It was our great privilege at this time to have the following missionaries as our guests: Mrs. D. W. Herring, Mrs. S. E. Ayers, Mrs. Valeria P. Greene, Miss Rose Marlowe, Miss Naomi Schell, Miss Alda Grayson, Mrs. L. B. Olive, Mrs. M. T. Rankin, and Mrs. Milton Braun, a most unusual and happy experience.

At the close of the meeting many of the delegates went to Winston-Salem, where, on Friday, March the ninth, the Blanche Barrus Nurses' Home at our Baptist Hospital was dedicated. The exercises were opened with a song by the nurses—"All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." Dr. S. H. Templeman offered prayer, Dr. G. T. Lumpkin, Superintendent of the Hospital, made a brief talk on "Our Need for a Nurses' Home." Mrs. J. J. Roddick, Trustee of the Hospital, representing the Woman's Missionary Union, spoke on "The Woman's Missionary Union and the Nurses' Home," and Dr. R. T. Vann made the dedication address and Dr. J. R. Jester the dedicatory prayer. Copies of the addresses, a Bible, the minutes of the Woman's Missionary Union, and copies of papers were placed in the corner stone and the keys of the building were presented to Mr. E. L. Davis, Chairman of Board of Trustees of the Hospital. The exercises were concluded by singing "Onward, Christian Soldiers," and a benediction by Dr. Livingston Johnson, Editor of the Biblical Recorder. Only a small part of the money invested in the beautiful building was contributed by the Woman's Missionary Union, but the gifts of the Union coming at the time they did made the building possible.

No more fitting memorial could have been made to the memory of Blanche Barrus, our Corresponding Secretary from 1911-1916, who entered into eternal rest November 23, 1922.

Miss Barrus was under appointment of the Northern Board to a hospital post in India when she was stricken with a fatal illness. Beautiful in person, more beautiful in spirit, her memory lives in the hearts of North Carolina Woman's Missionary Union.

The thirty-ninth annual session was held in the Green Street Church, High Point. The year had marked the appointment of field workers, made possible by a fund appropriated to W. M. Union by the Sunday School Board in Nashville, Tennessee. An amount equal to that given by the Board was to be raised in the locality desiring this help.

Miss Gertrude Mattison served for ten months; for the summer months, Miss Bettie Tunstall in Tar River Association, Miss Lois Miller in Liberty, Miss Cora Lee Cannon in Pilot Mountain, and Miss Della Huggins in Tennessee River, Western North Carolina, and West Liberty. The combined work of these field workers was homes visited, 531; churches visited, 265; talks made, 295; letters written, 684; study classes, 121; societies organized and revived, 139; miles traveled, 6,364. Surely a worth while and lasting effort.

Again we had a notable program at the annual meeting, with Dr. J. Powell Tucker, of Raleigh, preaching the sermon, and Mrs. W. J. Cox, President of our Southern Union, speaking on "A World Eye View of Missions" in her incomparable way. Dr. Francis Pendleton Gaines, President of Wake Forest College, who used as his theme "A Generation of Seekers," and Miss Clara I. Cox, of High Point, speaking on Inter-racial Work in North Carolina, and Mrs. Janie Cree Bose, representing our W. M. U. Training School, on "The Love of Christ Constraineth Us."

Miss Dorothy Kellam, who had served most efficiently as Young People's leader, offered her resignation, and Miss Alva Lawrence, of Apex, was elected to succeed her. The program presented at this session by Miss Kellam using the thought "Come Clasp Children's Hands" was most attractive and impressive. During her term of service, Miss Kellam, by her attractive personality and charm of manner, made a most favorable impression on the young people in North Carolina.

In 1904 the Union met in Elizabeth City with forty-eight delegates. In 1930 we met there again, but with 431 delegates and 293 visitors, a total of 724. The devotional was conducted by Miss Blanche White, Corresponding Secretary of W. M. U. of Virginia, whose messages are an unfailing source of inspiration.

Mrs. G. R. Martin, Stewardship Chairman of W. M. U., Southern Baptist Convention, spoke most effectively on stewardship, and Miss Kathleen Mallory, Corresponding Secretary of Woman's Missionary Union, Southern Baptist Convention, and Mrs. C. K. Dozier, Fukuoka, Japan, were the speakers at the Thursday morning sessions. There stands out preëminently the leading and blessing of God as we recall these meetings of our W. M. Union. There was much prayer in their preparation and without fail there was the special providence in the speakers and the messages they brought to our Union.

One of the trying experiences of the past ten years was the falling off in gifts that was our experience in the period we have gotten accustomed to calling the depression. We were so happy in the report made in High Point of $345,199.99, then the next year our receipts fell to $284,774.97. By 1931 the total was $250,985.53, and now at the close of the fifth decade we have not quite reached $200,000.00. It was small consolation that other mission boards and other states were having a similar experience. It was a time that tried our faith and courage. The last four annual meetings of this period were held in Greensboro, 1932, in Winston-Salem, 1933, Rocky Mount, 1934, and Durham, 1935, with most attractive programs and large attendance. At the meeting in Durham there were present 762 delegates and 677 visitors, a total attendance of 1,439, the largest number enrolled in any one of our sessions. Mrs. Frank W. Armstrong, President of W. M. U., Auxiliary to Southern Baptist Convention, was the speaker on Thursday morning, bringing a message from the World's Alliance meeting in Berlin and telling something of her visits to European mission fields. Miss Ida Patterson, of Shanghai, China, was an honored guest and brought a memorable message. The W. M. Union has worked through this entire period in complete harmony with the W. M. U. of Southern Baptist Convention. Miss Fannie E. S. Heck was the Vice-President of North Carolina until she was elected President of the Union. Miss Susan Clark (Mrs. Ernest Erwin) succeeded her and served until Mrs. W. N. Jones was elected in 1908. Mrs. Jones served until Miss Blanche Barrus succeeded her in 1913—serving until 1915, when Mrs. Jones was reelected Vice-President.

North Carolina Woman's Missionary Union ranks third in our Southern Woman's Missionary Union in gifts, Virginia and Texas coming first and second. Our Young Woman's Auxiliary is second, our Girls' Auxiliary second, Royal Ambassadors second, and Sunbeams second. In number of organizations we are third, in members fourth.

From the day the first Central Committee meeting was held in the office of the editor of the Biblical Recorder in January, 1886, to the present time, the Biblical Recorder with all its influence has stood behind the work of the Woman's Missionary Union. The editors have not only worked for us and spoken for us, but they have given us one page of the paper each week. The money value of this in forty years would be nearly two hundred thousand dollars. Our large accomplishments would not have been possible without this help, and we most gratefully acknowledge our indebtedness to them. We would record our very great appreciation of the services rendered us by Dr. Livingston Johnson, who, as Corresponding Secretary of the Baptist State Convention and Editor of the Biblical Recorder, was untiring in his efforts in our behalf. The Woman's Missionary Union would not occupy the position it does today but for him.

To the Corresponding Secretaries who have served during these fifty years, seven in number, we would express for the Union our love and deep appreciation for their interest and loyal support.

Early in our work we selected as our motto, "For Ye Serve the Lord Christ," and that has been the motive power of our service through the years. It has been by His power and led by His guiding hand that we have gone to what we believed our divinely appointed task, and today we would say with deep humility and thankful hearts in the words of the Psalmist, "Thine, O Lord, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the victory. Now, therefore, our God we thank Thee and praise Thy glorious name."

We would acknowledge the indebtedness of your officers to the faithful women all over the State who make up our Woman's Missionary Union. It would be impossible to estimate their splendid service or to say how large a part of the success of the Woman's Missionary Union these fifty years is due to them. Its accomplishments are their accomplishments, its success their success. All through the years the members of our Executive Committee have given themselves unsparingly to your work. Regardless of rain, cold, or heat, or holidays, when the regular time of meeting comes, they are in their places, unless providentially detained, ready to give their best to the work which occupies so large a place in their hearts.

In the period from 1926 to 1936 the gifts of the Union amounted to $2,363,592.64. In the entire period from 1886-1936, the total was $5,001,291.54. Words fail me to express my appreciation for the privilege you have given me of fifty years of active service in the work of our Woman's Missionary Union, nor the joy and blessing the work has brought to my life. I thank you for your love and loyalty. Not one dissension has marred the work in all this long period of service. Always we have wanted to do the thing that God wanted, His will has been ours, so there has been unity.

To all who have labored with us for the advancement of the Kingdom of God in this our day and generation we would say:

The Lord bless thee and keep thee

The Lord make His face shine upon thee and be gracious unto thee

The Lord lift up His countenance on thee and give thee peace.

Distribution of booklet—Fifty Years of Organized Work.

Mrs. Ira D. S. Knight, of Durham, read resolutions in appreciation of the work of Mrs. Jones during her fifty years of service for the W. M. U. Adopted.

RESOLUTIONS OF APPRECIATION

We, the Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, offer the following resolutions:

First. We praise and bless the Lord for these fifty years of organized service in His Kingdom work, for the things we have been permitted to accomplish in His name, and for the growth which He has given us.

Second. We would give thanks for those who have composed our organization through these years, and for the unity and harmony that has marked our work. We offer thanks for each woman who has had any slight part in our Woman's Missionary Union, for members and officers of societies, for our faithful Associational Superintendents and officers, for members of the State Executive Committee, and for the officers of our State Union.

Third. Especially at this Fiftieth Anniversary would we offer thanks for the two who have served as Presidents of our State Union. For the life, influence, and guidance of Miss Fannie E. S. Heck, our first President, do we give grateful praise. After serving twenty-nine years she was called to the heavenly home. Our present President, Mrs. Wesley N. Jones, has served in this office twenty years. She has been connected with the work since the beginning in 1886. Starting as a young girl, just out of school, she has remained on the Executive Committee for fifty years. During this time she has been Corresponding Secretary, Treasurer, and is now President. Her devotion to the cause of missions has never wavered. With a mind quick to grasp the far-reaching effect of any plan, and accurate in her decisions for things that should be attempted, and refusal of proposals unwise to adopt, she has been a leader whose judgment is followed with confidence and loyalty. Expressions fail when we try to speak of our appreciation and devotion to her in this fiftieth year of service. Her wisdom has been our guide and her spiritual leadership has been our inspiration. We would from our hearts offer thanks to our Heavenly Father for giving us such a leader in the formative years of our Union, and for the success that has attended her leadership. We pray that Divine blessings may continue to rest upon her and upon all of us as we join her in service in the years ahead.

Realizing that the greatest testimonial we can offer our President, Mrs. Jones, is our renewed devotion to the Master whom she serves, and the spread of His Kingdom for which she labors, we would pledge ourselves anew to our Lord and to His cause throughout the world.

Reports of Divisional Superintendents—

Asheville Division, Mrs. J. R. Morgan, of Waynesville.

REPORT OF ASHEVILLE DIVISION

The seventh consecutive year we bring the results of the harvest in Western North Carolina. In some respects, perhaps, this has been our best year. Our associational meetings were well attended for the most part, and our spirit of coöperation good. Perhaps a larger per cent of societies made fuller reports than ever before.

Our divisional meeting, held in one extreme corner of the Division, was, as to time and place, an experiment. A larger number of the Associations were represented than ever before, and the attendance good. Our visiting speakers, as well as our program as a whole, were most helpful and very well received. Mrs. Una Roberts Lawrence, Dr. E. Gibson Davis, and Miss Naomi Schell created rivaling interest in their contributions to our day. Mrs. Bunn Olive, who was soon to leave our midst, returning to her mission field, suggested by her presence and humility our renewed interest in praying for China.

Our apportionment, still entirely too small, we exceeded by $3,224.64. All except three of the associations made five per cent increase over 1934 gifts. Five associations failed to reach their apportionments.

The Buncombe Association gave $2,607.16 over her apportionment, which was the largest per cent over apportionment of any Association. Buncombe has done excellent work through quarterly associational meetings, at which times the objects of the quarters have been ably presented. The Buncombe Superintendent, Mrs. D. C. Martin, speaks of splendid coöperation from helpers and pastors.

The Haywood, Mrs. James H. Haynes, Superintendent, made the second largest gift as well as the second largest increase, having passed her apportionment by $527.15. Mrs. Haynes plans wisely and well.

The Macon Association deserves a special mention for having sent the largest delegation to the divisional meeting ever sent by an Association. She passed her apportionment by a small margin, and Mrs. Sam Gibson, Superintendent, is as optimistic and faithful as one could be. She is laying plans for schools of missions and says Macon's hopes are as "bright as the promises of God" for strengthening missions.

Mrs. J. L. Underwood, of the Western North Carolina Association, is doing, under God's guidance, excellent work.

All Associations reported splendid meetings during the summer, several are emphasizing young people's work more and are increasing their auxiliaries. One of our handicaps is an ever changing of superintendents and young people's leaders. We welcome our new superintendents, Mrs. M. H. Holliday of Transylvania, Mrs. N. G. Pittman of Mitchell, and Mrs. J. A. Watson of Yancey. We trust that they may emulate the examples of Mrs. R. L. Moore of the French Broad and Mrs. J. L. Qualls of Three Forks in faithfulness and length of term.

Mrs. J. C. Owen, of Spruce Pine, is serving us as Mission Study Chairman, and is ever glad, out of the richness of her experience and love, to aid any society or associational mission study chairman with her problems, and to hear of her successes.

The efforts of Mrs. Eugene Coker, Divisional Young People's Leader, to lay the work of the young people on women's hearts is worthy and encouraging. She keeps in touch with associational young people's leaders and helps them. She puts on the Stewardship Contests in a great way. The responses have been such that she has held for two years past two preliminary divisional contests in different sections in order to reduce the number and not make the final contest too long. Her service is invaluable to the work.

The Stewardship Contest winners were: Intermediate G. A., Carolyn Shipp, Carolina Association; Intermediate R. A., William Broadus Dillard, Sylva; Junior G. A., Claire Cox, Carolina; Junior R. A., J. T. Rice, Buncombe. William Broadus Dillard won in State Intermediate R. A. Contest in Gastonia. Buncombe led in the number of contestants entering associational contests. The Carolina carried away the largest number of winners from the Division. A special mention is due the young people's leaders of these associations and churches. Mothers, too, play an important role.

Much of the rural work has been greatly handicapped by the severe weather and impassable roads. No doubt our Lottie Moon Christmas Offerings and final reports were cut largely this way. Some quarterly meetings were held in snowy and icy weather. Others were impossible because roads were too bad for use.

Mrs. J. F. Brooks, of Hendersonville, has seen marvelous opportunities for personal service this extreme winter, and, where she could find who was associational chairman of personal service, has shared her ideas and met with success.

We greet, thankfully, those fine young pastors who are helping in so many ways that the work may go on, as well as giving their presence in our associational and divisional meetings. They are realizing the helpfulness of W. M. U. to their churches. Several new Seminary men have recently come to us.

Checking what we have done against what we had planned to do, and realizing that we will be held accountable for what we could have done, we fear lest we hear our Master say, "Ye did it not."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. R. MORGAN,
Divisional Superintendent.

Charlotte Division, Mrs. B. K. Mason, Winston-Salem.

REPORT OF CHARLOTTE DIVISION

The past year has been one of unusual activity in the Charlotte Division. Our hearts are filled with joy and thanksgiving to God for His blessings upon our work, as we have tried to witness for Him in our Judea. We have faced each task with courage, optimism, and earnest endeavor to go forward along all lines, realizing anew the truth of our watchword, "Laborers together with God."

When we come to review the achievements of Woman's Missionary Union for the last half-century, we are reminded of the faith, courage, and vision of our leaders in those early days. They have been steadfast in aims and purpose from year to year. God has been leading on. They planned for growth, and marvelous growth has come! Through toil, sacrifice, organization, and enlistment of women and young people, we have come into a glorious heritage; our own Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, a part of the greatest organization for women in the world. We wonder what the record will be when we shall have rounded out a century of service.

To our faithful leader and President of the Woman's Missionary Union, who has given herself so unreservedly to the work for fifty years, we, the women of Charlotte Division, would pay our tribute of love, appreciation, and loyal devotion.

We would not fail to mention here another name that will always be loved and honored by our women; one whose period of service almost spans the life of the division, that of Mrs. Lila L. Henry. It was largely to her spirit of leadership that growth and development has come to us. In 1934 the women voted to establish a memorial to her at Wingate College; a gift of more than $500 has been made to the building fund and over 2,000 books contributed to the library. Completing this memorial, a bronze tablet, bearing her name and date of service will be placed in the library this year.

In June of last year the first Superintendents' and Officers' Clinic was held in Western Avenue Church, Statesville. The program for the day consisted largely of conferences on various phases of our work. Mrs. J. J. Roddick had charge of superintendents; Mrs. R. K. Redwine, mission study; Miss Mary Currin, young people's work. Miss Sara Funderburk brought the inspirational message at the close of the morning session. In the afternoon a general conference for all the workers, conducted by Mrs. Edna R. Harris, proved very helpful. Sixteen associations were represented, with 125 in attendance.

The annual meeting of Charlotte Division was held in Winston-Salem, October 22. Mrs. Nettie Hoge, of the Greensboro Division, sounded the keynote for the day's program in her morning devotional, "Witnessing How, When, and Where." It was an unusual privilege to have three of our State officers with us, contributing much to our program. Mrs. Una Roberts Lawrence, our south-wide mission study chairman, spoke to us in the morning on "Mission Study," and at night on "Home Missions," illustrated by moving pictures.

Miss Catherine Tatum, Young People's Leader, had a part of the afternoon program. We are grateful for her splendid work with the young people's contests; ten associations participated; 96 young people enrolled. Miss Rachel Leonard, Margaret Fund student from Meredith, was present and spoke on "Witnessing in College." Our superintendents from twenty-two Associations make this report possible today. Again we congratulate the King's Mountain, the only Association that reaches the Standard from year to year. Most of us know from experience that it is easier to reach the goal the first year than to keep it up continually. They had the largest number of young people in the contests and the only one that observed an association-wide day of prayer in December. They met this year at First Church, Shelby. Dr. Fuller preached in the morning and Miss Alda Grayson spoke in the afternoon. All testify to the spirituality of that meeting. The Pilot Mountain again leads in Schools of Missions; seven being reported. Through Mission Study they organize and foster weak societies and strengthen the work.

The Catawba River and Yadkin report successful contests with the young people and as a result the women are enlisted and more tithers enrolled.

The Pee Dee has outstanding work in Mission Study and their special work was canning fruit for the Mills Home.

Liberty Association has one church, New Friendship, that has a full graded A-1 Union for the second year, had increase in Christmas offering, and for the first time took part in the stewardship contests with four contestants winning the prizes.

Mecklenburg enjoys the distinction of having organizations in all of its churches and reports they have enlisted the men in Mission Study.

Gaston has the largest number of young people's organizations reported—51, and has an increasing number of societies observing the seasons of prayer.

Stanly has reached just half its goal, organizations in half of its churches. They sent a large delegation to annual meeting, who no doubt will be busy in the new year among their churches that have no organizations.

Sandy Run reports a new plan of Mission Study, which must have been far reaching in its influence: An Association-wide Mission Study taught by the pastors. This might be a good plan in other Associations.

The Alleghany, Ashe, Surry, Montgomery, and Brushy Mountain have each reported splendid work, each having its own problem of organization and enlistment. May they go forward enlisting their great groups of women and young people for service in our W. M. U.

The Union Association, South Fork, Rowan, and South Yadkin are laying much stress upon the quarterly meetings. Many studying the Year Book in the first quarter of the year, which means a better understanding and new interest in plans of W. M. U. for the new year.

The Divisional Stewardship Contests were held last year at Salisbury, in Rowan Association. They are invited this year to go to Lincolnton, in the South Fork Association, on the fourth Sunday in August. We hope a larger number of young people will take part this year, many being hindered the past year because of quarantine.

Two new Associations have been organized in our territory during the year. The Brier Creek had its organization meeting in September, with the help of Rev. and Mrs. Eugene Olive and the women of their church, who helped with the program and plans for organization; they were formally organized with Mrs. J. M. Wright as Superintendent. Their goal for the year is a Mission Study Class in every organization and to organize their young people.

The Cabarrus Association, our youngest Association from standpoint of organization, had its first meeting in November. Mrs. Harris taught the Year Book. They had an afternoon and evening session with a good attendance. Mrs. L. R. Crooks, the new Superintendent, and the women of this Association have extended an invitation to the Charlotte Division to hold our annual meeting in the First Baptist Church of Concord in October. I am asked to say for them, "that they are looking forward to our coming."

The Charlotte Division, since its organization in 1916, has grown from 17 Associations to 23, only one in our territory not organized. We are looking longingly and lovingly over the line at the Alexander. All the results of our work cannot be tabulated but we mention a few things accomplished during these years. Our women have had a part in supporting Miss Alda Grayson, trained nurse, in China, contributed to the salary of Miss Earl Hester, missionary to Roumania for two years, and have supported a Bible woman to help Mr. McMullan in his work. In 1922 sent the first operating table and baby bed to Kathleen Mallory Hospital, made possible a number of scholarships to Wingate, and this year gave a love offering to the Negrins and the storm sufferers in Cuba of $42.28; to help provide a vacation for a State missionary in Hyde County—$110.00.

The new officers of our Division are already rendering fine service—Mrs. S. J. Beeker in Stewardship; Miss Sara Funderburk in Mission Study; Miss Mabel Beeker in young people's work. We feel that the opportunity for each of these officers in their various fields is unlimited.

The work of the past challenges us in our new day of opportunity to build wisely and well upon the foundation laid by those who have preceded us. May each individual this year feel anew the responsibility of the task at home, and the urge of the Great Commission to go into all the world with our prayers, our gifts, and our service, that the Kingdom may come in the hearts of men.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. B. K. MASON,
Division Superintendent.

Elizabeth City Division, Mrs. E. B. Beasley, Fountain.

REPORT OF ELIZABETH CITY DIVISION

Again we come with the annual report of the W. M. U. work in the Elizabeth City Division. We point with just pride to the steady activities and the steady growth in every phase of our work, realizing that the increase has been due to the untiring services of those whose only compensation has been unceasing loyalty, unselfish devotion, and persevering service. Our women have felt that it is a far nobler pursuit in life to minister than to be ministered unto, and because of this spirit, this report has been made possible.

The work of the Atlantic Association is making marked progress under the direction of Mrs. J. L. Hodges, of New Bern. Their gifts exceeded their apportionment by $600.00 and there has been a consistent growth in the membership and the number of new organizations. Especially is the work with the young people being stressed.

Mrs. J. E. White, the new Superintendent of the Chowan Association, reports a splendid year. Again this Association leads in the number of A-1 organizations, having 47 out of 99 in this list, and there is a tie between the West Chowan and Chowan in the number of Standard organizations; each has 98. Hobbsville and Shiloh are among the full graded A-1 W. M. U.'s. The young people are still very enthusiastic about the tithing contest, and there is an increase in the gifts given in this Association.

Mrs. Fred Harrell, of Goldsboro, continues to lead the work in the Neuse Association. In spite of the small number of organizations, unusual progress is being made. Personal Service and Mission Study are two of the chief interests. The young people's leader, Miss Ethel Liles, has meant much to the work with the Junior societies.

Mrs. R. C. Josey, Jr., of Scotland Neck, the faithful leader of the Roanoke, reports a good year. This Association has six county groups, which hold a meeting once each year. These meetings are well attended and prove an inspiration to those who attend. The gifts this year show an increase of about $1,500.00 over the preceding year. Enfield and Roanoke Rapids have full graded A-1 W. M. U. work.

The good work in the West Chowan goes on, with Mrs. R. M. Maddrey, of Seaboard, as leader. This Association takes just pride in the support of its missionary, Miss Pearle Johnson, and this year gave her an additional love offering of $75.00. It, too, reports a marked increase in its gifts, and, as stated above, ties with the Chowan in the number of Standard organizations. Ahoskie and Creekville have full graded A-1 work.

The Pamlico has had the misfortune to change Superintendents three times during the year. Mrs. J. J. Johnson, of Belhaven, has very recently taken charge of the work, and we feel that her enthusiasm will be contagious, and in another year we will be hearing of their prideful accomplishments. They are proud of their increase in gifts during the year.

All Associations are interested in Mission Study, there being an increase in the number of classes in nearly every one. The need for personal service has been large and our women have been uplifted in trying to answer the calls, not only those for material sustenance, but they have tried to satisfy the spiritual hunger. The work with the young people has grown. There are more Junior organizations, and they are doing a finer grade of work. Each counsel or leader is trying to accept with fortitude the responsibility these young people present to us, and is finding it a privilege to lead and direct them. We believe in the youth of today as fine, sane, and splendid, and we accept the challenge they offer us to teach, to build, to educate for the advancement of His Kingdom.

Our Divisional meeting was held with the Bethel Church, Chowan Association, on October 17. This was the best attended meeting in the history of our Division. The reports were informing and encouraging. Dr. Hudson McMillan spoke most interestingly on the work in China; Mrs. Una Roberts Lawrence brought a message on the needs and work in the Southland. We were delighted to have with us also Mrs. Edna R. Harris and Mrs. W. N. Jones.

Each of us may be justly proud of every report that we have helped make possible and true to the spirit of those women who have labored before us, and whose responsibility we have inherited. May we be forward-looking for the tomorrow, rise on our toes, never rest on our heels; like soldiers on duty may we accept the necessity, meet the opportunities with courage and serve always with continued devotion that the work may go on. With a sense of the great power we hold, I urge each of you to become more conscious in fostering the love of that which is our proud and priceless possession, organized W. M. U. work for the coming of the Kingdom.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. E. B. BEASLEY,
Superintendent.

Wilmington Division, Miss Macy Cox, Magnolia.

REPORT OF WILMINGTON DIVISION

The Wilmington Division has had many losses and gains during 1935. God has called many from lives of activity to come up higher and dwell with Him, but has added other workers to fill vacancies and we rejoice that the work goes on, and in every Association there is some line of progress.

We have lost some organizations, but gained others, and reports show a net increase of 30 societies.

Bladen Association reports net loss of 3, Brunswick 5, Cape Fear-Columbus 6. Burnt Swamp shows net increase of 4, Eastern 2, Johnston 5, Little River 1, New South River 7, Robeson 6, Wilmington 5.

Burnt Swamp, Eastern, Johnston, Little River, Robeson, and Wilmington reached their financial goal.

Johnston and Wilmington made 10 points on Standard of Excellence, Bladen, Burnt Swamp, and Eastern 8, Cape Fear-Columbus, Little River, New South River, and Robeson 7. Brunswick did not report on Standard. On account of infantile paralysis, only Burnt Swamp, Eastern, Little River, and Wilmington had Stewardship Declamation Contests.

The Divisional Contest was held with the Baptist church in Dunn, first Sunday afternoon in October. The Divisional Superintendent made opening and closing remarks and the contest was conducted by the Divisional Stewardship Chairman, Mrs. J. E. Lanier, of Wallace, and Young People's Leader, Mrs. C. R. Hinton, of Tabor. The State winners were as follows: Intermediate G. A., Bess Orrell, Wilmington; Intermediate R. A., William Dillard, Sylva; Y. W. A., Elizabeth Campbell, Hickory.

Eight Associations sent gifts to our Margaret Fund student, Miss Mary Faye McMillan, and to our Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem.

Wilmington continues to provide scholarship at our W. M. U. Training School. Twenty-two "Margarets" were enrolled for the "Memory Book" through the efforts of Mrs. G. E. Lovell, Margaret Fund Chairman.

The annual divisional meeting was held in the Baptist church in Whiteville, October 15, and was the best in the history of the Wilmington Divisional meetings. The blessings brought to us through Mrs. W. N. Jones, Mrs. Edna R. Harris, and Miss Mary Currin, of Raleigh, and Mrs. Una Roberts Lawrence, of Kansas City, Mo., can never be estimated. Mrs. Laurence told of the great need of a new car for Rev. Donato Ruiz, one of our Home Missionaries for the Mexicans in Texas. Immediate and unanimous decision was made that the Wilmington Division would give the car. Every Association has contributed and the car was presented December 9.

The Divisional Banner has been won by Eastern and Robeson only, and they decided in 1934 to withdraw, and in 1935 to present it to the Association having next largest number of churches with five grades. Mrs. I. P. Hedgpeth, of Lumberton, presented it to Mrs. E. N. Gardner, Superintendent of Little River Association, having seven churches with five grades.

Two hundred and fifty Mission Study classes were held, Robeson leading with 55, Johnston next, with 49. Burnt Swamp deserves mention, with 25 churches and 16 classes.

Miss Katie Murray, who has been supported by the W. M. U. of the Eastern Association since 1929, is at home now but will return to her evangelistic work in China this year and the Eastern will continue her support.

We are fortunate to have Mrs. C. R. Hinton for new Young People's leader. Two new Superintendents were elected, Mrs. R. C. Foster in the Eastern and Mrs. E. N. Gardner in Little River.

May our Heavenly Father plan the work for the Wilmington Division and use each member in His own way and for His own glory in 1936.

Respectfully submitted,

MACY COX,

Division Superintendent.

Greensboro Division, Mrs. J. M. Whitted, Durham.

ACHIEVEMENTS IN GREENSBORO DIVISION

In presenting the achievements in our Division to this Convention I feel sure that every one who has had a part in this great work of helping to bring in the Kingdom of God would say from the bottom of their heart—"Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow," for in "serving the Lord Jesus Christ we could do nothing without the guidance of His blessed Holy Spirit."

It is a very great privilege to have a small part in the work of our Woman's Missionary Union.

At the Annual State W. M. U. Meeting in March, 1917, the Executive Board recommended that our five Vice-Presidents serve as leaders of their respective Divisions. They were asked to hold Institutes and to assist the Associational Superintendents in every way possible.

Mrs. H. C. Moore was Superintendent and reported the contributions for 1916 as $10,977.98.

Since then our contributions have increased, as well as W. M. S. and young people's organizations.

In contributions to missions we reached the largest amount in 1928, which was $100,139.97. Since that time we have been slipping back; however, I think we are on the increase. Total contributions since organization, $229,640.41; 1935 total, $60,595.96.

We have three new Superintendents—Raleigh Association, Mrs. L. L. Morgan, Cary; Randolph, Mrs. M. T. Lambert, Asheboro; Sandy Creek, Mrs. R. H. Weaver, Bonlee. We also have a new mission study leader, Mrs. A. C. Howell, Chapel Hill; Personal Service Chairman, Mrs. C. L. Greaves, Raleigh; Margaret Fund Chairman, Mrs. G. E. Isaacs, Durham. May I say just here that Miss Lettie Hamlett is our Margaret Fund student and she is at Meredith College, Raleigh.

In our territory there are 365 churches, 122 of these churches have no missionary organization. I earnestly hope in the near future that each church will have a full graded Union in every church in the Division, and in that way help the coming of the Kingdom.

There are now 629 organizations, with 11,725 members; 109 new organizations, women and young people.

Every year we have increased in new organizations, but our list of organizations is somewhat like a church roll, they drop out and cannot be found. When our organizations fail to report for a year, Miss Elsie K. Hunter drops them. Let's try to keep these new societies, and right here is a fine opportunity for our group leaders to assist in keeping these new ones by fostering them, or getting some nearby society to help.

The group leaders are doing good work, but let's try to keep these new organizations active.

In mission literature we have 3,644 subscriptions; tithers, 943; Personal Service, 350; weeks of prayer observed, 177.

A-1 graded unions, Mill Creek, Beulah Association; Tar River, Henderson, First and Harris Chapel; Mt. Zion, Burlington. First; Grace, Durham; Watts Street, Durham; Temple, Durham; making a total of seven.

Societies supporting Bible women in China, Chapel Hill, Ephesus, Grace, Watts Street, Durham, and Yates, each from Mt. Zion Association.

The women of Flat River Association contributed more than $350.00 to help defray the traveling expenses of Miss Ruby Daniel to Hungary, as a teacher missionary, and has 28 members in the Association who are contributing to the 100,000 Club.

Mrs. H. D. Upchurch has sent an unusually good report from the young people of our Division, but I can only give a few outstanding features.

The R. A.'s at Harris Chapel, Tar River Association, are nine years old and have been A-1 all these years, fine record. Henderson R. A.'s also A-1 in same Association. The young people of Piedmont Association held 42 mission study classes, awarded 96 certificates and 200 seals. They also had a rally in January with over 300 young people attending. Mt. Zion led in number attending the Declamation Contest, sixty-five; also had sixteen to attend the camp at Ridgecrest. Raleigh Association also had a goodly number at Ridgecrest Camp.

The Divisional Stewardship Contest was held in Tabernacle Church, Raleigh, with the following winners: G. A. Junior, Margaret White, Siler City, Sandy Creek Association; G. A. Intermediate, Sylvia Burns, Siler City, Sandy Creek Association; R. A. Junior, Paul Wilson, Littleton, Tar River Association; R. A. Intermediate, Edward Hamlet, Littleton, Tar River Association; Y. W. A., Miss Nina Carroll, High Point, Piedmont Association.

Our loyal and faithful Superintendents have written 2,591 letters and postals; traveled 5,591 miles, holding unnumbered conferences. They have made this report possible. We had no annual meeting last year, due to the State Annual Meeting being held twice in the territory of our Division. We will have our annual meeting this year in October, time and place will be announced later.

To our Father be all honor and glory for what has been accomplished in our Division.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. M. WHITTED,
Division Superintendent.

MARGARET FUND REPORT

The Coming of God's Kingdom through the Margaret Fund is clearly seen by a brief review of this work, which occupies a large and worthy place in W. M. U. plans. The Margaret Home, the gift of Mrs. Frank Chambers in 1905, set on foot this department of Kingdom service greatly needed.

The Margaret Home, through the wisdom and foresight of founder and friends, has developed into our present Margaret Fund of $64,000, invested in sound securities, the interest of which provides scholarships for our missionaries' children.

This splendid increase has been achieved by the coöperation of the states through regular gifts, and in support of special efforts put on to meet the increasing and urgent need for scholarships. Mrs. Frank Burney, the wise south-wide chairman of the Margaret Fund, has sponsored these movements. The Tenth Birthday observance brought in more than $3,000.00; the Margaret Memorials have exceeded $5,000.00 and are still coming in. These have made possible the Emergency Fund to supplement the regular Endowment Fund.

The Elizabeth Lowndes Scholarship Fund was launched two years ago with a goal of $7,000.00, $5,500.00 of which has now been paid. This scholarship is to be in addition to the regular scholarship and will be awarded in the senior year to the student "who is distinguished during the three preceding college years for high scholastic standing, leadership, personality, and character." This fund was completed through pledges from the states and word was sent to Mrs. Lowndes during her recent illness. Since she has passed away it is especially urgent that this money shall be raised as early as possible. Special plans have been made for accomplishing this through a Forget-Me-Not program, which will appear in April Royal Service. North Carolina has already met her apportionment for this cause and she also leads this year with the largest gifts to the Margaret Memorial Fund. The list of Margarets is very gratifying. Wilmington Division has done exceptionally fine work and has 22 Margarets reported. Greensboro Division has reported 18, and hopes to reach her goal of 20 by May.

The financial report shows an increase in gifts to all departments of this work and is concrete evidence of the interest in this cause.

This report has been made possible because of the splendid work of the Divisional Chairmen, and the increased interest among our women. There has been no change in the method of carrying on the work. Each Division has a general chairman and many associations and societies have also appointed someone whose special duty it will be to stimulate interest in this work.

We regret the loss of Mrs. Herman Stevens, chairman for the Greensboro Division, but are exceedingly fortunate in having secured Mrs. G. E. Isaacs, of Durham, to carry on this work. Mrs. Isaacs is already familiar with the work, having been a very active Associational Margaret Fund Chairman.

Five students attending college in North Carolina were assigned as follows:

Asheville Division—Evelyn Shepard, Mars Hill, Mrs. E. G. Davis, Chairman.

Charlotte Division—Rachel Leonard, Meredith, Mrs. J. J. Roddick, Chairman.

Greensboro Division—Lettie Hamlett, Meredith, Mrs. G. E. Isaacs, Chairman.

Elizabeth City Division—Archibald McMillan, Wake Forest, Mrs. Leslie Newman, Chairman.

Wilmington Division—Mary Fay McMillan, Meredith, Mrs. Geo. Lovell, Chairman.

The department of Mothering, which strives to establish contacts and meet some of the needs of these students while away from loved ones, has continued its ministries through the ready response and hearty support of our women. Love gifts have amounted to $235.00, besides many individual gifts of unrecorded value, and numerous greeting cards and personal attentions. Much work is reported and deep interest manifested in each division, but there is the constant appeal for more definite and uniform plans for ministering to our students. Your chairman would appreciate sharing plans which have proved successful in your division and passing them on to others.

Each State is asked to send one Margaret Fund poster to St. Louis, and from those sent in the best five will be selected for the W. M. U. exhibit, size not to exceed 22x28. We hope North Carolina may be represented by a poster.

As we renew the work of the year just closing, and also look back over the history of Margaret Fund, we are gratified to see how large has been its part in bringing in the Kingdom. This year we have 65 students receiving scholarships, amounting to $15,000. Since 1916, 296 students have been aided, with an expenditure of $266,425.00 in scholarships.

Recent visitors to the Orient have brought back reports of former Margaret Fund students now holding responsible posts on the Foreign Mission fields. At the October meeting of the Foreign Mission Board six former students received appointments to foreign service. Included in this group, North Carolina is proud to claim Rev. James A. Herring as one of her sons. Earlier in the year Helen Dozier, for many years our special charge, had been sent to Japan by our Fannie Heck offering. Thus are we reaping definite results in Kingdom advancement undreamed of when this work was started.

In the Homeland, too, we find these students in definite religious service, pastors, pastors' wives, and many others building Christian homes, where, by personal intercourse and public activity, they are promoting Kingdom interests.

We thank God for the vision of those who started this work, and for the faithful ones who have followed in successful fulfillment. We covet your continued support through prayers, interest, and gifts.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. CLYDE TURNER,

Chairman.

Mrs. Turner introduced three Margaret Fund students now at Meredith College—Miss Lettie Hamlett, and Mary Fay McMillan, who spoke briefly, and Rachel Leonard, who sang—"This Is My Task."

Report of W. M. U. Training School, Louisville, Ky., Mrs. Forrest C. Feezor, Raleigh. Adopted.

REPORT OF WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION TRAINING SCHOOL

At the time of the "Roll Call" of the American Red Cross there may be seen in our magazines and newspapers, on billboards and on placards in shop windows, a picture of a nurse holding in her arms a child. Beneath the picture is the slogan: "The Greatest Mother of Them All."

When I think of the spirit of Motherhood as manifested by an organization, my mind turns toward Woman's Missionary Union and her love and fostering care for Woman's Missionary Union Training School. Such a school was born out of the deep concern and sacrifices of the women of the South, and through the years of its history has been nurtured by the prayers, love, and gifts of these Baptist women.

A true mother is interested in the growth, development, and welfare of her child; therefore, this report of the twenty-ninth session of Woman's Missionary Union Training School is being presented for your consideration.

In September the School opened with 61 boarding students and 22 day students, making a total of 83. We rejoiced over so splendid a beginning, but God had even greater growth waiting, for at midyear five new boarding students entered, making a grand total of 88. You will be glad to know that this is the largest enrollment since the session of 1931-1932. This splendid enrollment represents every State of the Southern Baptist Convention except Louisiana, New Mexico, Arizona, and the District of Columbia.

North Carolina women will rejoice over the fact that from our State went the largest group, numbering 9. Six of these young women are using our State Scholarship Loan Funds, two are being sent by their local churches, and one is defraying her own expenses. May we not pause just here to speak a word of praise for the two churches, namely: The First Church of Wilmington and the First Church of Edenton, who have sent their daughters, at their own expense, to the school to better equip themselves for the bringing in of Christ's Kingdom? How well pleasing it must be to the Heavenly Father to see a church, awake to the possibilities of her youth, interested in their spiritual development and willing to give, sacrificially, in order that they may enter a school of special training. We commend these two churches and plead that still others may follow their splendid example.

With gladness we note that the principal, Miss Littlejohn, reports that of the twenty-one graduates of last year, all are busy at something: completing college work, doing orphanage work, foreign mission work, editorial work, W. M. U. Young People's Secretaries, nurses' training, pastors' wives, state mission workers, and other phases of usefulness. She further reports that the outlook for placements has not been so promising in years. Dr. Maddry, our Foreign Mission Secretary, has written the school for names and qualifications of the young women of this year's class who will be ready for foreign service. Surely, the future of the school looks brighter and the coming of the Kingdom is being hastened when young women, consecrated, prepared, and ready are once again finding places of service waiting their eager hearts and hands. Shall we fail to thank Him, who is the Giver of every gift?

The weeks of the school session are crowded to the full with regular class work, mission work at the Good Will Center, hospitals, mission churches and welfare centers, the Y. W. A. organizations, and other phases of the school life too numerous to name, yet you will find these young women taking time in midst of the rush of the days to go aside for the observance of the special sessions of prayer. Each season as observed by women and young people of the South are also observed by your girls at the Training School. Not only do they study and pray, but they join you with their gifts to State, Home, and Foreign Missions. Especially are we interested in the report of their gift to the Lottie Moon Offering at the Christmas season. At the close of December, the gift was reported as $320.35, an average of $38.60 per student. There is no need to say that many of these gifts were real sacrifices for the Kingdom. Often we have known of the full tithe of a Loan Fund to go into these special offerings during the year. So the young women, while there, are catching the spirit of service that will help them to go out and lead others into a higher plane of Christian giving than they have known before.

Even on the sunniest of days there sometimes comes a cloud, so with this Training School Year. Into the midst of growth and brightness has come a cloud. The year has brought a great loss to the school in the resignation, due to illness, of Miss Mary Louise Warren, who for fifteen years has been the efficient and beloved house director. To Miss Warren goes much of the credit for the atmosphere of Christian culture which is to be found in the school, and of which the school is justly proud. She has also had a large part in making the school a home, well ordered and lovely in the smooth running of every-day tasks. She, by her own attitude, glorified the common every-day tasks of the well-ordered home. From the lips of former students, who know and love Miss Warren, have often come the words, "She is one of the finest Christians I know." We would express our regret at her resignation and our appreciation for her long years of service.

Through the years it has been the custom of the women of the various states to send to the school, at intervals and especially on all holiday occasions, special treats for the holiday dinners. Some send cakes, some furnish ice cream, some send nuts, some turkeys for Christmas and Thanksgiving, and many other good things which add a holiday touch to the meals. How happy the girls of a State are when they know that the women of their own State have made possible the wholesome food enjoyed by all the girls. Some way a holiday takes on added joy when the school has been remembered by one's own state W. M. U. organizations.

It has been the happy privilege of North Carolina to furnish the chickens for the Easter dinner. I am sure that your organization will want to have a part in this love gift at this Easter time. Let me remind you that Easter is very near at hand and that the money for the chickens which your organization wishes to furnish should be sent to Miss Hunter at the State W. M. U. office within the next three weeks. Let us make our North Carolina girls glad with chickens, for not only one meal, but for two. After all, these grown-up daughters of ours are only very little girls grown taller, and to a little girl, what is Easter without a chicken?

North Carolina Woman's Missionary Union provides, as you know, six Scholarship Loan Funds to the school each year, thus making possible the attendance of six North Carolina girls. Funds for these scholarships must come from the women and young people of your churches in their gifts to "W. M. U. Specials" as made during the summer months. With so many young women seeking a way by which they may obtain the training given at the school, we must not fail to do our best in our gifts to the school this year. Need we furnish only six Loan Funds? Would it not be worth while to so enlarge our gifts that an additional fund or even two or three could be provided for?

There are in the hands of your State Trustee at the present time eight applications for Loan Funds for the coming year. Before the school shall have opened in the fall of this year that number will probably be doubled. At this time all of the funds are in use and the graduation of only one Senior from our State releases only one fund. How can the needs of this large group of young women be met with only one fund? Perhaps you can begin to see the task of your State Trustee when faced by such a problem. Could you read the letters of these young women telling of struggles to complete college courses, the burning desire of their hearts to answer the clear call of the Master to places of service, you would go home and do your best in leading the women of your organizations to help answer God's call to the young women of your State. I urge you to give special heed to the program on the school this year and suggest that the special program, to appear in the April issue of Royal Service, be utilized by your organization. Do not fail your school and your Christian young women by failing to do your best this year.

Last, I would beseech you to pray much for your school. Pray for Miss Littlejohn, the principal, with her many responsibilities, the faculty, the student body, and the Local Board and Managers. Pray—for "The Prayer of the Righteous availeth much."

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF PERSONAL SERVICE—1935

The world stands baffled today as it seeks to solve many questions, but the Christian follows the Light of the world, and the command to preach the gospel to every creature and to be a good neighbor to those about us is as clear as the noonday sun. We feel that if the principles of Jesus were practiced by mankind, then problems would melt away, so we go on confidently in the work of our Woman's Missionary Union, feeling we are in the right path. For our inspiration for Personal Service we would read again the story of the Good Samaritan and the life of service Jesus our Saviour lived. We would urge each society to study its own locality, find and minister to its needs. Make yourselves felt in your community by the good you do to those around you. New conditions have brought new opportunities. The C. C. C. camps scattered over the State offer a challenge to Christian people to give the Gospel to these young men on the threshold of life. The State is scattering its prisoners at different camps over the State. I'm told that in some of these not one Bible could be found. The youthful prisoners, of whom there are so many, offer a fine field for service, which is scarcely touched. Love should prompt our service, for without love service is an empty thing. Jesus said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

Do not neglect the children who are underprivileged. They are a part of the generation of the future and unless they are won to Christ the world will suffer. The real aim of Personal Service is to win people to Christ.

The Negro is the greatest challenge to our Christianity. Let us cultivate the Christian attitude toward them, being kind, helpful, just, and honest in all our dealings with them. Here is the text which is apt, "The strong must also bear the infirmities of the weak." In many ways we can help our Negro neighbors.

I fear that often we neglect the stranger and foreigner because we do not know what to do, but if we seek to know them we find hearts hungry for friendship and that will respond to our call.

It is thrilling to read the reports of the fine Personal Service done by the women of our Woman's Missionary Union, and I bid you godspeed in your work. Keep on doing all you have done formerly and meet the new needs under changing conditions. Free literature may be had by writing to W. M. U. Office, Raleigh, N. C. Finally, do not fail to report once a quarter.

REPORT ON STEWARDSHIP

"Bring ye all the tithes unto the storehouse . . . prove me now."—Mal. 3:10.

There is indeed cause for gratitude and encouragement when we realize that during this year there has been a decided increase in our gifts to the great missionary enterprise.

More and more the teachings concerning the scriptural plan of financing Kingdom work is permeating our organization—Jehovah's great and only plan—tithes and offerings.

Of the sixty-one Associations comprising our W. M. U. organization, fifty of these have a stewardship chairman. Organization must precede systematic endeavor; therefore, we urge that a stewardship chairman be appointed in every Association, whose responsibility it is to pass on to the societies in her Association the "major aims" of our stewardship teaching.

The burden of securing accurate reports rests upon the associational chairman. But it is evident that this task is impossible without the coöperation of every local society.

We suggest that you make use of the free literature which may be obtained from the W. M. U. office.

The Declamation Contest continues to be one of the most potent factors in the teaching of stewardship. The enthusiasm with which our young people have entered these contests has been most gratifying.

We urge that even a larger number be encouraged to participate in these contests. Counselors, leaders, and young people's directors must work together in accomplishing this. Let us make this a year of patient persistent effort, that our women and young people may enter into a fuller knowledge and deepened conviction concerning the stewardship of life and possessions.

Let us pray earnestly that the truth expressed in the slogan for the year—"Missions wait on stewardship; stewardship waits on you"—be burned into every heart.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. G. BOOMHOUR,

Chairman.

MISSION STUDY REPORT FOR 1935

The imparting of information concerning mission needs has been described as the key to the mission situation, for certainly learning the needs of mission fields will be the door to the resources necessary to meet these needs, and so it seems that no one thing has contributed so much to the phenomenal growth of the W. M. U. as the regular program of missionary education in our societies. There seems no better way to keep informed as to world conditions along missionary lines than through the medium of intensive mission study.

Wilmington Association held a Mission Study Institute, where about a hundred officers and leaders came together for one day, to discuss plans for presenting in the best possible way the Foreign Mission study for all grades.

There was a falling off in number of classes both with our women and young people, but we want to feel that this was due, not to lack of interest, but to conditions over which leaders had no control. However, with fewer classes more awards were given, showing that classes were more largely attended, because many, many classes were held where no awards were desired. One hundred forty-five official seals were awarded, an increase of forty-six, which shows that many are continuing their study.

We'd be glad if we could print in red, or in capital letters, if it would make lasting impressions on each society, the words of Mrs. Una Roberts Lawrence: "Have year-round mission study plans. Mission study is the foundation of all the plans of W. M. U. So plan for it as such, with definite study groups continuing throughout the year. The one-day class is well as an accent, an unusual emphasis, a special occasion when all the circles of a society or all the societies of an Association may join together for a fellowship in study, but it can never be more than that. When used as the only mission study program for a circle or a society, it provides at best only starvation diet. You will perish of missionary malnutrition. You must have the year-round mission study program if you would be well developed, well nourished, strong and healthy in knowledge of missions. Most books must have at least one hour for the teaching of each chapter. The minimum requirement of time spent in a mission study class is three hours of actual study. Remember this is the minimum by which to measure those exceptional situations when no more time can be spent. It is not the measure of highest efficiency or the mark of satisfactory achievement. It is but the minimum."

REPORT OF NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST HOSPITAL FOR THE YEAR 1935

In this year of jubilee, making fifty years of service in our missionary achievement under wise and consecrated leadership, we feel deeply grateful for the wonderful achievements reported today. It is only as we review the statistics of the past thirteen years of our Hospital that we realize the love and loyalty expressed by our Union in so many ways. For it is to them we are indebted for $16,000.00 contributed in 1923 for furnishing all bedrooms and waiting rooms of our Baptist Hospital, making it possible for the opening of the Hospital one year sooner than the trustees had hoped to do, since no means had been appropriated by our General Convention for this purpose.

In 1926 the pressing needs of a Nurses' Home was again presented to this body, and a request made that if our Union would raise $20,000.00, or one-half of the necessary amount to build a Nurses' Home, we would erect a building at once, that we might be able to accommodate our rapidly growing training classes. On March 29, 1928, our beloved President, Mrs. W. N. Jones, and a number of the officers of our Union officiated in dedicating the Blanche Barrus Nurses' Home of Winston-Salem as a memorial to one we love and who had served so faithfully for five years as Secretary of our Union, and had offered her life to the Master's service on foreign fields. Twenty-one thousand dollars had been contributed through the women to this building and $2,000.00 was donated for the complete furnishings. Added to this, the women have contributed each year more than $1,000.00 worth of linens to help meet the growing demands of our Hospital. Also, during the past thirteen years of service, our North Carolina Baptist Hospital has treated 31,394 patients, revealing the large number of lives it has touched in the sacred task of the ministry of healing. Of this number, nearly 15,000 were charity or part-pay patients, many of whom could not have had hospital treatment had it not been offered them by the Baptists of our State. The record of this past year's service reveals the largest number treated in one year in the history of our work. More than 4,000 have been admitted to our institution, showing a gain of over 1,000, with the number of patient days 31,881. Over 1,500 of this year's patients were charity or part-pay patients. They have come to us from all sections of our State, fathers and mothers—many from the little hillside farm, ready to mortgage the home or anything they had that they might be spared to minister to their little ones. Our hearts have been touched, also, by the suffering little ones who have been brought to us—the little ones who remind us of the flowers so fresh from Heaven, but whose lives have been blighted by disease and suffering. Some have come crippled who have never walked, others whose eyes have been dimmed by disease. Many of these have been restored to health and happiness to know the joys of childhood, truly the lame have walked, the blind received their sight. Through the miracles of science we have realized the nearness of the Great Physician, the sympathizing Saviour.

During the past year, for charity work we have received $16,575.70 from our Mother's Day offering, also $9,274.00 from the Duke Foundation, but during the past year the call has been so great that our charity work amounted to more than $56,000.00, leaving a balance of $31,000 for this large amount of charity work to be contributed from the operating expenses of the Hospital. Added to this, it has been necessary to supplement $5,000 to the retirement of the bonds on the building that the 4 per cent of the Coöperative Program did not meet. We have added this year $3,000.00 worth of modern equipment for our operating room, that we might give the very best service possible to save human life. One of the most encouraging features of this year's work is that nearly 400 churches more contributed to our Mother's Day offering than in the history of our work, revealing a new sympathy and a new consciousness of the blessings of the Hospital. Another happy feature of the year was the liberal supply of linens, amounting to $1,500.00, that has come to us from all parts of the State. When our supply has grown so limited these gifts have enabled us to meet the demands for the supply of the emergency beds that we have been called on to provide for so many patients coming to us from distant parts of the State. If each Society leader here would interest her society in making some contribution of linens during the month of April, it would aid us in doing a larger charity work. But we would plead with you that you do not allow the white gifts to take the place of your Mother's Day offering, since our charity service is extended or limited by your gifts on this day so sacred to us all. I would again mention the great help of the Hospital Auxiliary of Winston-Salem, composed of all the Baptist churches of the city, under the leadership of Mrs. H. S. Stokes. It has rendered invaluable service during the past year, for they have made practically all garments used in the operating rooms, besides doing a large amount of sewing for the Hospital under the direction of Mrs. J. S. Slate, who distributes the work and gathers it in for the Hospital. Hundreds of dollars are saved in this way, and this organization provides a Bible verse and a flower that are sent up to the patients on their breakfast trays each Sabbath morning.

At the last meeting of our Board of Trustees, our capable superintendent, Mr. Smith Hagaman, reported that the patronage of our Hospital had so grown that each day he was compelled to tell many applicants there was not a single bed available. It was decided that to meet the growing needs for treatment of those who would come to us who would not be able to enter other hospitals that we would accept the challenge and at an early day add a wing to our building. While we do not yet have this money in sight, we hear the command of the Lord to go forward and build in His name, and so in His name we would ask each one here today if you will not go with us to that great Power House up there that the way may be opened that we may discharge our full obligations to our fellowman, that the beauty of the Divine Saviour may shine in our deeds of love, our ministry to humanity.

The Secretary was asked to send telegrams to the following—Mrs. Hight C. Moore, Nashville, Tenn., expressing regret she could not be present; to the North Carolina girls at the W. M. U. Training School in Louisville, Ky.; and the North Carolina girls at Southwestern Seminary, Fort Worth, Texas; and to Perry Morgan, Ridgecrest, in answer to their telegrams of greeting.

Fifty Years of Service.

Mrs. T. M. Pittman, Corresponding Secretary, 1910, Raleigh; Sunbeam Leader, 1896-1923.

Mrs. H. T. Stevens, 1923-1926, Newport News, Va.

Mrs. Earl C. James, Young People's Secretary, 1929-1933, Elkin.

At the request of Mrs. T. M. Pittman, there was a pause in memory of Miss Blanche Barrus, former Corresponding Secretary, who has passed away.

Mrs. Jones called the names of the four living members of the original Executive Committee, then called the Central Committee—Mrs. W. N. Jones, Mrs. T. H. Briggs, Mrs. J. E. Ray, Mrs. J. M. Barbee. All but Mrs. Briggs were present.

Mrs. Jones presented Mrs. Wright, Superintendent of Montgomery Association for 21 years; Miss Macy Cox, Superintendent Wilmington Division for 27 years; Mrs. Mary Trueblood, of Elizabeth City, who has been attending the W. M. U. meetings for 50 years, and is the only living charter member of Chowan Association.

Mrs. F. D. Lethco, of Charlotte, Vice-President of W. M. U., was presented. Mrs. Edna R. Harris read the recommendations of the Executive Committee. Adopted as read on motion of Mrs. Harris.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION
FOR THE YEAR 1936

Grateful for the many blessings that have come to us in our half-century of service, and believing that the coming years will bring to us enlarged opportunities and a fuller realization of the power of our God, we recommend:

First, That we take as our Watchword for the year, "Jesus said: As the Father hath sent Me, even so send I you."—John 20:21.

Hymn: Lead On, O King Eternal.

Second, That we urge all of our societies to study the Year Book prepared each year by the Woman's Missionary Union of our Southern Baptist Convention and to follow as far as possible the methods and plans of work recommended therein.

Because of conditions we face today we would recommend more emphasis on the moral standards of our Union believing that personal righteousness and right attitudes toward present evils carry more influence than we sometimes realize.

Third, That the fundamentals on which our work has been built be kept continually before our societies. First of all, a deepened and increasing prayer life, more information as to the progress of the Kingdom at home and abroad. A ministry of relief to those around us; a stewardship of all possessions, a deeper concern for the unenlisted in our churches and a constantly increasing effort for the missionary education of our young people.

Fourth, Special Offerings and Seasons of Prayer. Realizing that the special offerings of the Woman's Missionary Union are largely maintaining both the work of the Foreign and the Home Mission Boards, we ask that every society observe both of these offerings, with their special seasons of prayer. Have as interesting programs as possible, urge all of the women in the society to attend the meetings and have some part in the offerings.

Week of Prayer and Offering for Annie W. Armstrong Offering, March 2-6—$500.00 of this offering to be applied to the higher education of the children of Home missionaries.

Week of Prayer and Offering for Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, November 30-December 4. That all literature and envelopes be carefully distributed and the envelopes collected, and during the programs of the week an effort be made to inform the society and the church as to what is being accomplished through these special gifts. The posters containing the pictures of our missionaries supported by these offerings should be displayed in the church for at least a month.

State Mission Offering. That a day of prayer for State Missions be observed and an offering made on September 7. That the General Board set aside this offering to support the work of our Woman's Missionary Union.

Fifth, Mission Literature.

As this is the fiftieth year of the Literature Department of our Southern Union, we would place an added emphasis on the circulation of mission literature.

That we endeavor as individuals and societies to do our part to reach the quota of subscribers to Royal Service, The Window, and World Comrades, and to promote the circulation of Home and Foreign Fields in our State.

As an expression of gratitude for fifty years of loyalty and service to our work on the part of the Biblical Recorder we would enter enthusiastically into the plans now being made to increase the subscription of our denominational paper in our societies and the local church. Each society is asked to appoint a committee for this definite task.

Sixth, Woman's Missionary Union Training School.

That we continue to support our Woman's Missionary Union Training School by a gift of $1,200.00 for current expenses; and that we maintain six scholarships of $200.00 each, including the Louis Castlebury Scholarship given by Mrs. J. G. Layton, Lillington, N. C., in memory of her father, Mr. Louis Castlebury. That the Training School have a place on our program at the August meeting of the society.

That we recommend no applicant for attendance at the Woman's Missionary Union Training School, Louisville, Kentucky, be approved by our State until such applicant has had a personal interview with one of the following officers: State W. M. U. President, Corresponding Secretary, Young People's Leader, or State Trustee. This shall apply to applicants for Loan Funds as well as to those whose expenses are being paid by local churches or organizations, and applicants who defray their own expenses.

Seventh, That the Margaret Fund for the education of the children of our missionaries be brought each year to the attention of our societies, preferably in a special program in July, that we may inform our constituency as to the fine record made by these students and the opportunity that comes to us through them.

Eighth, That the Heck Memorial Offering in June, 1936, be given to the following causes: $2,500.00 to the work of Rev. Hudson McMillan at Soochow, China, where we sent our first Yates Memorial Missionary—Rev. T. C. Britton; $1,000.00 for the work among the lepers at Tai Kam Island as an appreciation of Dr. John Lake and the work he has done for these people.

Any sum above these two amounts to be appropriated by the Executive Committee of the Woman's Missionary Union.

Ninth, Sunbeam Fiftieth Anniversary and Focus Weeks.

That in view of the fact that 1936 marks the Fiftieth Year of Sunbeam Bands, we properly observe this important event by promoting Sunbeam work in the following ways:

1. Join heartily in the anniversary plans promoted by our Southern W. M. U.

2. Give proper emphasis to Sunbeam work in all Associational meetings.

3. Adopt as our State goals the following: 700 Sunbeam Bands, $6,000.00 for total Sunbeam gifts, this amount to include $1,000.00 to be designated as the Anniversary Gift of North Carolina Sunbeams for kindergarten work in Soochow, China. We are urging every Sunbeam leader to emphasize the Heck Memorial Offering and asking that every person in the local church ever a Sunbeam make a contribution through the Sunbeam Offering.

In order to reach these worthy goals, each Association is asked to set its Associational goals.

Moreover, we urge that the Focus Weeks for young people's organizations be fittingly observed in the local church. These weeks are as follows: Sunbeam Band, February 9-15; Young Woman's Auxiliary, May 10-16; Girls' Auxiliary, August 9-15; Royal Ambassador Chapter, November 8-14. The careful observance of these Focus Weeks will inevitably result in the strengthening of our convictions in regard to enlarged missionary education of youth.

Tenth, That we take as our financial aim the sum of $200,000.00. This amount to include all gifts to missions, the Co-operative Program, and all special offerings of the Woman's Missionary Union. That each society endeavor to make not less than a five per cent increase over the gifts of the past year.

RESOLUTIONS

We, the Baptist women of North Carolina, who have met in this year so full of significance, are deeply conscious of the privilege which has been ours as we have participated in this the forty-sixth session of Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina.

As we pause to think for a moment upon these privileges, we are grateful, first, for the unique joy we have had in assembling ourselves in this church made sacred to Woman's Missionary Union for its worthy contribution to its work. Not only to this church and its pastor, Dr. J. Powell Tucker, are we grateful, but to all the Baptist churches of Raleigh do we extend thanks for their tireless efforts to make us happy. For the open doors of homes we have been deeply appreciative. The local committee, with Mrs. W. D. Briggs as Chairman, has done well its task and we rejoice in your ministries.

The inspiring messages have been unusually fine. Especially do we want to acknowledge the blessings our missionaries have brought through their presence and messages: Miss Alda Grayson, China; Miss Naomi Schell, Japan; Miss Lucy Wright, China; Miss Katie Murray, China; and Rev. Hudson McMillan, China. Unusually blessed are we to have so many distinguished visitors.

We wish to express our deepest appreciation, first, to Mrs. W. J. Cox, Treasurer of our Southern W. M. U., for her matchless messages; to Miss Kathleen Mallory, beloved Corresponding Secretary of our Southern Union, for her challenging message; to Miss Blanch White, Corresponding Secretary of our sister State, Virginia, for her stirring message; to Dr. Chas. E. Maddry, Executive Secretary of our Foreign Mission Board, for giving to us a new vision of our mission fields; to Dr. John L. Hill for his splendid message on Miss Fannie E. S. Heck. All these messages have led us into a deeper desire to serve Him more devotedly.

We rejoice in the fine reports of our State officers, Mrs. Edna R. Harris, Corresponding Secretary; Miss Mary Currin, Young People's Secretary; Miss Elsie K. Hunter, Treasurer. There are others to whom we would extend thanks for their parts on the program—Dr. Forrest C. Feezor, of this city; Mrs. J. J. Roddick, of Winston-Salem; Mrs. I. G. Greer, Thomasville; Miss Mary Herring, Raleigh;

Mrs. C. E. Maddry, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. Ira D. S. Knight, Durham; Mrs. B. Y. Tyner, Raleigh; Mrs. Nane Starnes, Candler; Mrs. Wade Bostick, Shelby.

The music made a distinct contribution to our meeting and we thank all who served in this capacity.

And Mrs. Jones, what more can be said than to you hath been said? Words are inadequate to express our thanks to you. Varied emotions surge within us. You have encouraged and inspired when others have been depressed; you have led wisely when others would have led unwisely; you have led fearlessly when others dared not. In the words of Miss Mallory, "We would if we could express in words our thanks." We do love you and we believe we could not make you happier than to pledge our continued prayers for you and for your successor that she may be given grace to follow in your train.

To all who have in any way contributed to the great success of this meeting we do heartily extend grateful appreciation. You have made us feel that this closing session is not the end of a perfect day, but the close of a perfect three days of fellowship, information, and inspiration. It will surely send us out to follow more closely the King Eternal, who leads us on in the glorious task of Kingdom Building.

Respectfully submitted,
